CITY NEWS

Early California grapes are in the local market.

Companies A and C leave Saturday for the annual encampment at Clackamas.

Arthur S. Trew, the railroad operator, is ill with the measles at the Eugene hospital.

Mrs. L. L. Bond left today for Florence, having been in the Eugene hospital for some time.

The W. R. P. L. will meet with Mrs. S. W. Taylor on East Eleventh street Saturday afternoon at the usual hour.

E. J. Crow and wife attended the funeral of the wife of their son, Ray, at Monroe yesterday. She died in Portland Sunday.

The body of Prague Dietz arrived from Riverton on this afternoon's train and was immediately interred in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Engineer Simon Klov Dahl has left again for A. R. Black's irrigation reservoir at Waldo Lake with a number of men to augment the force already at work there.

The W. C. T. U. will give an ice cream social in the east plaza Saturday afternoon and evening. Music will be rendered by W. J. Hill's new Columbia graphophone.

John Lee, a transient, who said his home is at Medford, was taken to the general hospital this morning by Chief of Police Farrington, the man having been found at the depot quite sick.

The funeral of Miss Lela Horn at the Episcopal church this forenoon was largely attended by the young lady's many friends here. The remains were interred in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

E. D. Matlock, the Ninth street grocer, today began suit in the circuit court against Henry Loretz to recover $225 on a promissory note, together with $45 attorney's fees and interest from March 12, 1909.

J. B. Osborne, the blind Socialist leader, addressed a fair-sized crowd in the east park last night on the principles of his belief. Osborne has spoken in Eugene before, and though blind, appears to be a logical and earnest man.

The Moon-Bus Company, which handles the Ford automobiles in Eugene, drove from Portland yesterday an exact facsimile of the car that won the cross-continent race. Richard Moon and M. J. Biale were the occupants.

While the car has twenty indicated horsepower, this motive power is equal to others in speed and driving power, for there is no extra weight about a Ford.

Peter Jensen has purchased two more lots in the Blair Street addition through Mark Fleming.

Brick work above the stone walls of the new postoffice basement was at last begun yesterday. The brick is the plain red brick, but is of a superior quality, the same as used on the high school. It will look well with the stone trimmings.

An automobile party consisting of Col. and Mrs. Frank S. Johnson, of San Raphael, Cal., and Mrs. V. M. Gardner, of San Francisco and baby, accompanied by a nurse, two servants, one a negro, the other a jay, and a chauffeur, spent last night in the city, going on north on their way to Seattle this morning.

The Lane County Abstract Company, D. F. Skene and J. H. Bell, proprietors, have purchased the Hill ranch and a part of the Seavey ranch near Goshen, the tract containing close to 500 acres. The purchase price was about $20,000. The tract may be subdivided at a later date and placed upon the market.

The funeral service for the late Mrs. A. C. Terrell will be held at the Congregational church Saturday afternoon at 2:30. Interment will be in the Odd Fellows' cemetery. Mrs. Terrell's father and two sisters are expected from Denver, Cripple Creek and Glenwood Springs respectively at midnight. Mr. Terrell's father and mother will arrive from San Diego, Cal., tomorrow morning.

One of the passengers on one of the delayed trains bound north this morning lost his Panama hat as the train was pulling out of Eugene. A train was pulling out of Eugene. A train was pulling out of Eugene. A train was pulling out of Eugene.

The passenger depot. Later Agent Gillette received a message to send the hat. It found, to Harry Miller at Painesville, Ohio. It was turned over to the express agent, who will forward it to the address given.

E. W. Hughes, wife and daughter, Blanche, and sons, Emory and John, have arrived here from Topeka, Kan., to make this city their home. A car load of household effects for them arrived this morning and was unloaded during the day. Among the effects is a fine Cadillac touring car. Mr. Hughes has bought property at West Tenth and Jefferson streets and will build a good residence there.

Lee Hamilton writes from Newport that he polished and mounted the beautiful agate breastpin recently sent from Newport to Mrs. Beebe, the owner of the rest cottage, as mentioned a few days ago by The Guard.

He says he is doing well at that business at Newport and will be back to Eugene about the first of October. He says the people are just now beginning to arrive at the resort, the cold weather keeping them away before. Fishing is good there, he says.

The trailer car was placed on the street car track today and will be in commission about Sunday.

Percy Long, the plumber, will occupy J. S. Luckey's new brick block which he will erect at the corner of East Tenth and Oak.

A large amount of cordwood is coming down the mill race now for Ward L. Fisher, who put it in the river several miles above here.

A. D. Clink has purchased E. L. Dorr's grocery store near the corner of West Eighth and Charnelton streets and has taken possession.

One of the residences on the property recently purchased by the S. P. Co., on Fourth street, has been moved to Attorney W. G. Martin's lot on north Lawrence street.

Corvallis Times: W. O. Heckart is getting the lumber and other materials on the ground in readiness to begin the construction of the new high school building as soon as the present structure is removed.

The silver cup won by the Eugene Fruit Growers' Association at the Cherry Fair at Salem for the best county exhibit is on exhibition in the show window of F. E. Dunn's dry goods store.

Williams, the new baker in Fairmount, will be ready to bake from bread by September 1st, in his new ovens near Dempster's store. In the handling of dough and bread not a single hand will touch the flour and material.

Rev. D. L. Morgan, a graduate of the Bible University, is moving to Grantsville, Idaho, his household goods having been shipped out today. Rev. D. D. VanWinkle, another Bible University student, is moving to Sunnyside, Wash., to reside.

J. O. Storey, president of the Storey-Brauer Lumber Company and of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern Railway Company, has offered his native city, LaCrosse, Wisconsin, in memory of his mother, a bronze drinking fountain. The fountain is to represent Mr. Storey as a nine-year-old boy carrying water to the millmen. He has been fortunate in his later years and is rated as a millionaire.

The Eugene theatre has been reserved for the monster irrigation mass meeting for a week from Saturday. The Commercial Club is going to make it the biggest meeting of the kind ever held in the valley. Invitations to speak have been sent to Professor Scudder, of Corvallis; Arthur P. Stover, of Portland, the government irrigation expert; President Campbell, of the University of Oregon, and President Kerr, of the Agricultural College. Helmus W. Thompson, president of the Commercial Club, will act as chairman of the meeting.

Samuel Finley Cowan, husband of Mrs. Cowan, who conducted the Hotel Griggs, formerly the Griggs, for several years, died in Fresno, Cal., July 16, at the age of 79 years. He was a former Eugene resident many years ago and owned a farm on the McKenzie a few miles northwest of the city.
