NEW DRAWING DIRECTOR FOR PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Board Selects Miss Jessie S. Smith From LaGrande as Head of Department

The Eugene school board at its meeting last night elected Miss Jessie S. Smith of LaGrande as director of drawing in the public schools for the school year 1910 and 1911. She is well recommended to the board as being proficient in her work.

The board transacted routine business at the meeting and ordered a number of repairs made on different buildings before the fall term begins, about the middle of September.

Terrible Suffering

Eczema All Over Baby's Body.
"When my baby was four months old his face broke out with eczema, and at sixteen months of age, his face, hands and arms were in a dreadful state. The eczema spread all over his body. We had to put a mask or cloth over his face and tie up his hands. Finally we gave him Hood's Sarsaparilla and in a few months he was entirely cured. Today he is a healthy boy." Mrs. Inez Lewis, Baring, Maine.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cures blood diseases and builds up the system. Get it today in usual liquid form or chocolate tablets called Sarsatabs.

A new electric sign has been placed in front of the Smith restaurant in the Fraser building across from the postoffice. The sign is quite large and spells "Cafe," hanging over the sidewalk. NEW MEXICO MAN SECURES LEASE ON HOFFMAN HOUSE

Will Succeed Jared W. Moore as Proprietor of Hotel On August First

W. M. Johnson, recently from Farmington, N. M., has bought the lease on the Hoffman House from Jared Moore, who has been conducting the place for the past several months and will take possession of the hotel on Aug. 1. The deal was negotiated by S. Rugh, who is an old-time neighbor and friend of Mr. Johnson's.

Mr. Moore, who came here from Cheyenne, Wyo., has not yet definitely decided what business he will follow, but he thinks he will remain in Eugene. After he relinquishes control of the hotel he will join his family at Newport for a few weeks' outing.

The Hoffman dining room will continue under the management of Miss Effie Barrett, who has conducted it under Mr. Moore's regime.
