

CITY NEWS

Dillon for drugs.

The Westminster Guild will meet at 2:30 p. m. at the church parlors next Saturday.

Today and tomorrow are the longest days of the year, they being of equal length.

Architect Hunzicker is drawing plans for a summer bungalow to be built by Dr. Kuykendall on Triangle lake.

Rev. Geo. E. McDonald, formerly pastor of the Eugene United Brethren church, has accepted a call to Seattle.

A marriage license was issued yesterday afternoon to Robert M. Smith and Miss Myrtle Orr, both of Marcola.

The work of laying the concrete floor of the new Hampton block was begun this morning by Contractor Ellis.

Excavation for the Kappa Sigma fraternity house at the corner of East Eleventh and Alder streets has commenced.

The Real Estate Exchange has sold the D. C. Andrews residence property at 870 Pearl street to E. P. Westfall for $2,800.

The stores of the city, except those that deal in fireworks and other things necessary at celebrations, will close at noon on July 4.

A. Lombard this morning began the work of pouring the concrete for the foundation of the new Bonnett block on West Ninth street.

The holes for the College Hill loop trolley poles are being dug. A large force of men is laying rails and surfacing the track.

Wm. D. Ady, of West Liberty, and N. C. Ady, of Bell Plain, Iowa, are here as the guests of W. Polders. They may decide to locate in this city.

A. M. Uterback, one of the P. E. & E. construction foremen, went to Salem today to superintend the surfacing of a mile of new track built by the company there.

Cyrus Bradley, who has been section foreman for the S. P. Co. at Corvallis for a number of years, has been transferred to Irving. He is a son of W. P. Bradley, of Eugene.

The Fairmount Brick Co. has just completed the work of burning their first kiln of brick, some 140,000 brick being the limit. These brick are first class and have a splendid color.

The Eugene Fruit Growers' association has been advised that the Salem cherry fair date has been definitely set for July 7, 8 and 9. The association will have a fine exhibit of cherries there.

The Hadley residence on the site of the new M. E. church on South Willamette street, recently purchased by the Campbell-Fellman Co., is being moved to the corner of East Thirteenth and Pearl streets.

Coroner Gordon, who was called to Lowell yesterday to hold an inquest over the remains of a railroad laborer who was killed in the construction camp, is not expected home before night.

The Royal restaurant owners will not move out of the old wooden building on the site of the new Titus block until July 19. Immediately after that date the building will be torn down and the work of erecting the new block begun.

J. H. Maxwell, rural mail carrier on Eugene route No. 2, will attend the state convention of rural carriers in Portland next week. The convention next year will be held in Eugene. It having been promised this city at the last convention.

Alex Maxwell, wanted in Multnomah county on the charge of seduction, was taken to Portland today by City Detective R. H. Craddock. His mother accompanied him and will put up the necessary bond immediately upon their arrival there.

The city is unable to get anyone to take care of the dump pile across the river and it is again in a very bad shape. It seems it will be necessary to pay more than $10 a month to a man to care for the dump in order to keep him on the job.

The Eugene Commercial Club has received a set of resolutions adopted by the Nyssa Commercial Club, asking the local club to aid in a fight for the division of Malheur and Harney counties to form Otis county. There will be no action by the local organization.

DeArmond Bros., of Grants Pass, against whom J. R. Campbell had a suit in the circuit court, have settled the case and it will be dismissed. Mr. Campbell sued them for damages on account of alleged neglect at his hop yard which they rented.

ED RYAN, The Columbia Park Boys' Band's Crack Drum Major

A gold medal contest will be held June 24, 8:00 p. m., at the Central Presbyterian church, corner Tenth and Pearl streets. All great speakers come and see who is the lucky winner. Admission free. All welcome. Watch for programme later.

Baker City Democrat: Judge Smith leaves this (Sunday) evening for Eugene, where he goes to attend the annual meeting of the regents of the state university, he being a member of the board. He will also attend the commencement exercises which take place this week.

Rev. P. K. Hammond, rector of St. Mary's Episcopal church in Eugene, has received a call from St. John's church at Sellwood, a suburb of Portland, but has not yet decided whether or not to accept it. Eugene people generally regret to learn that he is contemplating leaving the city.

Coburg Journal: Mrs. William Swager and children left Thursday morning for their new home at Hall, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Swager have lived in Coburg for many years and have many friends who, although sorry to see them leave, wish them best of associations in their new home.

Officer Bonney, who looks after the work of numbering new houses, says six new residences have been started in Fairmount since he was out there last week. He numbered 25 new ones a week ago. He also says there is a whole lot of new sidewalk being built in that part of the city.

Marriage licenses were granted by the county clerk today to the following: James N. Cole, aged 31 years, of Eugene, and Mrs. Minnie Jenkins, aged 34 years, of Springfield; Edward Dempsey, of Harrisburg, and Miss Irene Heath, of Coburg.

The Commercial Club recently offered to put in ornamental lamp posts on the sidewalk in front of the new postoffice building if the government would pay for the electricity, but the government refuses to do so. There is an appropriation for certain expenditures only at the federal building, and additional lights is not included in the sum allotted.

Civil service examinations will be held in Eugene for the following positions on the dates given: Trained nurse, laboratory aid (male), assistant in chemistry (male), assistant in dairy bacteriology (male and female), statistician in forest products (male), all July 27; plant ecologist (male), July 29, and surveyor in general land office July 20 and 21.

Stage passengers out this morning were as follows: Mrs. Geo. Croner to McKenzie bridge; Miss Myrtle Carter to Leaburg; Sam Curry to Waterville; S. B. Eakin, wife and Miss Nusbann to McKenzie Bridge; Mayor J. D. Matlock to Waterville; E. Sharp and J. Goodfellow to Waterville; Miss Tina Hulery and Mrs. Fred Ross to Waterville; Frank Ross to Waterville; John Jacobson to Florence; Edna Chamberlain to Florence, and S. S. Miller to Hale.

Theodore Dergies, a foreigner employed by the Utah Construction Co. in the railroad camps up the Willamette, is at the General hospital as the result of being struck in the eye with a piece of rock from a blast. A deep gash was cut in his head and it

POLLY THEATRE

(The Pride of Eugene.) Tonight, GEO. LEWELLYN, character humorist, also demonstrating physical culture. Pictures—RASTUS IN ZULULAND. THE CLIFF DWELLERS. CAPT. KIDD'S TREASURE. We change pictures every day. Admission, afternoons five cents. Evenings, ten cents.

DIE TOMORROW

The faculty of the University would like to see the city decorated for the commencement exercises tomorrow more elaborately than ever before. There is an unusually large number of former students here, and the occasion should be recognized by the people generally. While the time is short, everybody should get busy this evening and tomorrow morning and display the colors of the University.

was necessary to take the eye out. Maravoka Louise, another foreigner employed in the camps, is at the hospital with a broken leg, the accident happening two or three days ago.

H. N. Cockerline, the well-known Albany insurance agent, formerly a resident of Eugene, will leave soon for Milwaukee, Wis., to attend the national convention of insurance agents. He will take with him a quantity of Eugene Royal Anne cherries for the banquet to be held. They will be labeled as having come from Eugene. Last year he took prunes, but the cherries will doubtless make a bigger hit than the prunes did.

Judge J. W. Hamilton is here from Roseburg to attend the meeting of the University regents.

CAUSES SICKNESS

Good Health Impossible with a Disordered Stomach

The is nothing that will create sickness or cause more trouble than a disordered stomach, and many people daily contract serious maladies simply through disregard or abuse of the stomach.

We urge everyone suffering with any stomach derangement, indigestion or dyspepsia, whether acute or chronic, to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, with the distinct understanding that we will refund their money without question or formality, if after reasonable use of this medicine they are not satisfied with the results. We recommend the into our customers every day, and have yet to hear of anyone who has not been benefited by them. Three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00 a box. Sold in Eugene only at our store—The Rexall Store, W. A. Kuykendall.

CHERRIES FOR SALE—Blings and Black Republicans at 4 cents per pound. Fred Ludford, 1194 Moss avenue. Phone Black 3262.

Hay's Hair Health

Never Falls to Restore Gray Hair to its Natural Color and Beauty.

No matter how long it has been gray or faded. Promotes a luxuriant growth of healthy hair. Stops its falling out, and positively removes dandruff. Keeps hair soft and glossy. Will not soil skin or linen. Will not injure your hair. Is not a dye. 51 and 50c. bottles, at druggists. By mail $1.00. Send 2c. for free book "The Care of the Hair and Skin." Philip Hay Spec. Co., Newark, N.J., U.S.A., and Toronto, Ont., Canada. Hay's Skin Health Ointment cures eczema, relieves pain, bruises, burns, bites, chapped hands, chafing, sunburn, prickly heat. 25c. at druggists. Send 10c. for sample tubes.

Linn Drug Company.

INFORMAL DANCE

Company C will give an informal dance in the Armory next Saturday night, to which the public is cordially invited. The first dance will begin at 9 o'clock sharp. 125

Don't Be Annoyed

With skin troubles, chaps, pimples, black heads, eczema or sores. When one 25c box of Dr. Bell's Antiseptic Salve will cure you. Try it at once Sold by Dillon Drug Store.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

Estate of Caroline S. Smigley, Deceased. Notice is hereby given that the undersigned, John M. Smigley, has been duly appointed administrator of the estate of Caroline S. Smigley, deceased, by the County Court of the State of Oregon for Lane County, and has qualified as such administrator, and all persons having claims against said estate are hereby notified and required to present the same, verified, as required by law, with the proper vouchers, to the said administrator at the office of M. Vernon Parsons, in the Bechwith building, in Eugene, Oregon, within six months within date of this notice. Dated at Eugene, Oregon, June 21, 1910. JOHN M. SMIGLEY, Administrator of the Estate of Caroline S. Smigley, Deceased. M. VERNON PARSONS, Attorney for said Estate.

Farewell Week Baandons Players Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday

Young Mrs. Winthrope The Most Successful of all Great Society Dramas

PRICES THAT ARE RIGHT 15c, 25c, 35c and 50c Matinee 10c and 25c

ROBERTS BROS. CLOTHING SALE

Get Ready to Celebrate the 4th by Taking Advantage of Our REDUCED PRICES on our high grade, all wool, hand tailored

Sophomore and Alfred Benjamin Suits

We absolutely guarantee every Suit, bearing either of these labels, to be all wool, to hold its shape and color. They will be sold at the following prices, which are a great saving to anyone interested in high grade Clothing:

$30.00	SUITS WILL SELL FOR	$27.00
27.50	" " " "	25.00
25.00	" " " "	22.50
22.50	" " " "	20.00
20.00	" " " "	18.00

Greater Reductions on Medium Priced Clothing.

$18.00	SUITS WILL SELL FOR	$15.00
$15.00	SUITS WILL SELL FOR	$10.00
$10.00	SUITS WILL SELL FOR	$7.00

Boys' Clothing

Sizes 31 to 35

Will sell at

33 1/3%

Discount

Don't Forget

The Time, the Place, the Price

