

Medicines are Needed

...which we are not, medicines would be needed. But since our systems have been weakened, impaired and broken down through the use of stimulants which have gone on from the early ages, generations, remedies are needed to correct our inherited and otherwise weakened systems. To reach the seat of stomach weakness, and consequent digestive troubles, there is a remedy known as Dr. Fierce's Golden Medical Discovery compound, extracted from native medicinal plants for over forty years with great satisfaction to all users. For Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Pain in the Stomach after eating, Headache, Belching of food, Chronic Diarrhea and other Intestinal troubles, the "Discovery" is a time-proven and most efficient remedy.

It has on its wrapper the signature

OREGON COMMENCEMENT BEGAN WITH BACCALAUREATE

The Right Reverend Charles W. Scadding, bishop of Oregon, began the commencement season of the University of Oregon in 1909, with a sermon yesterday morning in Villard hall. The theme was "Purpose," and the bishop devoted his attention to the worldly viewpoint of the subject, and also the spiritual side.

"No life has amounted to anything of consequence," said the speaker, "unless there has been some purpose to hold the personality to one end. The individual who would do anything," he continued, addressing the senior class, "must have some central idea, a trifle egotistic it may be, but wholly necessary."

The bishop said further that life is full of purposes, and while the human beings on earth may but rarely see the ends, there is always an eternal plan in which all things work. Each person is described as a unit in this plan, though often the part is small. Each one, therefore, should take pride in whatever he does. His vocation should not be something out of which to get a mere living. The work and life of each man should be to serve and not to be served.

About fifteen hundred people were in the building. The program was well rendered, the musical numbers being under the direction of Prof. I. M. Glen. The program follows:

Prelude—Processional.
Hymn—Selected.
Invocation—Reverend D. H. Trimble of the Humphrey Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church of Eugene.
Hymn—Selected.
Scripture Reading—Rev. Ora C. Wright of the First Baptist church of Eugene.
Vocal Music.
Prayer—Reverend J. S. McCullum of the First Christian church of Eugene.
Chorus.
Baccalaureate Sermon—The Right Reverend Charles W. Scadding, Bishop of Oregon.
Hymn—Selected.
Benediction—Reverend P. K. Hammond, of St. Mary's Episcopal church of Eugene.

Postlude—Commencement Orchestra.
Musical Recital Tonight.
This afternoon the annual reception of President Campbell was held in honor of Professor Luella Clay Carson, dean of women at the University of Oregon for 21 years. Professor Carson was recently elected president of Mills College, the leading college for women on the Pacific Coast. She accepted the position, and the reception was in honor of her work during the last score of years at the University.

This evening the faculty of the school of music will give their closing annual recital. The program will be varied and excellent.

Program Tomorrow.
The seniors will be guests of honor at the Alumni luncheon to be given by the University tomorrow at 1 o'clock, on the campus. The junior girls will serve the banquet.

Judge J. W. Hamilton for the Board of Regents, President P. L. Campbell on behalf of the University and Beattie and Bond for Alumni and Seniors respectively, will give toasts.

Six seniors will take part in the annual contest for the Failing and Beekman awards tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in Villard hall. The awards are the interest on funds established for the purpose by Henry W. Failing of Portland and C. C. Beekman of Jacksonville and have been awarded every year since 1890. The six contestants for the present year are: Jesse H. Bond, "True and False Democracy"; Greta E. Bristow, "The Philistine"; Merle R. Chessman, "The Price of Progress"; Elizabeth R. Gallozy, "Build Up Your Wooden Walls"; Earl Kilpatrick, "The Price of Progress"; T. R. Townsend, "True and False Democracy."

Commencement Personals.
Among the Alumni and former Eugene people who are early commencement visitors, are: Judge R. S. Beason, Miss Camille Carroll, Miss Elizabeth Woods, Misses McKinney, Miss Mary Scott, Don Stephenson, Frank Caruth, W. L. Ray and Ernest Borch. Other visitors are Mrs. Goff, Hood River; Dr. Harry Lane and Mrs. Lane, of Portland, and Mrs. Talbert, of Milton.

SPRINGFIELD LOSES GAME.

Eugene Hits Hard and Piles Up Ten Scores.

A thousand people witnessed the opening game at the new P. E. & E. baseball grounds on the car line between Eugene and Springfield yesterday afternoon, when Eugene slaughtered Springfield to the tune of 10 to 3. The game was interesting for the first four innings, but after that errors were frequent and the playing was slow and lagged. Eugene made two runs in the fourth, three in the fifth and five in the sixth. After that the Sawmillers held them down, but the lead was too great to overcome. The visitors succeeded in sending one man over the plate in the fifth and two more in the eighth.

The diamond was soft, precluding any series of fast plays, but nevertheless some pretty fielding stunts were pulled off by the Eugene infield.

Although advertised, the mayors, and judicial officers did not pull off their stunts at the opening of the game. It was not because of "cold feet," but for unknown reasons that kept them at home. The management, however, wishes to thank them for allowing their names to be used, which materially helped swell the attendance at the first game.

The runs by innings:
Eugene, 0 0 2 3 5 0 0 x—10
Springfield, 0 0 0 1 0 0 2 0—3
Batteries—Wager and Wager; Jewett and Lemley.

Nelson in Oklahoma.

Oklahoma City, Okla., June 21.—Eyes of pugilistic followers all over the country are turned toward Oklahoma City today, in anticipation of the battle between Battling Nelson, lightweight champion of the world, and Jack Clifford, alleged to be the world's hardest hitting lightweight, which will be staged in the new state metropolis tomorrow night.

Heavyweights to Scrap.

Boston, June 21.—Joe Jeanette and Fandy Ferguson, rivals for the heavyweight title, will meet in a 12-round battle at the Armory Athletic Club tomorrow night. There is much bitterness between these two scrappers and the bout should be a grudge affair.
