Dillon's for Drugs.

Dr. Lowe, the optician, will be in Hotel Osburn Aug. 18 and 19. a17

Household goods have arrived here for M. Updike from Portland.

Kay & Kidwell this morning received some fine show cases for their new store.

There were indications of showers this afternoon, with heavy thunder clouds overhanging.

W. S. Hidden and party returned from an outing at Foley Springs today with Mahlon Sweet in the White gas car.

C. P. Devereaux and family and Mrs. M. G. Tobey and family have gone on a camping trip to the mountains above Dexter.

A marriage license was granted this afternoon to Joseph T. Donaldson of Thurston and Miss Mattie A. Nice of Springfield.

The horses which were turned out of the Sturtevant livery stable during the fire next door night before last have all been recovered.

The Uncle Tom show near the freight depot last night was well attended, but the performance was "punk," say those who attended.

J. A. Clearwater has bought the Allie J. Brande property on Stewart avenue. The deal was made by the M. L. Elliott & Co. Consideration private.

J. S. Luckey and wife and Fred Moullen, of Eugene, accompanied by Miss Crow, of San Francisco, left this morning for an outing at Foley Springs, making the trip by automobile

At the Kansas meeting held at Hempy's store today, Sept. 15 was fixed for the second annual picnic, and B. B. McKinney, A. A. Simmons and A. H. Smock were appointed as a committee on arrangements.

A number of Eugene people are packing up to leave next week for Harrisburg for a two-weeks' camping in the hop yards near there. Hop picking on the early hops begins in the L. Boggs yard next Monday.

Capt. Albert Briggs received word by telephone this morning that his step-son, Henry Mack, had died suddenly in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Briggs left on the noon train for Portland to make arrangements for the funeral.

J. N. Duncan and wife and Z. H. Rudd and wife of Albany were in Eugene this forenoon on their way in an automobile to Foley Springs. They expect to go only as far as Gate Creek tonight, making the trip in easy stages.

The Eugene Commercial club is in receipt of a handsome book from the Tacoma Commercial club, entitled "The Mountan That Was God," being an illustrated description of Mt. Ranier, which Tacoma people are pleased to call "Mt. Tacoma."

Word was received by Captain Briggs this morning that either his son, Harry Briggs, or stepson, Henry Mack, had been killed in Portland, and he and Mrs. Briggs went to that city on the noon train. Telegraphic inquiry by the Guard of its correspondent there elicited the reply that no one by either name had been killed as far as known.

Stage passengers out this morning were the following: G. Rein, Walterville; John McClain, Blue River; Mrs. Myers, Walterville; Mrs. O. Helier, Cedar Flat; Grace Goodman, Miss Sutton and C. Hanna, Mapleton; Tracey Lyons, Lyons' Ranch.

Portland men registering at local hotels are writing this beside their names: "Portland beats Seattle by 20,000," a report having been received in Portland from Washington, D. C., to the effect that Portland's population is 223,000 and Seattle's only 203,000.

Rev. W. C. Taylor, a graduate of the University of Oregon, '84, now of Petersburg, Va., is visiting his old friends in Eugene and will preach at the Baptist church tomorrow. It has been many years since he has seen Eugene, and he was much surprised by the changes that have taken place.

A party of people from Snohomish, Wash., who passed through Eugene a few days ago on their way to Southern Oregon, stopped in the city last night on their way home, leaving this morning. They went as far south as Grants Pass and report an enjoyable trip.

J. W. Morrison, a capitalist of New York City, is in Eugene looking up some land investments and looking especially for a winter home here. He says that if he can find the right place he will locate here during the winter. He is touring the coast and made a point of stopping off at Eugene, having heard of it before he left home.

Jack Littell, who has been employed at the Roberts Bros. toggery for the past two years, has resigned and will engage in the furniture business with E. E. Morrison at Springfield, he having purchased the Z. T. Kintzley stock. They will occupy the new Rivett block. Mr. Morrison has already built up a fine business.

The work of grading the streets running through the Hendricks and Lizzie Luckey additions, which lie on the north slope of College Hill, was begun yesterday. The streets will be covered with crushed rock and cement walks will be put in, besides gas and water mains will be installed before the lots are placed on the market.

The Mexican automobile that passed through Eugene a few days ago on the way to Portland, mentioned in The Guard, stopped a few minutes in Eugene today on the return trip. The bad luck seems to continue, for between here and Portland two springs were broken, and innumerable blow-outs and punctures were experienced.

The remains of W. T. Kayser, who died at Cottage Grove yesterday, will be brought to Eugene on the noon local Sunday for interment in the Oak Hill cemetery west of the city. The Masons will hold a short service at Cottage Grove and escort the remains to the depot, and after their arrival in Eugene the Masons here will accompany them to the cemetery.

A. F. and A. M.

There will be a special meeting of Eugene lodge No. 11 at 11 o'clock a. m. Sunday morning at the temple to conduct the funeral of our late brother, W. T. Kayser. All Masons are requested to be present. By order of W. M.
