

The Fountain Head of Life Is The Stomach

A man who has a weak and impaired stomach and who does not properly digest his food will soon find that his blood has become weak and impoverished, and that his whole body is improperly and insufficiently nourished.

DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY makes the stomach strong, promotes the flow of digestive juices, restores the lost appetite, makes assimilation perfect, invigorates the liver and purifies and enriches the blood. It is the great blood-maker, flesh-builder and restorative nerve tonic. It makes men strong in body, active in mind and cool in judgment.

This "Discovery" is a pure, glyceric extract of American medical roots, absolutely free from alcohol and all injurious, habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients are printed on its wrappers. It has no relationship with secret nostrums. Its every ingredient is endorsed by the leaders in all the schools of medicine. Don't accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this time-proven remedy of known composition. ASK YOUR NEIGHBORS. They must know of many cures made by it during past 40 years, right in your own neighborhood. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

MORMONS PLAN TO EVANGELIZE NEW ENGLAND

Meet in Vermont to Make An Attack on Puritistical Centre

Boston, July 24.—Hundreds of Mormon missionaries, intent on converting New England to the faith of Joseph Smith, met today near Sharon, Vt., to make plans for their great undertaking. All the Mormon elders of the East and several dignitaries from the church's headquarters at Salt Lake City attended the conference. It is alleged that the propaganda scheme will include a house to house canvass of all New England, including this city. This is the first time that any church has attempted to visit every house in a section as large as New England, in an effort to secure converts. It is an enormous undertaking, but the Mormon church, backed by political power and untold wealth, is determined, if possible, to build up a following in the New England states.

To insure this following the Church of Latter Day Saints will insist that all who take up its tenets shall remain in New England. This is considered contrary to the usual custom of Mormon missionaries, who in the past have sent their converts to Utah. The reason for keeping converts in New England is to accustom the people of New England to having Mormons among them and associating with them, and in this way gradually to efface all vestige of hatred toward Mormonism.

The first great effort of the Mormon church to gain a substantial foothold in New England will be made in Vermont. At Sharon, the birthplace of Joseph Smith, founder of the Mormon church, a hotel will be built for the accommodation of all converts who wish to gain religious fervor by residing at the birthplace of the prophet. Over $300,000 has already been expended by the Mormon church in converting 350 barren acres on a mountain top to a palatial estate fit for a king.

This estate is to Mormons what Mecca is to the Mohammedan. Every pious Mormon is supposed at some time or other in his life to visit the birthplace of the founder of his religion. As yet no effort has been made to colonize on this spot but with the erection of the great hotel and other buildings the converts of New England and even those of European countries, who are now brought to Boston and rushed out to Utah, will be sent to Sharon.

If Mormons can be found who wish to take up their residence in Sharon they will be encouraged by the church and the liberal terms on which this sect starts its converts in life will be employed in giving converts land and a home.

Following the building of the hotel at Sharon a memorial will be built at Chester, Vt., in honor of Brigham Young, the leader of the Mormons, who entered the Salt Lake valley.

Brigham Young was born on an estate now held by the people who, realizing the great wealth of the church, asked such a price for the land that even the negotiating elders were staggered. But sooner or later, it is averred, the Mormon church will have the property, for where only a money consideration stands in the way, this church has consistently gained its ends.

After gaining possession of the birthplace of Brigham Young, hundreds of thousands of dollars will be lavished in beautifying the estate, and a monument, similar to that erected in memory of Joseph Smith, at Sharon, will be erected in Chester to Brigham Young.

People inimical to the Mormon faith see in its present invasion of New England an attempt to gain an influence in the affairs of this section of the country. In Utah the Mormon church absolutely controls the state, and it has succeeded in branching out into other states and exercising a strong political influence.

GLIMPSES THROUGH GOTHAM GOGGLES

(By Glenn Guernsey.)
New York, July 24.—Lemuel K. Washburn, formerly editor of a Boston paper and now connected with a New York periodical, is out with a deft to the clergy of his country which is likely to make him the centre of a cyclone of clerical wrath. Mr. Washburn is of the opinion that prayer is wasted wind, and to prove his assertion he challenges the gentlemen who wear their collars buttoned behind to a praying contest.

Admitting that a great many prayers have been answered, the editor insists that they have been answered by men and women, and that there is no evidence to prove that any supernatural element enters into the vocal petitions to heaven.

Mr. Washburn is not to be satisfied with prayer-meeting testimony. He is the original doubting Thomas, from Joplin, Mo., on the subject of pious petitions, and his demand is to be shown in challenging the clergymen to a contest to demonstrate the efficacy of prayer, he proposes this test:

"In the model which Jesus gave to His disciples, when instructing them how to pray, we find this humble petition, 'Give us this day our daily bread.' Now, this petition was not offered to the cook of the house, to the baker across the street, to any one on earth who knew how to prepare food, but it was offered to 'Our Father who are in Heaven,' and any honest answer must be made by 'Our Father who are in heaven.'"

"Now, my proposed test is as follows: Let five clergymen of any denomination be locked in separate rooms, and the keys be placed in the hands of reliable persons, and nothing in the form of food or drink be allowed them, except what they obtain by praying to God. If these five clergymen are found to be alive and in good health, without perceptible loss of strength or flesh, at the end of a week, it may be assumed that their prayers for 'daily bread' were answered."

So far there has been no rush of applicants to accept Mr. Washburn's challenge. Ministers who have heard of the deft say it is worthy only of "silent contempt," and that prayer is not a matter for a contest, like a foot race or a pugilistic encounter. It appears likely that Mr. Washburn will have to continue a doubter, unless the ministers can affect his conversion by praying for him. Such an attempt is commended to their consideration.

Modest Oscar
Oh, modesty, timidity, shyness, reserve, every word in the dictionary that is expressive of bashfulness, thy root name is Oscar and thy last name is Hammerstein. Herr Oscar has been invited to lead the British Guards Band in his new waltz at the opening of the big music shell at Manhattan Beach tonight. I blush to force such a horrid publicity upon a shy and retiring soul, but this is what Oscar says on the subject, viz., as follows, to-wit:

"I think that my waltz is the best ever written on this side of the Atlantic. It is being played on liners and in the hotels and restaurants of Paris and London. Lieutenant Carlton and his band play the waltz divinely, and I may consent to lead the waltz number on the night the shell is opened. I am shy of public appearances, however, and for that reason have never even used my box at the Manhattan opera house."

TAKAHIRA GOES TO JAPAN FOR CONSULTATION

Rumored That He May Not Return to United States As Minister

Washington, July 24.—Baron Takahira, Japanese ambassador to the United States, left Washington today and will proceed direct to Japan. It has been rumored that the ambassador has been recalled and that he will be succeeded by Yasuya Uchida.

So far as any official announcement has been made, Baron Takahira is going to Japan to confer with the officials of the Japanese foreign office regarding the proposed revision of the existing commercial treaties between Japan and the principal European countries. Most of these conventions will expire next year. The treaty between Japan and the United States will not terminate until 1911.

Baron Takahira will make a detailed report as to the effect of the tariff bill upon Japanese exports. He expects to return to Washington after spending several months in Japan. Yasuya Uchida, who has been mentioned as the probable successor to Baron Takahira, is Japanese minister at Vienna. He was an attaché of the Japanese legation in this city many years ago. His wife is a graduate of Bryn Mawr.

COULD NOT CURE WEEPING ECZEMA

Disease Began over Ear and Spread till Face and Neck were Raw—Itching, Inflammation and Soreness were Terrible—Lasted Over a Year and All Treatments Failed

UNTIL CUTICURA AGAIN PROVED GREAT SUCCESS

"Eczema began over the top of my ear. It cracked and then began to spread. I had three different doctors and tried several things, but they did me no good. At last one side of my face and my neck clear up to my hair were raw. The water ran out of it so that I had to wear medicated cotton, and it was so inflamed and sore that I had to put a piece of cloth over my pillow to keep the water from it, and it would stain the cloth a sort of yellow. The eczema itched so that it seemed as though I could tear my face all to pieces. The disease began in the fall and I did everything for it until the next winter. Then I began to use the Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and it was not more than three months before it was all healed up. I still use the Cuticura Resolvent Pills once in a while to cleanse the blood. I am very thankful that I tried Cuticura, and I can recommend it to any one. Miss Ann Pearsons, Northfield, Vt., Dec. 19, '07."
