CORN DOCTOR GETS FAKE TELEGRAM FROM EUGENE

Resorts to Trick in Order to Leave Creditors—Double
Murder (?) at Eugene

In an effort to rub up an excuse whereby he might play upon the sympathies of his creditors and at the same time be allowed an opportunity to leave town for a "few" days unmolested, E. H. Hanlon, the fake corn doctor, who has been dispensing his wares at the corner of Jackson and Oak streets in this city during the past few days, displayed a fictitious telegram yesterday, the substance of which tended to show that his partner, George Homer, had stabbed his wife and shot her male companion at Eugene the previous night, says the Roseburg News. Those who had become acquainted with Homer and Hanlon during their brief sojourn in this city swallowed the contents of the telegram with eagerness, and anxiously awaited the arrival of the Portland newspapers this morning that they might learn the details of the "terrible tragedy." The papers came, but not a word could be found tending to show that such a crime had been committed at Eugene or any other town in the state.

Upon investigation it has been learned that Hanlon received the telegram which he displayed shortly after two o'clock yesterday afternoon, the same being signed by his pal, Homer, who left for Eugene on train No. 16 Monday evening.

That the job was premeditated and hatched after due consideration appears evident inasmuch as Homer told friends prior to his departure that he had received a message from Eugene to the effect that his wife was being attended by another man. He also expressed himself in somewhat emphatic terms relative to his intentions, stating that he would kill both the escort and his wife upon sight.

Consequently the telegram received here yesterday afternoon caused little surprise among those with whom Homer had conversed regarding his purported troubles.

From what can be learned regarding the affair it appears a simple "skin game." The telegram was written by Homer at Eugene and was sent to Hanlon that the latter might invite the sympathy and be allowed to leave town under the pretense of going to Eugene to aid his partner. So well did Hanlon play his part in the shady transaction that no one suspected his sincerity. In fact, the tragedy was the sole topic of conversation about the city last evening.

THURSTON ITEMS

Special Correspondence.
Thurston, Nov. 22.—Mr. George of Springfield went a day or two on his farm, the Milam, last week.

Mrs. Lewis, who has been making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Sadie Platt, together with her little daughter, Maudie, are visiting friends and relatives on the Mohawk.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Rhodes, of Vidua, are visiting for a few weeks with relatives.

C. F. Rhodes, of Portland, is at home to eat Thanksgiving turkey with his parents. A hearty welcome, Clayborne.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gray spent a few days of last week at Wendling, visiting with their daughter, Mrs. C. H. Howard.

Mrs. Eva Gutermuth and son Earl are visiting with her mother, Mrs. Miller, who owns the Joe Hart place.

The Thurston-Davis Literary Society will have their first regular debate next Friday night on the subject, "Resolved, That Thanksgiving Day has lost its meaning to the American people."

Ray is anxious to have another debate with his Goshen "dear lady opponents," on the question, "Resolved, That women should be granted the right of suffrage." We know Ray wants an excuse to go to Goshen.

Our annual Thanksgiving shooting match will be given by J. M. Tallaforo on Ross Matthews' grounds. Everybody invited. Suitable accommodations for all who wish to participate.

Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Edmiston, who visited for some time with relatives in Idaho and Washington, are home now, and Perry thinks more of Oregon than ever.

Mrs. Rena Edmiston is quite poorly, but is on the mend. Miss Adella McPherson, of Springfield is stopping with her during her sickness.

YALE CAPTAIN SAYS
OPEN PLAY KILLS

New York, Nov. 24.—Jim Hogan, an ex-captain of a Yale football eleven, today declared that the "open game" as it is played today is largely responsible for the numerous injuries and fatalities that have recently occurred in the game.

"The great fault with the present day game," said Hogan, "is the forward pass. The man in the main defense has not the support of a secondary defense, and goes down to injury under the irresistible rush."

FOOTBALL WORSE THAN ARCTIC TRIP

Chicago, Nov. 25.—"Football is much more dangerous than Arctic explorations," declared Explorer Amundsen, who is here today buying supplies for another trip through the northwest passage.

"The best equipment of football players and explorers," continued Amundsen, "is their lack of relatives to leave behind them."

It isn't so difficult to strengthen a weak stomach if one goes at it correctly. And this is true of the heart and kidneys. The old fashioned way of dosing the stomach or stimulating the heart or kidneys, is surely wrong. Dr. Shoop first pointed out this error: "Go to the weak or ailing nerves of these organs," said he. Each inside organ has its controlling "inside nerve." When these nerves fall then those organs must surely fail. This vital truth is leading druggists everywhere to dispense and recommend Dr. Shoop's restorative. A few days' test will surely tell! Sold by all druggists.

Kills Her Foe of 20 Years..

"The most merciless enemy I had for 20 years," declares Mrs. James Duncan of Haynesville, Me., "was Dyspepsia. I suffered intensely after eating or drinking and could scarcely sleep. After many remedies had failed and several doctors gave me up, I tried Electric Bitters, which cured me completely. Now I can eat anything. I am 70 years old and am overjoyed to get my health and my strength back again." For indigestion, loss of appetite, kidney trouble, lame back, female complaints, its unequalled. Only 50c at W. A. Kuykendall's.
