DR. OLIVER'S SERMON ON NOAH'S ARK

There was a large attendance at the tabernacle last evening when Dr. Oliver preached the sermon on "Noah's Ark," and at the close of the meeting many came forward to take their stand for the right. This evening the subject of the sermon will be "The Incarnation."

In the course of his sermon last evening Dr. Oliver spoke in part as follows:

"My text is found in Genesis 7:1.

"And Jehovah said unto Noah, Come thou, and all thy house, into the ark."

"The announcement of a text from the Bible will engender anything from a verbose contest to a battle royal. Infidelity, self-righteousness, and the combinations of unregenerate defense have failed to present any convincing argument justifying the race in its contempt of God, and its wickedness. It takes no manhood, no brains, and certainly no character, for a contemptible claspelaw to stand as the enemy of the Bible, the enemy of the church, the opponent of Jesus Christ, possessed with a fiendish pugnacity, which is the result of a vain attempt on his part cover his contumacy."

"The Bible is true to human nature; it proves its divine origin in the fact that it defines sin and describes the vicissitudes, the vagaries, the doom of the sinner, and opens the portals of eternal night at the end of the sinner's journey, showing him God's eternal penitentiary, which he has definitely chosen as his eternal heritage. The same book describes the magnificent manhood and matchless womanhood resultant upon a life of noble service to God."

"When a man writes the story of a life, he usually photographs the mountain peaks and does not descend into the valleys or canyons or commonplace prairies; this is particularly true as it applies to the virtues of the individual described. The biographers do not include in their descriptions of the senators the record of their infamy."

"Some great statesmen have become drunken bums, but you never would know it by reading the official story of their life as man presents it."

"The scripture lesson which I read to you tells of the call of Noah. God investigated humanity and found that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and it repented Jehovah that He had made man."

"Now the basis of destruction of the antediluvian character was foul imagination. Imagination is a birth-chamber of thought; the action of the subconscious mind in day or night dreams I believe to be the active imagination in its workshop. Foul imagination will ultimately blacken the whitest fabric or reddens the cleanest hands with human blood. Holy imagination, the parent of pure thought, may lead you to scale the heavens."

"One day God called to Noah, and commanded him to build an ark. God never calls upon man to do the impossible. Noah did as he was commanded, and the ark was built."

"I wonder tonight if you and all of your house are in the ark? Perhaps some of Noah's relatives ran screaming toward the ark and cried out, 'Noah, I am your cousin,' or 'I am your nephew,' but it mattered not, for God had shut the door of the ark and none could enter. God is not going to consider the human relationship of any man at the day of judgment and spare him because his father was great or small. I want to close my message tonight, urging the fathers and mothers to enter the ark, and to see to it that their children have entered with them."

STOMACH MISERY FOR OVER SIX YEARS

Think of it! After six years of our stomach, of gas eruptions, of nervousness, during which time every meal lay on his stomach like a jump of lead, a man was restored to perfect health by Mi-o-na stomach tablets.

Read what Mr. Hoffman, landlord of the Webster Hotel, writes.

"I suffered misery and intense pains from stomach trouble for over six years, and all the doctoring that I did or medicine I used were of no avail until about two years ago, when I used a treatment of Mi-o-na. The first few days' treatment helped me greatly and upon using it a while I was made entirely free from any stomach trouble or complaint whatever. Since the cure by Mi-o-na I have regained my weight, I eat and sleep well, am never nervous, and my entire general health is much better."—Max M. Hoffman, Webster, N. Y., Aug. 2, 1909.

Mi-o-na relieves stomach distress in five minutes. It acts like magic. It is guaranteed to cure sour stomach, gas eruptions, heartburn, dizziness, biliousness and nervousness, or money back. For sale by druggists everywhere and by Red Cross Drug Store for 50 cents a large box.
