BONNETT BROTHERS
WILL ERECT FINE
TWO-STORY BLOCK

Will Lease One of Three Store-
 Rooms to Well-Known
 Grocer

The Guard has from time to time mentioned the fact that the Bonnett brothers, who owned the old frame livery stable occupied by the Bangs Livery Co., on East Ninth street, and which burned several weeks ago, causing the biggest blaze Eugene has had in years, will replace the building with a brick block. They have finally decided to erect the building this summer and it is understood that a prominent grocer of this city will occupy one of the three store-rooms on the ground floor with his store, which is now located on Willamette street. It will be the room next to the alley. Plans for the building are already being drawn and announcements as to its dimensions and probable cost will soon be made. It will be two stories high.
