

A DEEP MYSTERY SOLVED.

Women Blinded by Science.

The Doctor writes his prescription in Latin and the patient shuts her eyes to what she is swallowing. She takes that much on faith. If it should cure her she doesn't know what she has done. If the prescription injures her she doesn't know what did the injury. The physician is experimenting with different prescriptions all the time. Sometimes his medicine is successful in the case but often fails. This mystery of a concealed prescription is intended to mystify and to blind the patient. One physician of wide experience and national reputation does not believe in mystifying the public, nor does he grasp at the stars, but believes that Nature provides that which is necessary for our health and happiness. When the womanly system is deranged beyond the stage where it will respond to medicine, good air, cheerfulness and proper rest; when the balance of health is seriously disturbed this doctor believes that Nature has placed at your hand the balance of power for good. Hidden in our American forests are medicinal plants which correct and cure those distressing ailments which cause women to suffer with backache, bearing-down pains, pain in the back or front of the head, nervousness and lassitude. Most all women who love Nature, who like to wander through the woods, have at one time or another picked the beautiful blossom of the Lady's Slipper (Cypripedium). This is not only a beautiful but a very useful plant. The root of this plant when treated properly with glycerine to extract its medicinal virtues is "valuable in all cases of nervous excitability or irritability," says Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., Anatomical authority, New York. Dr. E. H. M. D. says of this plant: "Exercises special influence upon nervous conditions depending upon disorders of the female organs." Another plant which is frequently found in our American forests is Solonchoc, or Unicorn root. THE AMERICAN DISPENSARY says of this plant, that it "possesses a decidedly beneficial influence in an enfeebled condition of the general system, with weakness or dull pain in the chest or lumbo-sacral (small of the back) region. In diseases of the womanly organs, it is one of our most valuable agents, acting as a uterine tonic, and gradually removing abnormal conditions while at the same time it imparts tone and vigor to the organs." Hence, it is much used in catarrhal, pelvic drains, irregularities and painful periods. Prof. King further says, "In cases of nervous prostration, in which the patient is unable to get up, the use of this medicine, and the aching, bearing-down organs feel as if they would fall out of the body."

Dr. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of Buffalo, N. Y., says, "A combination of the active principles of these two native plants together with Golden Seal root, Black Cohosh and Blue Cohosh roots when extracted by the use of pure, triple-refined glycerine of proyle strength (which is used instead of alcohol), will almost invariably cure those peculiar weaknesses and maladies incident to women. That is why Dr. Pierce, nearly forty years ago, decided to put up in a ready-to-use form, a 'Restorative' which he had found so useful in his large practice. Dr. Pierce is frank and open about his ready-prepared medicine, called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. He tells just what is contained in it—he says it is not a cure-all, as it serves only a singleness of purpose, being for women's peculiar weaknesses and maladies, the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for the cure of such maladies, and the ingredients of which have the endorsement of leading medical practitioners and writers, as being the very best known remedies for the ailments for which 'Favorite Prescription' is advertised. All this will be learned to the reader's full satisfaction by perusing a booklet of extracts compiled by Dr. Pierce from standard authorities of the several schools of practice, and which will be sent free of any address on request, for same, mailed to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. It stands alone. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only medicine for woman's peculiar weakness and affections, all the ingredients of which are printed upon the bottle-wrappers in plain English, so that all who take it may know exactly what they are using. A further reason for the unprecedented popularity of the 'Favorite Prescription' is that it is found in the fact that it contains not a drop of alcohol. He does not depend on an alcoholic compound as beneficial for those affections peculiar to women because the after-effect of spirituous wines or alcoholic medicines is harmful for weak, invalid, nervous women. What 'Favorite Prescription' has done for others it will no doubt, do for you, if you are afflicted, so you give it a good, fair and faithful trial.

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE WILLAMETTE VALLEY Recently the Commercial Club asked the S. P. Co. for several improvements in its passenger service, and the company promptly did as requested. Among these improvements is the observation car (in the rear half of which smoking is allowed). This car is attached to the 5:35 evening local going to Portland, and returns from Portland on the 8:15 a. m. Many people do not know about this car being on, and unless it is better patronized the company cannot afford to keep it on. The extra cost for riding in this car is only 50 cents between Eugene and Portland; 25 cents between Eugene and Albany. It lies with the public whether this added comfort and luxury in travelling between here and Portland will be maintained for them or not. The Board of Governors. L. L. WHITSON, President. Per J. H. GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY

You can make a clear profit of $1500 per month or over if you lease and operate this mill. This is a sawmill property, located right in the city. Now examine these figures—take them to any good sawmill man for verification, and you will be convinced of this rare opportunity. The mill is located at the river bridge in Eugene. Logs cost $5 to $6 per 1000; lumber average $13.33 per 1000. Common grade, $11.50; finishing grades, $30. Cost of sawing, $2 per 1000; cost of logs, $5.50 per 1000; total cost logs, sawing and selling, $7.50 per 1000; over-run log scale, 25 per cent, $1.87; take this from $7.50, leaving you $5.63, the total cost of your lumber right here in the best market in the state. Now logs will saw 1-3 clear, and it is worth $17 green and rough, $25 to $30 dried and planed. But take the lumber rough. The common is worth $11.50, clear $17, making an average of $13.33. The profit will be $7.50 per 1000 and on a cut of 20,000 feet per day, which the mill will do if pushed. This will show a profit of $4004 per month of 26 working days. You can't beat this proposition in Oregon. I will give you a very reasonable lease on this property. See M. S. Barker, 323 Pearl street, Eugene, Or.

THE FAIR AN ARTISTIC PRODUCT.

Around the Court of Honor and along the ornamental balustrades which line the Cascades and Geyser basin have been placed huge vases of staff, in which will be set trailing vines and high growing flowers of bright colors. These ground decorations have been designed with an eye to the architectural scheme of the buildings and to the general plan of the gardens, so that nowhere is there an inharmonious feature. The picture shows how this scheme of decoration fits in with the building plans, the colonnade on the left being that of the Palace of Agriculture.
