

WANT THAT FORD AUTOMOBILE?

IF YOU WILL JUST SEE YOUR FRIENDS AND THEM HOW THEY CAN ASSIST YOU TO THE DESIRED END.

THE LAST DAY OF THE SPECIAL OFFER

1910 Ford? It Has Arrived and Will Be on Call and See It will become the greatest and most gigantic ever attempted by any newspaper before it is brought to a close. The votes that will decide who will be the winners are free to patrons.

Offer for new subscribers closes this The contest closes February 26, 1910. get these dates confused.

Votes are allowed to patrons upon payment for subscriptions, for new subscriptions and also by coupons printed in the paper daily. No increase in the price of subscription is made; to the contrary, there is a saving by paying in advance, and it is therefore a pleasure for the candidates to go among their friends and solicit their votes in the contest that will prove the ability of the young lady in the counties over which the contest extends.

A Cabinet Phonograph.

Either an automobile, a piano, or a diamond ring, or a beautiful gold watch, or a scholarship, can be won by any contestant who is industrious enough to organize her friends and wage an aggressive campaign. The prizes are magnificent and they will be eagerly sought for, and it will stand the candidates in hand to always be watchful and keep up a lively interest in the Daily Guard contest.

The prizes are rich enough to cause envy to enter the heart and everyone in the territory mentioned as being included in the contest, would gladly be made the recipient of any of them. They will be distributed only in accordance with the wishes of the people who live in the different communities, and it therefore behooves every candidate to be up and doing all the time. Call upon your friends, telephone them, write to them and get them to aid and assist you in your campaign for the free votes that mean so much.

How Votes Are Secured.

The votes are given free to old and new readers of the Daily Guard who pay a certain amount on subscriptions at the regular rate. The payments can be made to the candidates or the office direct. The number of votes allowed is in proportion to the amount paid.

If any contestant has not received a receipt book to aid her in making collections, we will be very glad to send her one on receiving her request by mail. We will also send you a list of our subscribers in your locality so you will know who is taking the Daily Guard. The receipt books are a very handy thing to have as some of your friends may want to pay you and then you will be able to give them a receipt for the money.

Future Subscriptions

Contestants may find in some cases friends who wish to help them in the contest by subscribing for the Daily Guard, but are already taking a local paper, which is paid in advance.

vance, and not desiring to receive more than one local daily in their homes at the same time, the contest department has arranged to accept and issue votes on all such subscriptions, the paper to start at any future date that the subscriber may designate.

Second Payments

A great many people do not understand, and for their information we wish to say that anyone starting to take the paper since the contest started will always be considered a new subscriber during the life of the contest and votes given accordingly. If you start the paper now and pay something in advance and wish to pay more later during the contest you will still be considered a new subscriber and votes will be issued accordingly.

Small Payments

Candidates that have taken subscriptions for one, two, or three months at the beginning of the contest should get these subscribers to pay the rest of the year, as they are still considered new.

For example, a person who subscribed for the paper and paid 50 cents received 1400 votes, by getting them to pay $4.50 more you will be given 25,000 votes, less the 1400 votes you have already received on the 50 cent payment, or 23,600 votes on $4.50 payment. This ruling also applies to any second payment you may secure, but in all cases six months or more must be added to entitle you to the second payment. The new months will also count in on the special offer now in vogue. When turning in such payments kindly mark your stub "second payment." This ruling is also good on mail subscriptions taken at the $3 rate, in fact, all subscriptions.

False Rumors.

Do not believe all you hear. Some one will try to discourage every good thing. False rumors of all sorts will be going around and the contestant should not allow anyone to discourage her by telling different things they have heard. Kindly remember they are not in a position to judge the contest as well as you.

The contest manager has been through many contests and he knows what is most liable to happen in any big contest. Remember this, the girl who works will win.

Friends Who Help.

Friends who subscribe for the paper for a term are not really donating anything from their pockets, since they subscribe to the Guard, which will be sent to any address to which the subscription is paid. The Guard will not only maintain its present standard of a clean and present reliable family paper, but will go on improving its columns and so far as possible perfecting its delivery service so that there will be no regrets at having subscribed to help some deserving contestants.

A difference of a few thousand votes is not a very large margin, as it means but a year or six months' subscription to The Guard, and those who are behind by such a small number should not lose heart by any means but keep on with the race with renewed vigor. A race is never ended until the time for the last competitor to win out. Keep up with the contest and make it your determination to win and you will be successful.

As industry and popularity are the points that will count in the contest the contest will certainly be a pretty race and one which it will be an honor and a pleasure to participate in. Other nominations will be received as soon as the patrons learn that their favorite has not as yet been put up as a candidate for one of the splendid prizes.

If you have been remembered by your friends and your name is included in the list below, it gives you an opportunity to win one of the prizes offered by the Daily Guard.

Above all things do not get discouraged because some one else has a few more votes than you have. Pledge your friends to your assistance, organize your territory, and your success is assured.

Magnitude of the Contest.

The contest, by this distribution of such a great variety of prizes and the value attached thereto, becomes one of state wide interest. Thousands of people will watch closely the standing of the various candidates and for that reason the standing of the candidates and the number of votes to their credit will be published daily. All will then know just where each one stands and can work accordingly.

Open Evenings.

For the benefit of those who are not able to get to this office during business hours, the contest department will be open every evening.
