AT SUNDOWN

When the sun of your life's going down in the West, you'll try to recall all your deeds that were best, for soon at the seat of the judge you'll appear, to give an account of your stewardship here. Each day you are doing something that may seem as smart and brilliant as any man's scheme; perhaps it will gain the applause of the town, but how will it look when the sun's going down? Each day you are striving to build up your pile, and maybe resorting to systems of guile, and when you are asked if you think it is straight, you have your defense and begin to orate: "There's fierce competition and men who would win mustn't be too afraid of the shadow of sin." That logic may do in the loud, bustling town; but how will it look when the sun's going down? You'd like to be good if you only had time, but you are so busy pursuing the dime that helping your brother or trying to cheer the grief-stricken pilgrims now journeying here is merely an impulse that comes but to fade; there's only one temple, whose idol is trade; and there you may grovel for wealth and renown—but how will it seem when the sun's going down?

WALT MASON.

Copyright, 1909, by George Matthew Adams.

It is reported now, an apparently good authority, that Hill Will take over the Oregon Electric, now operating between Portland and Salem, on April 15th. If this proves true, it is also understood that the Portland, Eugene & Eastern will become his property at the same time. The fact that negotiations have been pending with the Hill interests for some months no doubt explains why the extension of both these lines has been held up, and we may expect renewed activity immediately after the change in ownership takes place. Hill will no doubt push the main line of the Oregon Electric up the valley as soon as possible, in order to invade the Harriman territory, as well as to secure a base for his operations eastward through the McKenzie pass to connect with his Deschutes road and westward from this city to Coos Bay. To offset this rapid advance of Hill the Southern Pacific is rushing work on the Oregon Eastern, east from this city to Klamath Falls, and have let the contract for, so it is reported, the line from Ontario, Oregon, westward to connection with the Oregon Eastern. It is also rumored that the completion of the Drain branch to Coos Bay has again been indefinitely held up, and that the Southern Pacific is seriously considering a line from Eugene to Coos Bay, which will interfere with, if it does not block the rapidly maturing plans of the Hill interests.

Joseph Cannon, like his predecessors, Thomas Reed and David Henderson, has finally been dethroned by a revolution. All became drunk with unlimited power, and the history of the lower house of congress for many years past may be likened to that of the Central American republics, when one dictator holds sway until another dethrones him, and is in due course of time driven from power by a revolution. The lesson that is taught is that the rules should be so amended that every congressman sent to Washington to represent a constituency should be given an opportunity to take part in the deliberations of the house. Under the Reed-Henderson-Cannon system the speaker has absolutely dictated legislation, and the alleged representatives of the people have been mere puppets in his hands.

The Nesmith county boomers must anyway be given credit for their push and hustle. They have already secured space in fully half the newspapers of the state for arguments advanced in support of their cause.

Lumber mills of Oregon are busy—so are other industries in the great and growing Northwest.

BUY A STANDARD PIANO.

To pay as much for a cheap, new make as we ask for a standard piano of reputation, would be unwise on your part. We sell some world renowned high grade makes for less than is asked by others for very inferior untried makes. Investigate before you buy. Stevens & Hall's Piano House, Commercial Club block. Home of the Weber, Chickering, and others.

GOOD SALE OF SEATS FOR ELKS' MINSTRELS

There was "something doing" at the box office of the Eugene theatre this morning, when the sale of seats for the Elks' minstrel opened. A long line of people were waiting for 10 o'clock to come and a big sale of seats has been reported. However, there are still a great many good seats left which no doubt will be taken before the curtain goes up on tomorrow night's show. Tomorrow at noon the big parade goes out and every one is anxious to see the merry Elks in their "glad rags" and to see who are in the big show. A great many Elks from out of town will be here to attend the show and on account of the change in program on the evening right, many have bought seats for both nights.

Now about the show. It is going to be a great show, and every one is going to get their money's worth of fun several times over. Many novelties in black face acts will be presented and some of the best hits will be made by people whom no one suspected of having minstrel talent. If you haven't secured your seats do so at once while there are some good ones left.

NEW STORE OPEN TO PUBLIC THIS MORNING

McMorran & Washburne's Handsome Place of Business Thronged With Shoppers

The new dry goods store of McMorran & Washburne in the Warren block, on Willamette street was opened to the public this morning, and large crowds of shoppers thronged the place all day long. Everybody was delighted with the arrangement of the store, and with the goods, which are entirely new, also with the quality of goods carried. The interior of the big room has been entirely remodeled, since vacated by the Crescent store several months ago, and a large addition has been built to the rear, giving a great deal more floor space and more light than the other store had.

The ladies' department occupies the entire northern half of the building and extends back into the addition, in which is located the suit and cloak department. Back of that is located a ladies' rest room, a new feature in Eugene.

The men's furnishing department, which is complete in every detail, is located in the south half of the building, and the office is in the southwest corner, with a cashier's desk in the middle of the western end of the building.

The store is equipped with modern conveniences, and is heated throughout by a furnace. A corps of competent clerks with several years' experience each are employed in the store.

AWBREY GRACE GIVEN FINE OF $50.00 FOR SHOOTING MIKE DALY

Light Sentence Given, As There Is Doubt That Grace Fired the Shot

Awbrey Grace, the old man who was charged with shooting Mike Daly in the leg during a drunken brawl in Eugene last Christmas night, pleaded guilty in the circuit court this forenoon to the charge of assault and battery and this afternoon was sentenced by Judge Harris to pay a fine of $50. The old man is aged over 70 years and, as his attorney, L. Bilyeu stated before sentence was pronounced, a jail sentence would have probably meant his death, as he is very feeble. Deputy District Attorney McFadden stated that the shooting was done while all the participants in the row was dead drunk and it was hard to determine who did the shooting.

Stat vs. Turner. The jury in the case of Tip Turner of Cottage Grove, charged with violating the local option law, went out this afternoon at three o'clock.

Thomas Gets Verdict. In the case of Free Thomas vs. H. Stam, to recover money, the jury this morning returned a verdict for Thomas.

ACCIDENT TO ENGINE OF LOCAL TRAIN

The south-bound local train, due out of Eugene at 1:53 o'clock in the afternoon, did not leave yesterday afternoon until about 4 o'clock on account of a broken driving shaft. The shaft and the air pipe leading from the engine to the cars broke with only one cylinder working and the engine to travel the distance from that point to Cottage Grove with only on cylinder working and no airbrakes. The train was delayed at Eugene for an hour on account of the engine having stopped at "dead centre," and it was impossible to start it with only one cylinder until it was moved off center by means of crew bars. A new engine from Roseburg met the train at Cottage Grove.
