NOTICE

To grade and high school student who wish to take special work during the summer. Professor Parker will begin a six-weeks' term on Aug. 1st at the Eugene Business College.

For particulars inquire at the Business College, 14 1-2 West Seventh street.

YOU NEED A SUMMER HOME

Now is the time to begin arranging for your summer vacation. You will need to get the wife and children away from the coming summer heat and dust and into pure and cool atmosphere. Why not take one of those ten-acre tracts in the suburbs of Florence, near the ocean, that you can now buy for $500? Keep it a few years and you will be able to sell it for $10,000 or more. The people of Los Angeles made millions out of the development of adjacent ocean beach property, and millions will be made out of the development of Lane county beach property, and you had just as well make a few thousand while you are providing pour family with wholesome summer recreation.

If you do not like going so far away as Florence, try one of those City View Park tracts lying within the suburbs of Eugene, close by the artesian well. These tracts are well wooded, shady retreats, elevated above the dust of street traffic, the full force of the ocean breeze making them ideal for summer homes. They are growing in value every year far more than the interest on the money required to pay for them.

You can make a summer camp here and double your investment at the same time. These tracts are only ten to fifteen minutes walk from the College Hill loop street car line now in operation and right on the Eugene-Siuslaw electric line right-of-way. You can make an ideal summer home here and come into the city for business every day. These tracts can be bought now for $200 an acre. They are just as close to the business center as some other land that now brings $2,000 per acre in city lots, and the law of "equal distance, equal value" will make one worth as much as the other in a very short time. See George Melvin Miller, owner of the Florence and City View tracts, at room 20, corner Eighth and Willamette, who will make terms to suit your pocketbook. tf
