A Remarkable Example of Sculptor's Art In Westminster Abbey

The Nightingale tomb in Westminster abbey is said to be one of the most remarkable examples of the sculptor's art in the world. More people inspect this curious piece of work than any other feature in the great abbey. Death is pictured in marble in the form of a skeleton with a mantle thrown around the figure. A mother and daughter are shown seated on a throne, while Death is pointing a spear at the daughter.
