Now that the college football season is over, the students have turned their attention to the social side of life. Of the several enjoyable events of the beginning season, the Sophomore dancing party given at the armory last Saturday evening stands out as the most prominent. Promptly at 8:30 o'clock the grand march began led by the president of the class, Mr. Robert Alton, and Miss Mary Stelwer. The dance was limited to University students, faculty and alumni, so the usual congested dance floor was eliminated, there being just enough present to make dancing enjoyable. The hall was beautifully decorated with streamers in the class colors, intermingled with colored lights suspended from the ceiling, together with banners, Japanese lanterns, etc. The Japanese idea was cleverly carried out throughout the evening. The dance was a big success and has been voted by many as the best variety dance ever given. This is the first formal function of the year for the freshmen and in consequence was greatly appreciated by them. Soon after the Christmas holidays the Freshman dance will be given.

Early this week Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Yorlan entertained one of the recently organized whist clubs at their home on West Ninth street. The two prizes of the evening were won by Mrs. Darwin Bristow and Mr. W. G. Allen. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening by Mrs. Yorlan and her daughter, Miss Lucile Yorlan, and Miss Gertrude Livermore. The members of the club are Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hollenbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Bristow, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Livermore, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Yorlan, and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Yorlan. The guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pratt and Mrs. Jennie U'Ren.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. F. E. Chambers most delightfully entertained the ladies of the Thimble club and a few invited guests at her beautiful home on West 6th street. Needlework occupied the afternoon after which delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Chambers, assisted by her daughter, Miss Minnie Chambers, Mrs. Frank Chambers and Mrs. Martha Chambers. The tables were decorated in holly and red and white color scheme being carried out in the luncheon. The guests were Bean and Mrs. C. S. Freeland, Mrs.

Bean and Mrs. C. S. Freeland, Mrs. Frank Page will entertain the club in three weeks at her home in Flak flats on East 11th street.

The Kappa Alpha Theta girls enjoyed their annual Christmas tree last Thursday evening. A beautiful Christmas tree, laden with gifts and surprises for the girls occupied a most pleasant evening. Those present besides the house girls were Mrs. F. M. Barker, Miss Norma Hendricks, Miss Winifred Cockerline, Miss Adah Allen, Miss Eva Allen, Miss Lucia Campbell and Miss Mary DeBar.

The Ladies' Society of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Samuel Rippon on West 12th street last Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. F. M. Day, Mrs. Ernest Gilstrap and Mrs. Tom Munroe, as hostesses. Following the usual business session a social hour was enjoyed during which light refreshments were passed. About 60 ladies were present during the afternoon.

The Friday Afternoon Whist Club spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. J. K. Pratt yesterday. At whist Mrs. L. E. Tidball won the prize, a beautiful piece of Haviland. In three weeks Mrs. F. X. Shaefer will entertain the club. The guests Friday afternoon were Mrs. T. B. Luckey, Mrs. A. E. Jepp, and Mrs. L. R. Edmunson.

The Chi Omega fraternity held a delightful Christmas party at their home at the corner of Thirteenth and Mill last evening. A Christmas tree, laden with little remembrances and various holiday games, were enjoyed by their guests. A dainty luncheon closed the evening's pleasures.

Last Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hayward entertained the Monday Evening Whist Club. Mrs. M. F. Griggs was the prize winner at cards. In serving Miss Arbie Natwick assisted the hostess. On the 28th Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Magladry will entertain the club again.

The Jolly Sixteen Whist Club met on Thursday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hanson. At cards the ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Frank McAlister, and the gentleman's by Mr. Ed Hanson. Mrs. Robert Gross assisted Mrs. Hanson in serving.

The Tuesday evening Whist Club met this week with Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Studley at their home on North Pearl street. The guests of the club were Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Mink, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ehrhardt, and Mrs. A. Lilley. Mrs. Julius Goldsmith won the ladies' prize at cards, and Mr. Ehrhardt the gentlemen's. Mrs. Helen Studley assisted in serving.

Mrs. A. Lombard invited in about thirty-four little girls last Saturday afternoon in honor of the 12th birthday of her daughter, Miss Maude Lombard. A special feature of the afternoon's entertainment was a Christmas tree, which held a little gift for each guest. A delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Lombard, assisted by Miss Nellie Lombard, Miss Georgia Kinsey, Miss Ethel Purdy and Miss Leone Griffin.

Last Monday morning the home of Mrs. Claire Willoughby was invaded by the ladies of the Birthday Club in honor of Mrs. Willoughby's birthday. A delicious dinner was prepared at noon by the ladies, which their husbands did justice to. The afternoon was spent by the ladies with their needlework and after supper the evening was devoted to cards. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kaye, Mr. and Mrs. David Link, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McMurphy, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Wetherbee, and Mrs. S. J. Wilson.

Mrs. Lloyd Bellman was hostess to the Tete-a-Tete girls yesterday afternoon. Several pleasant hours were spent with needlework and conversation. Miss Myrtle Kays assisted Mrs. Bellman in serving a delicious supper.

The Dormitory Club entertained a few of their friends last evening with a dancing party. A delightfully informal affair.

Much interest was manifested in the bazaar given by the ladies of the Episcopal church on Wednesday and Thursday of this week. The display of needlework was especially noteworthy of mention. On Thursday a delicious dinner was served from five to eight in the evening, which realized them a neat sum.

A very pretty wedding took place at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Gilbert, a mile and a half north of Eugene, last Wednesday when their daughter, Miss Ethel Gilbert, was married to Mr. Melvin Hansen. The ceremony took place at one o'clock and was performed by Rev. D. H. Trimble. Miss Gilbert was attended by her sister, Miss Pearl Gilbert, as bridesmaid. H. A. Soule acted as best man. The bride was prettily gowned in white crepe de chine and carried an arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid wore light blue and carried chrysanthemums. Mrs. Coates played the wedding march from Tannhauser. Following the wedding ceremony and congratulations a delightful luncheon was served by six of the bride's most intimate friends, Mr. and Mrs. Hansen left that evening for Portland, where they will spend their honeymoon. The decorations of the living room and dining room were

MRS. WILLIAM K. VANDERBILT, JR.

Society in New York, the Four Hundred, was not surprised when the announcement was made that William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., and his wife had separated. From the time of their marriage, nearly ten years ago, they had frequent differences. Incompatibility is given as the only reason for the separation. Mrs. Vanderbilt was Miss Virginia Fair.

chrysanthemums and ivy. The groom is a prosperous young real estate dealer of this city and the bride, during her two years' residence here has won many friends. They will be at home after several weeks on South Pearl street.

Great interest is manifested in the forthcoming masquerade to be given by Company A on New Year's eve. The committees in charge of the event promise to eclipse anything of the kind ever previously attempted by the company.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union was entertained by Mrs. Dr. McDougal Wednesday afternoon. Between fifty and sixty were present, members and guests. After a piano duet by Mrs. McDougal and Mrs. Simmons and short business session conducted by the president, Mrs. Ellis, the program was taken charge of by Mrs. C. W. Southworth, the county superintendent of "Mother's Meetings." Some very interesting articles were read from the literature of the Congress of Mothers, in which quite a number participated. Mesdames Woods and Seelye assisted the hostess in serving cake and coffee.

At Springfield.

The second golden wedding anniversary ever celebrated in Springfield, to our knowledge, will be that of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bryan, on January 5, 1910. The venerable old couple were among the early pioneers, coming to Oregon from Missouri forty-six years ago. They were married in the old state of Missouri fifty years ago next January and crossed the plains in 1863, coming to Oregon, where they have since lived. Seven months ago, they came to Springfield where they purchased a cozy little home and where Grandpa Bryan says they expect to remain the remainder of their days. Although 77 years of age, both Mr. and Mrs. Bryan are in excellent health and will live to enjoy many more happy years together. They are quite active for their years though Mr. Bryan's eye sight is failing him of late, especially in the past three weeks.—News.

The oyster supper and entertainment at the W. O. W. hall Saturday night by the young men's class of the M. E. church was a decided success both financially and socially.

The excellent program rendered was highly appreciated by a large audience. We understand the class is planning to give an entertainment on a larger scale in the near future. Owing to the amny compliments the young people feel assured of a large attendance at their next effort. About seventy partook of the oyster supper after which a general good time was enjoyed by all and with game and other amusements the time passed very rapidly.—News.
