COBURG PEOPLE FRIENDLY TO BOOTH-KELLY

The Booth-Kelly Lumber Co., Eugene, Oregon.

Knowing that at various times a few individuals have sought to harass the Booth-Kelly Lumber Co. by demanding exorbitant recompense for slight, or imaginary damages, and in order that the community as a whole may not be judged by the attitude of a few, we (citizens of Coburg), take this method of attesting our friendship toward your company.

It is with pleasure, that by affixing our signatures herewith, we are enabled in this slight manner to express our appreciation of the benefits derived by the community through the presence and operation of your plant in our midst, and to assure you of our loyal support at any time in furthering the interests of your company.

CITY NEWS

The rattling of the thresher has begun, more or less.

O. N. Washburn, of Coburg, has filed his notarial commission.

The Dodge department store has a fine new delivery wagon on the streets.

J. J. Hess, the presser and cleaner with McLeod, the tailor, has returned from Seattle.

A marriage license was granted last evening to Richard L. Jacobs and Mrs. Wealthy Stingley, both of Eugene.

In order to remind the people tomorrow of the irrigation meeting the fire bell will be rung at 1:15 p. m. several taps, one tap at a time. People should not, therefore, be alarmed when the fire bell rings tomorrow, but should go en masse to the theatre, where the big meeting will be held.

M. W. Levy and wife, of San Francisco, spent last night in Eugene, being on the way to Seattle in an automobile.

A new motor to operate the pumps at the city water station has been installed. Hunter & Taylor put the machine in.

Detective Riley, head of the Southern Pacific police service, visited Eugene yesterday in search of an S. F. rate-breaker.

A marriage license was issued in Portland yesterday to Mrs. Lillian McElroy Luckey, formerly of Eugene, and Warren J. Hunt.

A car of cement for T. H. Ellis and six or eight of cordwood from the Alameda branch were among the freight arrivals in Eugene last night.

The Lane county Pomona grange will meet at Loran tomorrow. County School Superintendent Dillard and other Eugene citizens will attend.

The Fairmount Sunday school will give an ice cream social in Dempsey's hall, Tuesday, August 3, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. All are invited.

Fred Callison is acting in the capacity of chief of police today, Chief Farrington being in Salem attending the funeral of his brother-in-law, Dr. J. E. Payton.

The ladies of Santa Clara and the Irving band will give an ice cream social Saturday night in the grove of Angus Robertson. Prices: ice cream 10c; coffee and sandwiches 10c. 130

Ringling Brothers' circus will probably not come to the upper Willamette valley until early in September. It is gilled at Chehalis, Wash., August 27.

Rev. Henry D. Kimball, D. D., L. L. D., dean of the Kimball School of Theology, at Salem, will speak at 10:30 a. m. and 8 p. m. at the Methodist church Sunday.

One of the Pollock Transfer Company's dray teams ran away on South Willamette street last evening damaging the wagon somewhat and also slightly injuring the driver.

Excavation for the stove pipe water mains have been made in Fairmount as far as Columbia avenue. The city water force is also connecting up the water pipe to the Fair grounds.
