

Where Quality Counts

The reputation of a druggist depends largely upon the quality and class of drugs and other merchandise he is known to sell.

Quality is the first thought here.

Drug Store Class, in the selection of all our many lines of drug store goods is creating a reputation of value to us.

Medicines, drugs, chemicals, toilet articles, rubber goods, sick room supplies and nursery helps, all are the best grade. And this perfect quality costs the buyer no more than the unreliable kind.

PRESCRIPTIONS

We use knowledge and care in the selection of ingredients which go into prescriptions, and science in compounding them. Ask your doctor if there are any better drugs than Merk, Squibb and Park Davis manufacture. In case of sickness which is most important, that the prescription be filled by a "cheap" druggist or a good druggist?

ESCAPING CONVICTS

CAUGHT BY DOGS

Salem, Or., Oct. 31.—By using bloodhounds Warden Curtis and Guards Gage and Busick yesterday succeeded in capturing two escaped convicts after a two-hours' chase. W. C. Alexander, from Baker county, for one year, with five months to do, and Thomas Copp, for one year from Linn county, with 70 days to do, both in for larceny, escaped from the penitentiary farm about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. They were digging potatoes and evidently tired of the job, sneaking away. They were traced to the reform school bridge by means of bloodhounds and by 4 o'clock were back at the penitentiary.

BOY POSSESSES MYSTERIOUS POWER

Accident Occurs at Van Wagner Home, 21st and Ferry, Salem, Last Evening

Portland, Or., Nov. 1.—Two manifestations of the mysterious power which tips over the tables and chairs, raises heavy sofas bodily, skids teapots onto the floor, whisks knives and forks about, and jerks plaster off the walls in big chunks, all in broad daylight, took place Saturday at the Valley hotel at Second and Main streets. Eleven-year-old Ernest Harps was present on both occasions. The demonstrations took place, one in the morning and the other in the afternoon, in two different rooms, the first on the third floor of the hotel, and the other on the second floor. As a result of the latter, in which a chair fell over as though propelled from behind by a weird force, Mrs. Annie Harps, mother of the boy, is prostrated. She was taken violently ill with nervous trouble early Saturday, and Dr. V. C. Birney, who has been attending the family, sent an emergency call for Dr. William A. Trimble.

"Mrs. Harps is better tonight," said Dr. Trimble last evening, "but when I responded to Dr. Birney's call I found her in a serious condition. That was between 2 and 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. I started to talk to Miss Sanders, the 18-year-old sister of Mrs. Harps. 'Well have you had any more earthquakes since the boy came here to stay with his mother?' I asked. 'Yes,' she answered, 'We had one this morning. A table in the room on the third floor tipped over while Ernest was in the room, and a chair tipped over, too. The chair was near the window with nothing touching it, and it just went right over.'
