CITY NEWS

John A. Kissinger, of Fall Creek, has received a notarial seal.
J. Wallace has been chosen as janitor of the Condon school in Fairmount.
The brick work has reached to the top of the third story on the Y. M. C. A. building.
This week's installment of the serial story, "The Man From Brodney's," appears today instead of Saturday.
A marriage license was granted this afternoon to Thomas B. Harris and Miss Florence Striker, both of Eugene.
Harry Jackson was given a fine of $20 in the municipal court this morning on a drunk and disorderly charge.
Frank E. Dunn, the Eugene merchant, today began suit against W. J. Canady to recover $510 on promissory notes.
Arnold S. Rothwell, general agent of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., of Newark, is in the city to establish an agency here.
The Modern Woodmen of America will give a big picnic at the end of the carline in West Springfield on Wednesday, August 18.
Joe Russell has bought George Willoughby's interest in the U. of O. cigar store and will be associated with W. E. Boddy in the business.
Hay balers are at work in the vicinity of Eugene. During the past few years this method of putting up hay has been in vogue more than ever before.
Don't fail to read this week's installment of "The Man From Brodney's." The Guard's popular serial story, in today's issue instead of Saturday's, as usual.
G. G. Gross has sent to his real estate office here from the Alberta country a sample of the wheat grown there. He pulled out of the ground a bunch containing 75 heads from a single kernel. The land there yields as high as 65 bushels to the acre.

The marriage of Ben Harris and Miss Florence Striker, both of this city, will take place at Junction this evening. From there they will go north on a honeymoon trip.
F. L. Chambers has received a large turbine water wheel which he will install at Middleley's planing mill giving the plant about three times as much power as at present.
Miss Ethel Plank returned from Newberg this morning, where she attended the Fortune-Burns wedding. Miss Plank accompanied the party on the wedding tour as far as Portland, and returned home from there.
Every day there is complaint from various parts of the city in regard to the weeds along the sidewalks. The property owners should have civic pride enough to keep the weeds down and their lawns and parkings green.
Geo. W. Dixon, the commission merchant, received a car load of watermelons—125 dozen—last evening at 4:30 o'clock and disposed of them all by 10 o'clock this morning. The Guard force acknowledges the receipt of a fine one.

to be erected by them near the site of the old building now occupied by their store. The building will be 30 x 70 feet in dimensions. The upper floor will be used for office purposes. E. E. Hyland will have a suite for his private office, and it is probable the railroad builders will occupy some of the rooms.
ADVERTISEMENT FOR PROPOSALS FOR MATERIAL FOR TRANSMISSION LINE.
Sealed proposals will be received at the office of the City Recorder of Eugene, Oregon, up to 8 o'clock p. m., Wednesday, August 25, 1909, for the purpose of supplying cross arms, braces, belts, washers, pins, insulators, guy wires, etc., for the construction of a 15 mile transmission line and telephone line in accordance with plans and specifications on file with the City Recorder of Eugene, Oregon.
Separate bids will be required for cross arms.
Bidders will be required to accompany bid with sample of pins and insulators they propose to supply and state terms of delivery after acceptance of proposal.
Prices bid shall be F. O. B. Springfield, Oregon.
The City of Eugene reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

There is being shown at the Aloha theatre, the inauguration of President Taft. We succeeded in getting this picture through much difficulty. No one who can spare the time should miss this most wonderful film. Tonight only. A13

A carload of laths for the Booth-Kelly Company, a car of wood for the Eugene Fuel Company, and a car of watermelons for G. W. Dixon, the commission merchant, were among the freight arrivals in Eugene this morning.

Today's singing picture is the best we've had and we've had sure dances. Last night at one show the machine got off—it was terribly funny to everybody except the operator—he threw a fit. Your day is incomplete if you don't see "My Gal Irene." Electric theatre. A12

Roseburg Review: Mrs. C. A. Schibrode, a guest of Mrs. J. H. Shupe, leaves tomorrow for home at Marshfield. Mrs. Shupe also has as a guest Miss Lena Callison, of Jasper, Lane county, who formerly taught in the schools here. Miss Callison taught last year at Lewiston, Idaho.

Curtis Gardner's and T. H. Ellis' bicycles, which were recently stolen, were found yesterday in the brush along the road at Judkins' Point. One was minus a seat. There is evidently a person in Eugene who makes a specialty of stealing bicycle seats, as numerous thefts of that nature have been reported of late.

The old Watkins & Miller meat market building is being moved away by Harringer, the housemover. It will be located on one of E. J. Frasier's lots on East Sixth street, just outside the fire limits. W. L. De Lano will at once begin the work of erecting his two-story brick block to replace the wooden building as soon as the lot is cleared.

Albany Democrat: Professor Hawthorne, the philosopher of the University of Oregon, returned to the bay after a Portland trip. He has been at the bay at least a month already. Professor Hawthorne was quite enthusiastic over what paving had been done for Eugene, and declared it would be a stepping stone for big things in Albany.

Constable F. T. Plank and family, who were injured yesterday on the road to the mountains near Fall Creek, arrived home last evening. The wagon turned over on a high grade instead of falling through a bridge, as reported. Plank's hand was badly cut instead of his wrist broken. None of the women in the party were injured.

Island Bros., of Lowell, are having J. R. Ford, the architect, draw plans for a two-story frame building

You can't afford to miss one show at the ELECTRIC this week. The singing picture alone is worth the admission. The more you see the more you want.

R. T. Condon's bakery, ice cream parlor and confectionery will be open Sunday during the summer. 19

CHIEF KOHLER.
Chief of Police Frederick Kohler of Cleveland is the man who believes in the application of the Golden Rule to the treatment of criminals. His views have met with severe criticism recently from police officials in other cities. President Roosevelt once called him the best chief of police in the United States.
