

Our Semi-Annual Clearance Sale

Wonderful Values Men's Clothing, Women's Dresses

Thin Wash Goods Half Price

All thin wash goods, Silk Organdie, Lawns, Batiste, etc. All new patterns in light and dark colors, stripes and figures, suitable for dresses, waists, kimono, etc. Worth up to 60c a yard, now half price; a yard 50c to 30c

Colored Linen Suiting Values to 60c now 19c yd

Our entire line of striped linen suiting and 36-inch colored linen suiting on sale at this low price, a yard 19c

Women's Wash Dresses, Waists Linen and White Serge Tailored Suits On Sale at Half Price

Our entire stock of Tub Dresses, Washable Tailored Suits, White Serge, Tailored, Kimono, etc., all reduced to half regular prices. Only one of a kind. If you are interested be here first and get the pick from the assortment while it is most complete. Sizes 32 to 38. White serge coats worth up to $12.00 at $6.00

Kabo Corsets worth to $5 now $1.95

4 dozen Kabo Corsets, all good styles; made of best French Coutil and Batiste and Silk Broche. Sizes 18 to 27. Styles, medium high bust, long hips; worth up to $5.00; now $1.95

Clearance Prices In All Departments, Odds and Ends In Yards Goods Underwear, Etc.. Close Out at Half Price.

100 Fiber Suit Cases, Leather Bound, $2.50 Values at Special Sale $1.98

We place on sale today 100 fine Straw Fibre Suit Cases, made with edges bound with leatherette, heavy bolts, patented lock, heavy leather corner protections; guaranteed handle and strap inside. These cases are 22, 24 or 26 inches long and excellent value at $2.50. Just the thing for summer traveling. Light, durable. Special today $1.98

Sunburst Silk
27c yd

S. H. FRIENDLY
592-594 Willamette St.

Sunburst Silk
27c yd

CITY NEWS

Miss May Baldwin is taking a vacation at Newport.
E. E. Hyland was down from Lowell in his auto today.
Miss Edna Harrington is visiting at Salem for a few days.
H. A. King, of Eugene, Cal., is a recent arrival in Eugene.
Joe Jacobs was a passenger north on the noon train yesterday.
Earl McNutt and Nes Owens are at Foley Springs on an outing.
Baxter Young and wife, of Fall Creek, were in the city today.
Clarence Stigall, of Chico, Cal., was an arrival in Eugene yesterday.
P. E. Worden, of Baker City, is here on business for a few days.
Thomas Gordon, formerly of Sedalia, Mo., expects to locate here.
I. P. Davis, of Rock Island, Ill., was an arrival in Eugene last night.
F. L. Waters, of Salem, was transacting business in Eugene today.
Mrs. Glenn Stone was down from Creswell on business yesterday.
H. O. Thompson was a stage passenger this morning for Florence.
Sherman Williams, of Oakland county, Mich., is here visiting Hon. I.

H. Bingham a few days. Mr. Bingham worked for Mr. Williams 30 years ago.
R. R. Stroud and wife, of Arizona, were arrivals in Eugene last night.
W. L. DeLano was a passenger for Portland on the noon train yesterday.
Miss E. Muhr took the morning stage today for Deerhorn on an outing.
H. J. Moss was a stage passenger this morning for Deerhorn on an outing.
Wm. E. Kibbe and wife, of Ottawa, Kan., were arrivals in Eugene Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Roberts and child are taking an outing at Newport.
Mrs. John O'Brien is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Stapleton, in Roseburg.
Attorney W. J. Flooker was here yesterday from Brownsville on business.
Fren K. Kent and wife, of Berlin, N. D., were arrivals in Eugene last night.
A. T. Porter and wife, of Emporia, Kan., were arrivals in Eugene last night.
Miss Beatrice McLeod returned to Glendale yesterday afternoon, after a visit with Miss Minnie Evans in Eugene.

Roscoe Riley went to Portland today.
Mrs. C. R. Welch, wife of one of the postoffice contractors, is up from Salem.
Will Seavey and wife left today for Seattle, to be gone ten days or two weeks.
C. E. Showalter and A. LaGrange, of Paris, Ill., were arrivals in Eugene last night.
Miss Ina Watkins went to Harrisburg this afternoon to visit friends a few days.
Merle Chessman, Virgil Cooper and Dean Goodman are on their way to Seattle.
J. H. Williams, of Klamath Falls, is transacting business in Eugene for a few days.
W. W. Collins, a prominent citizen of Prineville, is transacting business in Eugene.
Rev. and Mrs. H. N. Mount went to Albany this afternoon to visit friends a short time.
Frank L. Munsell, of Des Moines, was among the Eastern arrivals here this morning.
Frank Seibert and John Davies, Jr., have left on their trip to the upper McKenzie.
Miss Clara Hager, the milliner, returned yesterday afternoon from a visit at Creswell.
Miss Teresa McDonald arrived up from Portland yesterday afternoon to visit friends here.
K. S. Forrester and Mabel Sorensen, of Salt Lake, Utah, were arrivals in Eugene Sunday.
G. M. Robbins and wife and H. W. Robbins, Jr., of Greeley, Colo., arrived in Eugene Sunday.
Theodore M. Barr, of Salem, is in the city looking after plumbing contracts which he has here.
W. Polders and wife will leave in the morning for Florence and other Sluslaw points on an outing.
Mrs. Samuel McDowell, of Reno, Nev., is here visiting her cousins, S. B. Eakin and Mrs. C. Hanna.
J. L. Moore, of Wimbledon, N. D., after a visit with his old friend, E. J. Hill, here left today for home.
Mrs. J. H. Jackson was a passenger on the afternoon train yesterday to Cottage Grove to visit her parents.
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. West left this afternoon for Seattle to take in the excursion for a week or ten days.
Mrs. Norris Humphrey, daughter, Esther, and niece, Grace Howenden, went to Portland today on a visit.
Geo. Melvin Miller will leave on Thursday for Seattle to meet his wife, who has been on a trip to Europe.
Kola Noss, the Portland box buyer, was in the city yesterday looking after this year's contracts with local growers.
Mrs. J. M. Roberts, of this city, and daughter, Mrs. Walter Carroll, of Junction, are enjoying an outing at Newport.
W. G. Jenkins and E. Metz left today for the Coast d'Alene country to try their chances in the government land lottery.
William Church, who has been at the head of the paving crew here during the summer, went to Salem today to direct operations there.
Mrs. P. R. Burnett came up from McMinnville this afternoon to visit at the home of her son, Horace Burnett, during the remainder of the week.
Mrs. Lee Chaney returned yesterday for a visit with her husband, who is taking an outing at Calapooia Springs. He is much better in health.
Mrs. J. G. Keisay and sons are in the city from Harrisburg, visiting her brother, Lloyd Russell, who works for the Willamette Valley Company. She came yesterday and will stay several days.

J. K. Pratt left for points north this afternoon.

L. G. Adair returned this afternoon from a trip north.

R. D. Calkins arrived home this afternoon from a trip to Seattle.

T. J. Hoffmaster, of Redding, Cal., was an arrival in Eugene today.

George McCort, of Brownsville, spent last night in the city, returning home this afternoon.

Mrs. Minnie Smith returns to Portland this evening after a visit with her mother, Mrs. A. H. Tallafera.

Bert Schumacher, a former University of Oregon student, is spending a few days at the Delta Alpha house.

Mrs. E. E. Emmens arrived here today from Tacoma to visit her father, Mayor J. D. Matlock, and her brothers.

Mrs. Mel Jopson, of Blue River, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Owen. In a few days Mrs. Jopson will leave for Washington to visit with friends.

Miss Blanche Whittaker left today for Sand Point, Idaho, to spend the remainder of the summer. She will stop at Seattle and Spokane on the way.

Mrs. W. H. Freeman and niece, Miss Mertie Auten, went to Cottage Grove yesterday afternoon, and from there will go to Calapooia Springs for an outing.

Mr. Ballard and family, who have just returned from Roseburg, were stage passengers this morning to McKenzie Bridge, where they will spend a few weeks in recreation.

UNIQUE CONTEST

The Bell Theatre offers a handsome prize to the home-best man in Eugene. The contest begins Monday, August 2d, and closes Monday, August 9th. Enter your friends' photos at the box office at once. Pictures of the parties entered will be shown on the canvas when contest opens on Monday, August 2d. Contest will run one week only. J24

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP

Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing by and between the undersigned has been this 20th day of July, 1909, by mutual consent dissolved and that Otto Kauffman, of Eugene, Oregon, is the successor to the same and succeeds to the business and good will of the confectionery and restaurant business heretofore conducted by the undersigned as co-partners at Number 501, Willamette St. and Numbers 16 and 20 East Seventh St., in Eugene, Oregon.

Said Otto Kauffman is authorized to receive and collect all claims and accounts due said partnership and assumes all bills payable of the same. Dated at Eugene, Oregon, this 20th day of July, 1909.

OTTO KAUFFMAN,
OTTO H. REICHMAN.

NO WONDER SHE'S CROSS.

The woman who has a thousand petty cares and annoyances while she suffers with headache or sideache must not be blamed if she cannot always be angelically amiable. What she needs is thoughtfulfulness from her family and such a simple and natural remedy as Lane's Family Medicine, the herb tea that makes weak women strong and well. Sold by druggists and dealers, 25c.

Choice roasts of beef at 8c per lb. from first class fat cattle, killed properly, thoroughly cooled and seasoned. It makes a difference. The HANDY MEAT MARKET, E 5th and Willamette streets, just around the corner. Phone Red 4891. J22

E. T. Condon's bakery, ice cream parlor and confectionery will be open Sunday during the summer. 19

Cold boiled ham at the U. of O. market, corner Oak and Park streets. J21

CITY NEWS

Webster Kincaid has sold a lot in Kincaid Park to J. J. Clark and another to Miss Chloe.

A marriage license was granted today to Jas. B. Hunt and Mrs. R. E. Cox, both of Eugene.

Mrs. E. Darling had a serious operation performed at the Eugene hospital Sunday, but is rapidly recovering now.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. G. A. Dyson at 78 West Tenth street tomorrow afternoon at the usual hour.

Henry Melton, a well-known citizen of Creswell, had one of his thumbs shot off last Friday with a gopher gun.

Household goods arrived here yesterday for Charles McCord, from Portland, and R. J. VanBuskirk, from Sterling, Neb.

Geo. W. Dixon, the Olive street commission merchant, received a carload of watermelons from California this morning.

Work on the second story of the F. E. Chambers concrete block on Olive street was begun this morning after several weeks' delay.

The kiln of 300,000 brick at the brick works west of the city has been burned. Most of them will be used in the five story Osburn hotel.

Mrs. C. J. Barhite brought to this office today a beautiful bouquet of Spencer sweet peas, which are larger and prettier than the other varieties.

Three cars of sugar for the grocers of Eugene, several of lumber and shingles and one of watermelons were among the freight shipments into Eugene this morning.

W. M. Sutton, of Springfield, is contemplating building a one-story brick block in that city and is having Architect John Hunzicker draw a set of plans for the structure.

Ormond Bean, son of Judge R. S. Bean, left here this morning for his home in Portland, after an outing on the upper McKenzie. He will leave soon for Boston to study architecture.

Mrs. Bertha L. Mack was yesterday afternoon appointed administratrix of the estate of Henry L. Mack, who died at the General hospital July 18. The probable value of the property of the estate is $1778.59.

W. T. Campbell is preparing to erect a one-story brick addition to his two-story brick block occupied by Chaffee's shoe store, formerly Link's, so as to enlarge the store. The addition will extend back about 30 feet.

In the divorce case of Barberie Withrow vs. Frederick Withrow Judge Harris today made an order denying application of the plaintiff for suit money, as the defendant has no money except that which he earns from day to day, and is in debt.

Fred Stickles ceased his labors as deputy county clerk last evening, and his place has been taken by J. A. Fountain, of Elmira, who has previously worked in the clerk's office as registration clerk, and in other capacities. He has also worked in the sheriff's office. Mr. Stickles is a member of the Eugene Abstract Company and quits his duties in the clerk's office in order to devote more time to the other work.

The Commercial Club is planning to make the big irrigation mass meeting called for Saturday, July 31, the biggest thing of the kind ever attempted, and in casting about for speakers that will draw a big attendance has so far invited Binger Hermann, of Roseburg; W. W. Cotton and Tom Richardson, of Portland, and Dr. J. Withycombe, of Corvallis.

Sarsatabs

Chocolate-coated tablets, combine the most successful remedies for all humors and eruptions, stomach, liver and kidney ailments, loss of appetite, that tired feeling. They are a solid extract of Hood's Sarsaparilla, having all its wonderful medicinal power. Pleasant to take and exceedingly economical. Give great satisfaction, especially to people preferring tablets to liquid medicines. 100 doses in box or mail. C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass. Made by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The time never was so opportune as the present to interest merchants and farmers both with the advantage which irrigation would be at times like these to many parts of this valley.

The new car for the street railway line is being unloaded this afternoon by W. H. Bryan, the housemover.

Architect E. R. Wells has completed plans for a five-room bungalow to be built for W. R. Scott, at Leaburg, on the McKenzie.

The Warren Construction Co.'s paving crew of twelve men left for Salem and Albany today to work on the streets there.

Otto Kaufman has taken over the entire establishment known as "Otto's." The partnership with Otto Reichman has been dissolved.

Architect J. R. Ford is drawing plans for a five-room cottage for H. C. Galey, the real estate dealer, to be built on Mill street between East Twelfth and East Thirteenth.

P. C. Lundfall, a former Eugene painter and member of the local society of Eagles, was drowned in the river at Portland Saturday afternoon, but the particulars are lacking.

Judge Harris today issued a decree in the divorce case of McDowell vs. McDowell, dismissing the case, but allowing McDowell to file another complaint. The report that a decree of divorce had been granted was a mistake.

W. T. Gordon, W. O. Heckart and Jas. Horn, appraisers of the estate of Mrs. Lorena E. Cornell, deceased, today filed their inventory with the probate court, reporting property valued at $1960.

A. E. Dean, the alleged adulterer, who was arrested at Los Angeles a few days ago, and brought back to Eugene by Sheriff Brown, entered a plea of not guilty in the circuit court today and his trial was set for Monday, November 1, that being the first day of the regular term. He furnished bonds in the sum of $1000.

The arch for the entrance to the rose garden in the depot park was placed in position today. A climbing rose vine will be planted at the base of each side and by this time next year it will have spread all over the arch.

Clayton Inman killed a huge cougar near his home at Crow yesterday and had the carcass on exhibition in the county jail yard for several hours this afternoon. It was viewed by

WOMEN

$3 Grad Patent Leather OXFORDS

$1.50

One Day Only Wednesday, July 21

AT YORANS SHOE STORE

THE STORE THAT SELL GOOD SHOES

hundreds, many of them men people who had never before. The monster was preying on sheep and other in that vicinity.

W. L. Hidden, of Eugene, who has been here for two years, buying timber for home today after staying in the city. He and his family here to reside, having rented one of the flats. He has also been in the Garrett & Wainwright across the street from the office.

Max Gebauer, who has his fine farm at Wagon & Wray, of this city, and the latter in the city. Co.'s business, his partner, E. J. Frasier, the son of the largest of the city built by the Hill Co. addition on the south of Iago Hill. The purchase $3650.00. Mr. Gebauer his family to the residence, a beautiful home with location, a view of the being afforded.

ENCAMPMENT

Given by Company C, Friday, July 23, 1909, beginning at 10 o'clock. Svarvered's orchestra.

The Springfield, if you want something, try the lunch counter.

18c to 25c Summer Goods This Week at the yard

Newland's Store is closing out every yard of goods at almost give-away prices. A splendid opportunity to choose from. They were good values at regular prices, 18c to 25c the yard, now

Embroideries Worth from 30c to 50c This Week at the yard 19c

We are cleaning out all our Embroidery counter prices, quality considered, Many are less than

Embroideries that sold from 12½c to 20c at the yard 10c

Several hundred yards of nice embroidery that been selling all Spring at 12½c to 20c the yard in one big lot and the price for choice, this week per yard

Ladies' Wash and Tailored Suits and all kinds of Being Closed Out, Come This Week For Bargains

Newland's EUGENE'S BARGAIN

No Girl Can resist an invitation to our soda. As you know one who says, think you know me, is come here and you'll find what the best is and you'll want to know another.

Dillon Drug Company
527 Willamette St.

JULY SALE

A complete assortment of 60c Zonophone records.

Sale Price - - - 30c

All Popular Music

Such as "I Wish I Had a Girl," "Rainbow," "Stingy Moon," "Are You Sincere?" etc. 19c
15c to 40c Piano Music 10c

EDISON JULY RECORDS HAVE ARRIVED

Lawrence & Roach
MUSIC HOUSE

26 W. 6th St.

Phone Black 1027

Courtesy and Consideration the Watchword

In this bank for commercial convenience. We watch and safeguard your business and personal interests in every possible way, give you the security and accuracy of a checking account, collect debts for you either locally or in other places, loan money on desirable security and do a general banking business on liberal terms.

The Eugene Loan and Savings Bank
CAPITAL AND SURPLUS, $125,000.
ESTABLISHED 1892.