

SORROWS DEATH OF LATE MEMBER

of Representative
Cushman Is Respected

July 8.—The high esteem in which the late Representative Cushman was held by his colleagues was reflected by that of the state of Washington, in offering a beautiful tribute and character of the representative of the state of Washington, and Humphrey of Washington, and providing a resolution expressive of the sense of loss over the death of the body to his payment of the expenses of the funeral. He said he would adjourn as a mark of the memory of the deceased.

TAX REMOVED FROM SELLING OF TOBACCO

Congress in This Way Hopes to Put a Stop to Night
Riding

Washington, July 8.—The senate today accepted Senator Bradley's amendment permitting tobacco growers to sell their products without paying a tax. The measure is practically the same as that which passed the house. It removes the tax of six cents a pound on the tobacco grower as a vendor and thus removes what is supposed to be the cause of the Night Rider attacks in Kentucky and Tennessee.

There is little doubt but the provision will remain in the bill. The measure was accepted by the senate. In the senate yesterday the income tax questions, including the corporation tax provision and inheritance tax, received much attention and straight income advocates were afforded an opportunity to get a vote in

TO INVESTIGATE CRUEL MURDER OF MRS. BRONZO

Lured Away from Home, She Is Killed and Her Money
Stolen

Tacoma, July 8.—Deputy Sheriff Doten has gone to Wilkeson to investigate the killing of Mrs. Louis Bronzo, wife of a timberman in the employ of the Wilkeson Coal & Coke Company. The man went to the house where the husband and wife resided at midnight and told Mrs. Bronzo her brother, who lived at Black Diamond, several miles away, was dead. Together they departed for the latter place, and when about half a mile away she was brutally murdered. Mrs. Bronzo had $600 in the house, and so far as can be learned no one knew of this but her husband and brother. The money is missing.

favor of the income tax as opposed to the corporation tax. The income tax was defeated and with the corporation provision securely established as a part of the tariff bill there was considerable effort to amend it.

TEACHERS CHOOSE OFFICERS AT DENVER TODAY

National Association's Proceedings at Today's Session

Denver, July 8.—The National Educational Association elected the following officers today: President, J. Y. Joyner, of North Carolina; first vice president, L. H. Harvey, of Wisconsin; treasurer, A. H. Chamberlain, of California, re-elected. Explaining why it is that a young man degenerates six months after he enters college, Charles Fordyce, dean of the University of Nebraska, said: "They have been going to a secondary school under home influences. They come to college as their own masters and in a few months fall under the alluring vices constantly flaunted before their eyes." Fordyce proposed the English and German methods to stop this lowering of moral standards. He said boys should be made self-reliant men before they enter college, and they would be able to come and go as they pleased without the necessity of constant supervision, which only tended to make the worse.

PROPERTY LOSS BY FLOOD IS REPORTED VERY HEAVY WITH SEVERAL LIVES LOST

Kansas City, July 8.—Close to two thousand are temporarily homeless, with a property loss estimated at $1,500,000, six persons drowned, two injured, railroad traffic demoralized and thousands of acres of farm lands inundated, are the summarized flood conditions in Missouri and Kansas this afternoon.

CONDITIONS IMPROVE
Kansas City, July 8.—Flood conditions in Missouri and Kansas today are vastly improved, except at Kansas City, where the Missouri and Kansas rivers converge. Most of the streams in this part of the Southwest are receding and it is believed that the worst stage has passed. But little rain has fallen since last night, and no additional lives have been lost so far as known. Railroad conditions are also somewhat improved, but passengers are still greatly inconvenienced.

WORST FLOOD IN HISTORY
Springfield, Mo., July 8.—Springfield and vicinity are suffering from the worst flood in their history, following the overflow of the Jordan river as the result of a heavy rainfall early today, which amounted to over seven inches. Three are reported drowned and the damage is estimated at $750,000. The waters commenced to recede later in the day.

HOUSES ARE SWEEPED AWAY
Ottawa, Kas., July 8.—The Marais des Cygnes river is at flood stage today. More than five hundred families are homeless and many frame buildings have been carried down the stream, but no loss of life is reported. Reports from the upper river today say it is falling. Railroad traffic is greatly hampered.

TROOPS ARRIVE TO GUARD COAL MINE PROPERTY

Gloucester, N. The company claims to be prepared for

EUGENE BIBLE UNIVERSITY IS LARGEST IN WEST

President Sanderson Says Institution Exceeds Other Theological Colleges

WORKS IN CONJUNCTION WITH STATE UNIVERSITIES

President Believes College Duplication is a Useless Waste of Money

The Eugene Bible University has the largest attendance of any theological college west of the Rocky Mountains, according to a statement given out yesterday by E. C. Sanderson, president of the college. During the last year there were 72 students in the college proper, which with those in the academic department brought the total up to 147.

The plan of the Bible University is different from that of most denominational educational institutions. As explained by the head of the work here, the purpose is to work in conjunction with the state schools all over the Northwest, not only at Oregon but wherever the opportunity offers.

In accordance with this plan a professor will be given a position at the Washington State College to teach sermon-building and a few courses. President Sanderson said today:

"There are thirteen or fourteen hundred students at the college, and we have many young people among them. The work of this professor, who will be announced later, will not lessen the interest at Eugene, but will be under the same board of trustees as the Bible University, and a member of the faculty."

To Work With State.
"Our purpose and plan is to work with the state institutions. I have studied the colleges of this country and of the Middle West for fourteen years, and have reached the conclusion that duplication of the work of colleges supported by the state on the part of denominations is mere waste, and that in no way is the denominational college able to compete in the Northwest with the state institution."

"Politman gets an income for maintenance and equipment of $250,000 annually. Capitalized at five per cent an endowment of $5,000,000 is required to give that income. Besides that there is the building appropriation."

"In the East the great colleges are those founded by denominations. In the Middle West we find that the state universities overshadow all others, as is the case in the Pacific Northwest so far as general education is concerned. We intend to take advantage of the equipment and opportunity af-

He has given $85,000,000 to charity, science and education.

He gave $25,000,000 to the New York Educational Board, the largest single gift ever made.

He is frugal almost to penuriousness in his personal expenditures.

He is accessible, unostentatious, and friendly at his church; he will speak to or shake the hand of any one. In his office he is as difficult to see as the emperor of Japan.

His great principle in business is "Pay a profit to nobody."

His great principle in religion is the golden rule.

ford by the states, and place our theological work in connection with state education. We do not intend to ask anything of the state institutions but believe we can materially help ourselves by their proximity and perhaps help them.

Centre Here.
"The Eugene Bible University will be the centre of this work in the Northwest, and we are planning to build a great institution here. We do not expect, indeed we do not want, a big gain next year, but from the inquiries we have had we know that there will be a good gain. The great good of our instruction comes from personal individual work."

"By next autumn we will have more improvements finished in all probability. We intend to fill our block and make the filling slope from the centre to the sides."

"For a new member of the faculty in the academy we have Miss Bess B. Nagel, a graduate of Albion college in Michigan. She will be in the department of literature."
