ALDERMAN CHOICE FOR STATE SUPERINTENDENT

Eugene Educator Choice of the Teachers of Oregon for the Position

Salem, Or., Dec. 30.—The teachers of Oregon have chosen L. R. Alderman for state superintendent. March 19 of this year, Charles H. Jones, editor of the Oregon Teachers' Monthly, sent out circular letters to each of the county superintendents, asking them to nominate candidates for state school superintendent. The superintendents responded generally and the following candidates were named: L. R. Alderman, of Eugene; E. D. Ressler, of Corvallis; A. J. Churchill, of Baker City; R. F. Robinson, of Portland; and P. L. Campbell of Eugene. Mr. Jones took three candidates as a basis for a "straw vote," and in the January number of the Oregon Teachers' Monthly, will make the following announcement: "The Oregon Teachers' Monthly straw voting contest for state school superintendent closed December 25. Altogether 1699 votes were cast and each county in the state was represented, except Curry and Lake. The votes were fairly well distributed and the following are the results obtained: L. R. Alderman, 916; E. D. Ressler, 218; R. F. Robinson, 182; P. L. Campbell, 139; A. J. Churchill, 101; Scattering, 53. The candidates in no way have taken any special interest in the matter. So far as we know, no solicitation or pressure by them has been brought to bear upon any of the teachers. The candidates were all well known to the teachers." L. R. Alderman, associate professor of education in the University of Oregon, who wins the straw vote contest by the teachers of the state, received over four times as many votes as his nearest competitor. The present superintendent, J. H. Ackerman, who will have had twelve years of successful work in the office, is not a candidate for re-election.

A Native Son.
Mr. Alderman was born in Yamhill county 37 years ago of a pioneer family. He attended the Dayton public school and later was a student at McMinnville college. While there he represented his college in the first oratorical contest. He entered the University of Oregon in the fall of 1895 and graduated in June, 1898, with an A. B. degree. He was a hard student, an able debater and was honored by being president of the student body.

After graduating he taught school in Halsey and Brownsville, in Linn county, and was then elected vice-principal of the schools of McMinnville. Next year he was elected principal, which position he held for three years.

In 1904 he was elected superintendent of the schools for Yamhill county. While in this position he started the school fair, to bring the schools and homes closer together. Under his leadership 1500 children had home gardens and over 500 girls made bread every Saturday under the instruction of their mothers.

Came to Eugene in 1907.
In the spring of 1907 Mr. Alderman was elected superintendent of the city schools of Eugene. While in this position he started many kinds of industrial work, and also got the co-operation of his teachers, pupils and parents, so that the school board raised his salary and offered him a three-year contract, but two state schools offered him a position. He accepted the position he now holds in the state university.

He is a man of vigorous health and has a strong personality and broad sympathies.

REV. DR. BROUGHER TO LOS ANGELES

Portland, Dec. 31.—Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher, pastor of the White Temple, Wednesday night presented his resignation as pastor of the Portland church to the prudential committee, which met in special session, to consider the subject of his change to the pastorate of the Temple Baptist church at Los Angeles.

Every member of the committee was opposed to Dr. Brougher's going, but the pastor declared that his decision was final, and the committee voted to present the subject to the church for action tonight. If the church accepts the resignation, it is understood that Dr. Brougher will accept the call to the Los Angeles church.

WHAT ABOUT A HOME?
This is the question with 90 per cent of the investors today. They want to buy for $1.00 something that is worth $1.25 tomorrow. The time to buy is now—today. Good real estate will always make you money. The place? Everybody's Realty Co. Why? Because they are "bargain hunters" and have "the goods" to sell you. Would you invest $500 or $1000 in a well-located fruit farm near the city, with street car facilities to market your next year's crop? Come and buy one of these farms today, as tomorrow never comes.

Notice of Dissolution.
Notice is hereby given that the firm of Baker & Anderson, owners of the Fairmount meat market, have dissolved partnership. J. J. Baker continuing the business and Charles Anderson retiring. All bills due the firm are payable to Mr. Baker.

KETTENBACH IS DECLARED NOT GUILTY

Moscow, Idaho, Dec. 29.—William F. Kettenbach, who was accused of fraudulent transactions relative to the estate of Cary A. Coryell, deceased, through manipulations of the Lewiston National Bank, and who was sued by the administrator, Geo. T. Miller, was declared in a decision handed down by Judge Steele today.

In this case it was alleged that the Lewiston National Bank and William had defrauded the estate of Coryell, who was a member of the defunct Colby, Coryell & Howe Lumber Company, which was indebted to the bank to the amount of $125,000. Of this amount $50,000 had been guaranteed by Cary Coryell and others personally.

The case involves large amounts and will be appealed.

DAVENPORT TAKES TURN FOR WORSE

San Diego, Cal., Dec. 30.—Homer Davenport, the noted cartoonist, who is seriously ill at the home of A. G. Spalding, Point Loma, fighting to recover from a nervous breakdown, slept well last night, but today new complications set in.

A sharp pain has developed in the back of his head, and while there is no fever, the attending physician has not yet decided the nature of this latest development. It will be several days before Mr. Davenport's condition can be brought back to where it was yesterday. The doctors refuse to say whether he will ultimately recover.

The Why and Wherefore.
There is never a why without a wherefore. For instance, Hood's Sarsaparilla roots out the disease. Wherefore, when people take this medicine faithfully and persistently their diseases disappear.

It cures scrofula, rheumatism, catarrh, dyspepsia, kidney complaint, etc., because these diseases have their origin in the blood. Thousands of people who once suffered from such troubles are alive and well today, and say they cannot help praising Hood's Sarsaparilla, because it has given them good health, lengthened their lives and afforded them new opportunities for happiness and usefulness.

It is a beneficent work that Hood's Sarsaparilla is doing. It helps poor tired mothers by purifying and enriching their blood and giving them appetite and strength. It builds up broken down constitutions, relieves the pangs of rheumatism and neuralgia, dispels the horrors of dyspepsia and nervous prostration, overcomes the symptoms of catarrh, eradicates scrofula, salt rheum and all blood diseases, and makes the weak and debilitated feel strong and vigorous. 110

Men's Gifts Are Poor

The cure constipation, biliousness, sick headache, stomach, liver, kidney and bowel troubles. 25c at W. A. Kuykendall's.

CHOKED TO DEATH
is commonly said of babies who have died of the croup. How unnecessary this is. No child ever had the croup without having a cough or cold at the start. If you stop the first symptom of the cough with Ballard's Horehound Syrup there is no danger whatever of croup. For sale by Dillon Drug Co.

PLAN TO KIDNAP

GROOM IS SPOILED
Albany Man Gets Friends to Rescue Him From Jokers

Albany, Or., Dec. 30.—Aided by his fellow-employees, Clyde E. Williamson, a bookkeeper in the First National Bank of this city, tonight succeeded in making a sensational escape from a coterie of friends who planned to kidnap him, and reached the residence of J. A. Willard, in East Albany, where he was married at 8 o'clock to Miss Elvira Willard. Williamson has been a member of the College Club, a young men's boardinghouse, and his fellow boarders planned to kidnap him and keep him until morning. They surrounded the residence of W. H. Holman when Williamson went to his room at 5 o'clock to dress for the wedding and maintained a guard for two hours.

Williamson telephoned to his fellow bank employees that he was surrounded and ten of them got together and formed a rescuing party. In the meantime someone had telephoned police headquarters and Officer Catlin had gone to the Holman residence at 7 o'clock and caused the guards to retreat. When the bank clerks arrived the scattered guards offered no opposition, and they formed in a hollow square with Williamson in the center and marched all the way to Willard residence, 18 blocks distant.
