O. A. C.-OREGON CROSS COUNTRY RUN TOMORROW

Oregon Expects to Easily Win Race—Interclass Meet

The annual cross-country run between Oregon Agricultural College and the University of Oregon is to be held tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock. It will be run over the regular course, starting and ending at the grandstand in the athletic field; two extra laps around the quarter mile track will raise the distance to the cemetery and back to four miles. It will be a close race, for the O. A. C. men have been training all winter for this. However, it is generally considered that Oregon has the better men. Watson, the man who took first place at Corvallis in the try-out last week, has been beaten by Riddell, and beat Garrabrandt only by the latter's carelessness but a few inches. Severance is a new man for O. A. C., but the fact that Watson beat him gives Oregon no alarm. Nevertheless the Oregon men are not in the condition that they should be, and have been in training for the event only for the past few days seriously.

The Track Meet In connection with the cross-country run an inter-class meet will be held. This meet will show up the real point-makers for Oregon this year, and it is from the winners of the events tomorrow that Bill Hayward will choose his team. For the athletes and Bill it will be one of the most important events of the year.

PROTEST AGAINST USING DEATH TRAPS FOR OCEAN SERVICE

Vallejo, Cal., Feb. 21.—The chief engineering officer of the cruiser Maryland has filed a protest with the navy department against sending that ship to sea for target practice. His protest is similar to that filed by the engineer of the West Virginia, reciting that human life is endangered by taking the ships to sea with the machinery in its present condition.

PHILADELPHIA'S STREET CARS ARE STILL RUNNING BUT PEOPLE PREFER TO WALK

Philadelphia, Feb. 21.—Although street cars are running on all lines today, the system is pretty well tied up. With the exception of a few passengers most of the people preferred to walk rather than take chances of being hit with bricks and other missiles thrown at the cars.

The Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company has issued a statement that it only had 600 cars running today, although it had men enough to handle 1200 if policemen were available to protect them. There was no service after 6 o'clock today except on the subway and elevated lines.

The strikers claim that 6500 men out of about 7000 are on strike, and that the company is running the cars with strike-breakers and power house employes. Sensational reports of the police having pistol battles with the strikers are untrue, most of the disorder being occasioned by boys.

Of one hundred arrested yesterday a majority are under 21 years of age. There was bloodshed yesterday, however, four persons being hit by bullets, but it was occasioned by people in the crowds firing into the air.

One of the amusing sights of the strike is to see men and not a few women going to work on roller skates.

Under a proclamation of the mayor the people are not permitted to congregate on the streets.

Philadelphia, Feb. 20.—Rioting in every section of the city followed the attempt of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company to operate its lines here today.

Passengers and crews were driven from the cars by infuriated mobs of strike sympathizers, and in nearly a score of instances the abandoned cars were burned or otherwise destroyed.

At nightfall every car was withdrawn from service. Stern measures were adopted by the police to quell the disorders. Five persons were arrested, charged with inciting to riot. Two women were taken to hospitals.

3000 Policemen Sworn Mayor Reubyn tonight ordered Director of Police Clay to swear in 3,000 additional police, and to issue a proclamation enforcing the riot act.

The executive committee of the Central Labor Union this afternoon pledged both moral and financial support to the strikers. It also decided to call a sympathetic strike of every other union man in case the authorities put into effect their threat to operate the cars with policemen and firemen.

STATE CANNOT LEVY TAX ON CORPORATIONS

Supreme Court Reverses the Supreme Court of Alabama

Washington, Feb. 21.—By reversing the decision of the supreme court of Alabama, the supreme court of the United States today declared unconstitutional, as applied to the railway companies, the Alabama statute levying an annual franchise tax on foreign corporations doing business in the state. The court held it to be an improper discrimination between foreign and domestic corporations.

ACTS OF VIOLENCE IN CAR STRIKE

Philadelphia, Feb. 21.—Many acts of violence characterized the strike of the street car employes today. There was a serious riot at Fifth street and Lehigh avenue. Dynamite was exploded under a car, which was broken in half. There were no passengers, and previous to the dynamiting the mob ordered the crew off the car. The police arrived quickly and with drawn revolvers cowed the mob and arrested several rioters.
