DR. J. W. HARRIS' NARROW ESCAPE

Dr. J. W. Harris met with an accident while passing through Springfield last Monday, but fortunately did not result seriously. As he was driving up the street his horse became frightened and attempted to run away. The doctor pulled up quick on the lines, when one of them broke and left him with but one line. He pulled the horse into the curb and in making the short turn was thrown from the buggy which passed over his body. He held bravely on to the frightened steed till he regained his feet and getting the animal under control and they went on their way none the worse for the little fracas. Had he been any other than a doctor his injuries would have been much worse.—News.

NEW ABSTRACT COMPANY HAS BEEN FORMED

Fred Stickles and Paul Merrill Buy One Freeland & Co.

Fred G. Stickles and Paul Merrill have taken over the business of Freeland & Company, and organized the Eugene Abstract company, with offices at Rooms 8 and 10 in the McClung building. In addition to the preparation of abstracts of title this company handles fire insurance and real estate loans.

By reason of his long service as chief deputy in the county clerk's office here the property owners are well acquainted with the qualifications of Mr. Stickles for this line of work.

As soon as the heavy work in the clerk's office incident to the June term of court is completed, Fred will leave to engage actively in the business of his firm.

Mr. Merrill came to Eugene last year from Kansas City, Mo., where for fifteen years he was engaged in the practice of law, relating particularly to real estate and title litigation. Prior to that period he was, for some years, engaged in the abstract business in Kansas.

The firm has engaged a force of clerks to complete their index, and are prepared to give the public prompt and efficient service.

Blotches, pimples, flesh worms, black heads, are unsightly, and denote impure blood. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will drive them away, carrying people clear to the top floor of health and happiness. 35c Tea or Tablets. Linn Drug Co.
