Make the Map All White... (Tune—The Wearing of the Green.) O my comrades, have you heard the glorious word that's going round? There'll soon be no saloon on all Columbia's ground. There's a wave of prohibition rolling up from every strand. And all the states it inundates straightway become "dry" land. By city, state or county, or by township or by town. Just let the people have a chance—we'll vote the dramshops down.

Refrain— Till we make the map all white, Till we make the map all white, We'll work for prohibition Till we make the map all white.

Maine is at the head, for she has led for half a hundred years, And Kansas great and North Dakota stand among their peers: Alabama, Mississippi, North Carolina, Tennessee, And Texas, too, and Arkansas, have voted for the right. And all the rest will follow till we make the map all white.

The distillery and the brewery and the winery all must go; The saloons can stay no longer when the people have said "No!" So we'll sing them out, and pray them out, and educate them out. We'll talk them out, and vote them out, and legislate them out; We'll agitate and organize, and surely win the fight. We'll work for prohibition till we make the map all white.

Declaration of Principles We believe in the coming of His Kingdom whose service is perfect freedom, because His laws, written in our members as well as in nature and in grace, are perfect, converting the soul.

We believe in the gospel of the golden rule, and that each man's habits and life should be an example safe and beneficent for every other man to follow.

We believe that God created both man and woman in His own image, and therefore we believe in one standard of purity for both men and women, and in the equal right of all to hold opinions and to express the same with equal freedom.

We believe in a living wage, in courts of conciliation and arbitration, in justice as opposed to greed of gain, in "peace on earth, good will to men."

We therefore formulate, and for ourselves adopt the following pledge, asking our sisters and brothers of a common danger and a common hope, to make common cause with us, in working its reasonable and helpful precepts into the practice of everyday life:

I hereby solemnly promise, God helping me, to abstain from all distilled, fermented and malt liquors, including wine, beer and cider (as a beverage) and to employ all proper means to discourage the use of and traffic in the same.

To confirm and enforce the rationale of this pledge, we declare our purpose to educate the young; to form a better public sentiment; to reform, so far as possible, by religious, ethical and scientific means, the drinking classes; to seek the transforming power of divine grace for ourselves and all for whom we work; that they and we may willfully transcend no law of pure and wholesome living; and finally, we pledge ourselves to labor and to pray that all these principles, founded upon the gospel of Christ, may be worked out into the customs of society and the laws of the land.

LEBANON BOY MEETS VIOLENT DEATH

Lebanon, July 14.—Joe Boyavovasky, the 8-year-old son of a well-to-do farmer northeast of Lebanon, near Crabtree, was killed yesterday while riding in a hay wagon with his father. He lost his balance at a rough place in the road and was precipitated head foremost to the opposite side of the wagon, his head being literally ground to pieces between the breakfast and the wheel. Doctors were summoned, but the boy died in 20 minutes.
