"BILL" HAYWARD

SEEMS WORRIED

The Track Situation For Coming Season Not as Good as at First Thought

"Follows, I'm simply up against it and I am asking you to help me out. There are only a few old men left that can be counted on as point winners; these are Hawkins, Williams, Riddell, Johns, Davis and Bristow. The upper classmen have been inclined to shoot it into the freshmen for their lack of spirit and say that they 'have no pip.' This is not the cure at all. It is the old men that do not show their spirit and the freshmen do as they see you do. Now, our prospects for this track season are very poor from the way they look now. We have no weight men, no sprinters and no high jumpers. Of course, by this I mean men who can be counted on for points in the conference meets. We have a meet scheduled with California here, one with Washington at Seattle, the triangular meet here, the O. A. C. meet here, and the conference meet in Portland. Now, I'll admit that I have given out hard luck stories before but there is no story to this; this is the real situation and I'm telling you fellows how it is and asking you to help me out. It's often said that because we have Bill Hayward, we can win. Now, this is very nice, and I appreciate it and I will do all I can for victory, but I can't do the impossible. I can't win the meets alone."

Before a small group of serious-faced athletes, whom he had summoned to the gymnasium yesterday afternoon, Bill Hayward, back against the wall, in his low serious voice, made this appeal. The situation is really alarming, and Hayward, who seldom talks at length or expresses his opinions to many, was forced by the gravity of the situation to call this meeting.

The cross-country race will be held in Eugene February 22, with Corvallis. The course will be four miles (two additional laps about the track will give the additional distance).

JEFF SAYS HE WILL

FIGHT IN CALIFORNIA

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 18—"There is not even as much as an outside chance that I'll fight any place but in California," declared James J.

ELMIRA ITEMS

Elmira, Jan. 17—There is a great deal of sickness in and around the burg now, but nearly every one, we are glad to note, is better.

Will Bogart, of Creston, Washington, who was called here last week by the serious illness of his father, received a telegram yesterday to come home, as his little son was very sick with pneumonia. He left immediately for Eugene and aimed to take the first train north.

Mrs. Maude Pickens and little son, of Roseburg, are visiting at the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Howard.

Miss Veda Hale is spending the week in Eugene.

Zack Fisk, of Fairview, is in Elmira today on business.

Mrs. Blanche Baker and children, of Irving, drove over today to visit at the home of F. P. Demming.

We noticed Mrs. Florence Inman, of Crow, and Mrs. Frank Fisk, of Fairview, among the out-of-town shoppers in Elmira yesterday.

Our town now boasts of a barber-shop. Claire Ross is the proprietor. The local I. O. O. F. lodge will install their new officers tomorrow night. They are preparing for a big time.

School is progressing nicely. There is quite a number of pupils from outside districts attending. Two of the latest to enter are the Misses Nellie Potter and Myrtle Sheffer.

The Guard's voting center is making a few of our young ladies sit up and take notice.

WHAT A WOMAN WILL NOT DO

There is nothing a woman would not do to regain her lost beauty. She ought to be fully as zealous in preserving her good looks. The herb drink of years, called Lane's Family Medicine or Lane's Tea, is the most efficient aid in preserving a beautiful skin and will do more than anything else to restore the rosy faded cheeks. At all druggists and dealers. 25c.

The fountain pen that is making new friends every day can be found at Eaton's book and art store.

Jeffries, who exhibited last night in Lincoln before a crowded theatre. "Just tell Governor Spry," Jeffries continued, "that he is doing me a favor when he says Johnson and I can't pull off our mill in Salt Lake, or Utah. He won't need to get any militia after me for I won't be there. California is my home state. That's the place where I am going to fight Johnson, and the governor can rest easy and keep his soldiers at home. This fight is going to draw a lot of people from all over the country and take it from me, California, the state where I live, is going to get the benefit. I don't care whether or not Tex Rickard has said the things he is credited with in the newspapers about fighting in Salt Lake. Just put it down for keeps that Jeff is going to fight Johnson in California and that I am going to lick him."

NORTHWESTERN LEAGUE WILL HAVE OUR TEAMS

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 18—The Northwestern Baseball league at its annual meeting here tonight dropped Aberdeen from the league and decided to operate only four clubs during the coming season.

This action was taken when it was found impossible to secure a suitable applicant to take up the franchise vacated by Portland, Oregon.

Bellingham and Everett were applicants for the Portland franchise, but both proposals were rejected.

JEFFRIES COMING

TO PORTLAND

Jack Curley, the well known eastern sporting man, who is ahead of the Jeffries-Gotch star organization, is in Portland arranging for the show, which will be held here January 27 or 28. Jack was around visiting the theatre people this morning. Jeffries comes here direct from Salt Lake, and will afterwards go to Seattle, Spokane, Butte and other northwest towns.—Oregonian.

New Man at O. A. C. Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Jan. 18—There will be a new man in the department of physical education to help take care of the physical welfare of the students at O. A. C. J. G. Arbuthnot, at present in charge of the extension work in physical education of the Portland Y. M. C. A., has been appointed instructor in physical training at the Oregon Agricultural college.

In the long run which pays the best—to deal with a well-known established business house, whose reputation and quality of goods stand unimpaired, or to deal with a "stranger"? The merits of the Stevens & Hulla Piano House stand unexcelled, and their world-famous makes of pianos (the Weber, Chickering, Hobart M. Cable and many others) need no defense, for every one knows what they are. Before buying a piano or organ, investigate at the Stevens & Hulla Piano House—Commercial Club.

GRANGE OPPOSED TO ASSEMBLY PLAN

Cottage Grove, Or., Jan. 18.—The Grange of the Patrons of Husbandry has adopted resolutions opposing the "assembly plan" and endorsing the direct primary law, opposing the raising of any salary of Oregon for any cause whatever, unless by the initiative, and demanding the repeal of the sawdust and game law. Relative to the salary question, the Grange resolved that the officers of the state "are becoming masters instead of servants."

DONNA ITEMS

Special Correspondence.

Donna, Jan. 17—Alexander Lewis, who has been laid off with a badly bruised hand, is getting better.

The extremely cold weather for the past week or so has frozen a good many potatoes, and those who have not gathered their crop will probably find them not worth digging.

Herbert Hill, who is attending the Eugene Business college, spent Sunday with his parents in Donna.

Ray Stafford, who has been sick for some time, is able to be around again.

The Mohawk Dramatic club, which was organized some time ago by James Douglas, have returned from Wendling and Marcola, where they have been giving entertainments for the past few days. This club has gained for itself, considerable notoriety because of the mysterious disappearance of the manager. A bit of history of the club is as follows: Some time ago James Douglas came to our little city. He at once gained the confidence of our young people, (and the writer was among them). Small blame to them. He was apparently a gentleman and represented himself to be the son of an English lord. He easily organized the club and on Christmas night gave the play, "All a Mistake" at the M. W. A. hall, and as he was manager, the proceeds, consisting of about $50, fell into his hands and he disappeared. It is believed he will sometime appear and straighten up. If he does not, many believe it no crime on his part as he alone did lots of work and made well earned all he took.

IF YOU ARE A TRIFLE SENSITIVE

Facts for Weak Women

Nine-tenths of all the sickness of women is due to some derangement of the organs distinctly feminine. Such sickness can be cured every day by

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription
It Makes Weak Women Strong.
Sick Women Well

It acts directly on the organs affected and is at the same time a general tonic for the whole system. It cures female complaint right at the source. It makes unnecessary the disagreeable questioning, excruciating local treatment so universally insisted upon by doctors, and so every modest woman.

We shall not particularize here as to the symptoms of those peculiar affections incident to women, but those wanting full information as to their symptoms and means of positive cure are referred to the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser—1008 pages, newly revised and up-to-date Edition, sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only; or, in cloth binding for 31 stamps.
