

Woman's Power Over Man

Woman's most glorious endowment is the power to awaken and hold the pure and honest love of a worthy man. When she loses it and still loves on, no one in the wide world can know the heart agony she endures. The woman who suffers from weakness and derangement of her special womanly organism soon loses the power to sway the heart of a man. Her general health suffers and she loses her good looks, her attractiveness, her amiability and her power and prestige as a woman. Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., with the assistance of his staff of able physicians, has prescribed for and cured many thousands of women. He has devised a successful remedy for woman's ailments. It is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a positive specific for the weaknesses and disorders peculiar to women. It purifies, regulates, strengthens and heals. Medicine dealers sell it. No honest dealer will advise you to accept a substitute in order to make a little larger profit.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and strengthen Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

GENERAL NEWS FORECAST FOR THE COMING WEEK

Washington, D. C., June 5.—The senate debates on the tariff bill will be continued on the vote on the Bailey income tax amendment, which has been fixed for Thursday.

President Taft so far has made no public engagements for the week. Thursday afternoon at the White House he will present gold medals to Wilbur and Orville Wright on behalf of the Aero Club of America.

Secretary of War Dickinson will attend the graduation exercises at the United States Military Academy at West Point on Friday and deliver diplomas to the members of the graduating class.

The annual Rose Festival at Portland, Oregon, which will continue through the greater part of the week will be given added brilliancy by the participation of the officers and men of Admiral Iijichi's Japanese fleet.

The new battleship Michigan, one of the most formidable fighting machines afloat, is to be given the first of her official trials off the New England coast.

The opening of the Queensborough Bridge, spanning the East river between Manhattan and Long Island, will be made the occasion for a notable celebration in New York on Saturday. The bridge is one of the largest structures of its kind in the world.

The fiftieth anniversary of the founding of Northwest University, at Evanston, Ill., will be celebrated with a national conference on criminal law and criminology.

Another interesting event of similar nature will be the celebration of the centennial of Miami University, the oldest of Ohio's colleges.

Interest throughout the South will center in the annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans, which will hold forth in Memphis during the first four days of the week. The reunion will culminate Friday in the unveiling of the Stephen D. Lee monument in the Vicksburg national park. Prominent participants in the unveiling ceremonies will include Henry Watterson, who is to deliver the oration; General Clement A. Evans, of the United Confederate Veterans, and General Frederick D. Grant, representing the war department of the United States.

Many notable conventions are on the calendar for the week, included among them are the meetings of the American Medical Association at Atlantic City, the National Conference of Charities and Corrections at Buffalo, the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine at Louisville, the Southern Newspaper Publishers' Association at Birmingham, the Southern Commercial Secretaries' Association at Atlanta, and the American Water Works Association at Milwaukee.

Of interest to Americans in the field of foreign news will be the jubilee celebration of the American College in Rome, the International Horse Show and the Imperial Press Conference in London, and the International Dairy Congress at Budapest.

LONDON'S BIG HORSE SHOW OPENS TODAY

London, June 5.—King horse again came into his own at the opening of the International Horse Show at Olympia today. In every respect the show eclipses all previous affairs of its kind held in London. The entries come from many parts of the world. America, as usual, is to the front with a large number of competitors. Prominent among the American exhibitors are A. G. Van derbilt, William H. Moore, Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., C. W. Weston and E. T. Spotsbury. Canada is represented by a notable string of hunters sent over by Capt. Evans of Montreal and Crow & Murray of Toronto.

The prizes offered this year exceed $50,000 in value, and they include the King Edward gold cup of the value of $2,500, which is to be competed for by teams of three officers of any nationality. Disappointment has been expressed that the United States cavalry could not send a team to compete for this trophy.
