AMUSEMENTS

At last a real genuine comic opera, presented by a company of exceptional merit, will prove quite an innovation to local music lovers. That musical gem, "The Burgomaster" with many of the first and original company is booked to appear at the Eugene Theatre Friday evening, June 4. The present company is headed by Harry Herman, who is well known to the comic opera stage, and the supporting company numbers over a hundred others. This entertainment comes to Eugene under the auspices and for the benefit of the park fountain fund.

hall Sunday morning.

MARY S. SMALL, Pres.

CARD OF THANKS.
We desire to extend our thanks to the firemen and the citizens in general for their timely assistance in saving our property from destruction in the recent fire. We realize that without the aid of the citizens our loss would have been much heavier.

BANGS LIVERY CO.
KNIGHTS OF MACCABEES.
All members of the order in Lane county are invited to attend a social to be given in the old I. O. O. F. hall on Monday evening, May 31.
By order of the committee in charge.

Bert Ingalls went hunting last week. All he got for his pains was the pleasure of drinking Folger's Golden Gate coffee, which he took with him.

The final baseball game for the Doughnut cup will be played Monday between the Dormitory and Appa Sigma.

An Illinois man has bought a ranch of 2023 acres, 12 miles south of Corvallis, including 100 head of cattle, 250 sheep, goats, ranch equipment, etc., for $72,500. He says he will send $25,000 in improvements.

THE MODEL SUBSCRIBER.

"Good morning, Mr. Editor; how are your folks today?
I owe for your next year's paper;
I thought I'd come and pay, And Jones is going to take it, and this is his money here, I shut down lendin' it to him, and then coaxed him to try it a year.
And here's a bushel of russets my wife picked express for you; A small bunch of flowers from Jessie; she thought she must do something too.
You're doin' the politics bully, as all our family agree; Just keep your old goose quill a flappin', and give them a good one for me
And now you are chuck full of business, and I won't be takin' your time.
I've things of my own I must tend to—good day, Mr. Editor, I believe I will climb."
The editor sat in his sanctum, and brought down his fist with a thump.
"God bless that old farmer!" he muttered, "he's a regular jolly old tramp."
And 'tis thus with our noble profession, and thus it will ever be There are some who appreciate its labor and some who never can see.
But in the great time that is coming, when Gabriel's trumpet shall sound,
And they who have labored and rested, shall come from the quivering ground;
And they who have striven and suffered to teach and enoble the race,
Shall march to the front of the column, each one in his God-given place;
As they march through the gates of the City, with proud victorious
tramp,
The editor and his assistants will not be far from the head!
—Old Strap Book.

MAR-VEL-LOUS!
At a baseball game in Chicago, the gatekeeper hurried to Comiskey, leader of the White Sox, and said:
"Umpire Hurst is here with two friends. Shall I pass 'em in?"
"An umpire with two friends!" gasped Comiskey. "Sure!"—Everybody's Magazine.

are but outward signs of the evil done in secret by myriads of dandruff germs sapping the life blood of the hair. Micro kills the parasite, soothes the itching scalp, gives lustre to the hair and stops it falling out. A single application gives relief and proves its worth.
