

SOCIETY

The advisory board of the Y. W. C. A. of the University gave a reception on Tuesday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. P. L. Campbell, on East 13th street, in honor of Mrs. Edwin Brown, the new resident secretary of that association. The rooms of the home were prettily decorated with autumn leaves, roses, and other cut flowers. The guests were greeted at the door by Miss Edith Woodcock and introduced to the receiving line, which included Mrs. W. P. Boynton, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Archie Livermore, Mrs. A. R. Sweetser and Mrs. P. L. Campbell. In the dining room at tete-a-tete tables dainty ices and wafers were served by Miss Mildred Bagley, Miss Ruth Merrick, Miss Lida Garrett and Miss Esther U'Ren.

On Tuesday afternoon in the church parlors, the Missionary Society of the Central Presbyterian church held a very interesting meeting at which time Miss Hatch of Portland, the secretary of the Pacific Board of Missionaries, gave a most excellent discourse on her work. At the conclusion of the talk a social hour followed during which light refreshments were passed by the joint hostesses who were Mrs. T. O. Williams, Mrs. Smart, and Mrs. Calvin Hanna.

Last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Chambers, a farewell reception was given Rev. and Mrs. D. H. Trimble, who leave in a few days for their new home in Portland. The beautiful Chambers home presented a most inviting appearance with its floral decorations and autumn leaves. In the living room were sweet peas, in the hall were purple asters, while in the dining room, in the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. John Bovard, and Rev. and Mrs. D. H. Trimble. During the evening refreshments were served by Miss Cleome Carroll, Miss Jeanette Calkins and Miss Dorothy Dunn. Mr. and Mrs. Trimble, who for the past four years have made their home in Eugene, will be greatly missed by Calkins and Miss Dorothy Dunn. Mr. and Mrs. Trimble, who for the past four years have made their home in Eugene, will be greatly missed by their many friends, but their best wishes go with them to their home at Portland, where Mr. Trimble will take up his work as pastor of Centenary church.

Miss Florence DeBar was the accomplished guest at a delightful afternoon given by Dr. Stewart, Miss Perkins and Miss Morgan last Monday. Dr. Stewart's home on the corner of East 13th and A street, which was the scene of the gathering was most attractively decorated with hearts, sweetbriar and wild clematis. At a needle threading contest Miss Winifred Cockerline won honors. Another pleasing feature of the afternoon's entertainment was the dressing up of clotheplins to form the bridal party, the prize being awarded to Mrs. Sweetser for the best bride. At an appointed time as Miss DeBar entered the dining room and to her complete surprise, she was showered with a number of beautiful and dainty hand-made handkerchiefs, which fell from a wedding bell made of smilex and white sweet peas, which was hung in the door way. In the dining room Miss Stewart presided at the coffee urn, while the hostesses passed delicious refreshments. Those present were Mrs. Geo. O. B. DeBar, Miss Florence DeBar, Miss Stewart, Mrs. A. R. Sweetser, Mrs. H. D. Sheldon, Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Mrs. F. G. Young, Mrs. Orin Stafford, Mrs. Minnie Washburn, Mrs. R. C. Clark, Mrs. John Bovard, Mrs. Watson, Miss Burgess, Miss Winifred Cockerline, Miss Norma Hendricks, Miss Mildred Waite, Miss Barbara Eakin, (Astoria). Several receptions have been given this week in honor of the University and High school students. On Tuesday evening the Young People's Society of the Baptist church tendered a reception in the church parlors for the students. It was largely attended and most enjoyable. Last evening the Y. M. C. A. of the University received in the new gymnasium. It was beautifully decorated with autumn leaves and Japanese lanterns. During the evening several musical numbers were rendered. The High school also gave a reception in honor of the Freshmen and new students last evening. The halls of the building were attractive with college pennants, and cozy corners. In one of the adjoining rooms light refreshments were dispensed.

This afternoon Misses Vivian and Inez Simms entertained the local Chi Omega girls in honor of Mrs. Straub, a member of that fraternity at North-western. A most enjoyable afternoon was spent by the following guests: Mrs. Ray Goodrich, Mrs. P. E. Snodgrass, Mrs. Paul Willoughby, Mrs. H. D. Sheldon, Miss Grace Magdary, Miss Lucia Wilkins, Miss Pauline Davis, Miss Ray Woodruff, Miss Helen Washburn, Miss Juliet Cross, Miss Ernel Miller, Miss Ruth Merrick, Miss Florence Bonnell, Miss Nellie Hemenway, Miss Cecil Miller, Miss Esther Mogley, Miss Sybil Brown, Miss Grace Cole, Miss Wilma Young, Miss Fanny Gregory, Miss Rose Basler, Miss Dorris Plumer and Miss Lucile Davis.

Miss Mabel Kuykendall was the gracious hostess to the Tete-a-Tete club at her home on South William street this afternoon. A pleasant time was spent with needlework and conversation, followed by delicious refreshments, served by Mrs. Kuykendall. Miss Evans, (Calif.) was the guest of the club.

Mrs. E. L. Fisher gave a children's party this afternoon for her two little daughters, Doreen and Lorraine, in honor of their eighth and fifth birthdays. The little folks spent a happy afternoon with juvenile games and music. At five o'clock they were invited to Mrs. Preston's home for supper. The table was beautifully decorated with pink and white flowers, at each end of the table was a bird's nest cake with candles which also carried out the pink and white idea. The children present were Celest Campbell, Betty Eaton, Martha Eaton, Helen Cherry, Irene Cherry, Louise Cherry, Mildred McAllister, Lila McMurphy, Maida Gross, George McMurphy, Claire Payne, Harold Skipworth, Calvin Yoran, Wade Hampton, Dewey Walker, Homer

Mrs. David Link entertained the Sunshine Club in her usual hospitable manner on Friday afternoon at her home on East Tenth street. As it was the first meeting of the Sunshine this season, an unusually pleasant afternoon was passed by the ladies. It was their annual election of officers. Mrs. Laura Harris was elected president and Mrs. Calkins secretary and treasurer. Mrs. Link's home was pretty with cut flowers and autumn leaves. On the luncheon table was a centerpiece of carnations and ferns. Mrs. Link served a most delicious and dainty menu. The guests of the club were Mrs. Link, Mrs. Chas. Fisher, Mrs. E. E. Evans, Mrs. Laura Harris, Mrs. Wm. Kuykendall, Mrs. Wm. Preston, Mrs. A. T. Cockerline, Mrs. W. W. Calkins, Mrs. D. A. Palmer and Mrs. J. M. Shelley.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. A. L. Peters was hostess to the Priscilla club, which was the first meeting of the club this season. An unusually pleasant afternoon was spent with needlework and conversation. Mrs. Peter was hostess to the Priscilla luncheon by Mrs. Archie Winkley. The decorations in the dining room were purple asters and in the living room a profusion of salvia. The guests of the club were Mrs. E. L. Fisher, Mrs. Chas. Watts, Mrs. H. L. Studley, Mrs. Paul Willoughby, Mrs. Archie Winkley, and Mrs. E. L. Payne. Mrs. M. F. Griggs will be the next hostess to the club.

The Thimble Club held a delightful meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Hampton on West Seventh street Thursday afternoon. Several hours were all too quickly spent by the members chatting over their embroidery hoops. In the parlor and living rooms, roses and other cut flowers formed the decorations, while in the dining room were sweet peas. The guests of the club were Mrs. J. W. Working, Mrs. E. E. Mink, Mrs. Jerry Horn and Miss Evans, (San Jose, Calif.) Miss Eda Humphrey assisted the hostess in serving. The club meets again in two weeks with Mrs. David Linn on West Eighth street.

On Wednesday evening at their chapter house on the corner of Thirteenth and Mill streets, the Chi Omega fraternity held their pledge service at which time the following young ladies received the pledge pins: Miss Williamina Young, Miss Fanny Gregory, Miss Rose Basler, Miss Dorris Plumer, Miss Lucile Davis and Miss Grace Cole. Previous to the service a most appetizing dinner was enjoyed by the Chi Omegas.

The Euterpean Society, which has become an assurance in Eugene, has gained so rapidly in membership that now nearly one hundred men and women are enrolled. The movement, which is national in its scope, is unique in making a strict correlation of the three arts, painting, poetry and music; for example, the program to be given here very soon, and for which a large number of invitations will be issued within a few days, will be devoted to the scheme of peasant life, and will embrace studies in Millet, Robert Burns and Edward Grieg.

The Aid Society of the Methodist church met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Baker. This was the first meeting in the new conference year and the society was divided into two sides with Mrs. Frank Chambers and Mrs. Fred Foster as leaders, for the purpose of increasing their membership and raising money to carry on the year's work. After the business session and social hour, refreshments were passed by the hostesses, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Peter and Mrs. Theodore Miller.

The Thursday Afternoon Sewing Club met this week with Mrs. C. A. Burden on West Seventh street. The invited guests were Mrs. Frank Toppling from San Francisco and Mrs. F. E. Harris from Los Angeles. Miss Norma Hendricks assisted Mrs. Burden in serving. Mrs. R. S. Smith entertained the club next Wednesday, at the home of her guest, Mrs. Zumwalt of Klamath Falls.

Invitations have been issued to the wedding of Miss Florence DeBar and Harvey Stackpole of Ketchikan, Alaska. The wedding will take place next Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. O. B. DeBar on East Eleventh street.

The Aloha Club met on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. M. J. Duryea at her home on Hill Crest. Whilst afforded a pleasant afternoon, after which Mrs. Duryea was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Denel, in serving refreshments to the club members and guests, Mrs. Geo. McMorran, and Mrs. C. S. Dillon.

The ladies of St. Mary's Guild met Monday afternoon with Mrs. C. S. Dillon at her 6th street home. The usual sewing bee for the November bazaar characterized the meeting.

A very pretty wedding occurred at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Humphrey, at Jasper, Wednesday evening, September 28, at 8 o'clock. Mr. Webster Walsh and Miss Florence Humphrey took their place beneath an arch and were united in marriage by Rev. J. S. McCullum of Eugene. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion. After the ceremony the bride and groom led the way to the dining room, where a beautiful repast was served. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Humphrey and one of Jasper's most beautiful and highly accomplished young ladies. The groom is also one of Jasper's most popular young men. They received many useful and valuable presents. Those present at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Humphrey, Mr. and Mrs. Brunette, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Thompson and children, Mrs. Harvey Eaton, Mrs. Parsley and Mrs. Nora and Mollie Wallace, Cora Walker, Maggie Jacoby, Messrs. John and Ross Humphrey, Lester, John and Gainer Jacoby, Maurice Hiltz, John Walsh and Arlo Jones. They will be at home to their many friends at Mr. Walsh's farm near Jasper.

On Wednesday afternoon the W. R. C. needle club was acceptably entertained by Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Phetoplace at the home of the latter at 852 Columbia avenue. Twenty-six ladies were present. A welcome and "at home" spirit greeted each one and some work was furnished by President Leash, and needles and tongues flew at one accord. The eldest hostess was attired in her wedding dress of 1858, a quaint little apron and other decorations of long ago, affording merriment for the busy workers, and helped to shorten the hours of the occasion. The guests of honor were: Mesdames Rouse, Moffatt, McGill and Fisher. The rooms were decorated with asters, roses, ferns and evergreen. A short business session for plans and good of the club opened by the report of Secretary Mummy of last meeting, full of wit and humor, and which was loudly applauded and approved. Refreshments were served at the table by the hostess, and they were appreciated. Tea and coffee, served in old china cups of 1835. Thus ended a pleasant, old fashioned afternoon.

FADS AND FASHIONS

Guard Special Service. New York, Sept. 28.—The idea of veiling soft, lustrous fabrics, with even softer and sheerer fabrics continues to be one of the dominant notes of fashion. While leaders of fashion are divided regarding the proper length of the waist line and the status of sleeves is unsettled, the principal features of the new season's modes are fixed and one can go ahead and select from the avalanche of novelties that will continue to pour in upon us until it is time to ring in changes for a new season. To make a tour of the fashionable shops is to wind up the little excursion in a mere undecided frame of mind than ever. No one but an expert at self-control or a woman with a small dress allowance can see all the beau-

(Continued on page 12)

BROADWAY'S NEWEST SONG HITS

LYDA

WON'T YOU STOP YOUR FOOLIN'

Sung by STELLA MAYHEW with
"THE JOLLY BACHELORS"

Words and Music by BERT POTTER

Moderato.

1. A charm-ing lit-tle South-ern maid... Of just the pre-per col-ored shade... A -
2. This pret-ty lit-tle Oc-to-roun... She nev-er could make love or spoon... And mf a tempo.

fool-in' all the live-long day... With noth-ing else to do but ev-ry time her sweet-heart came... She'd al-ways tease him just the play... For sweet-hearts she had on-ly one... And Her But on a pleas-ant sum-mer day...

with him she had lots of fun... She'd plague him in her regu-lar sweet-heart said he'd go a-way... She told him she was all to way... And tease him just to hear him say... blat... And he'd nev-er have to say a gain...

CHORUS.

Ly-da won't you stop your fool-in', Lis-ten babe to what I say...

'Cause you ain't got an-y school-is', That's what makes you act that way...

Can't you see I'm get-ting ner-voous, Stop your tan-ta-liz-in' me...

Ly-da won't you stop your fool-in' And go a-way and let me be...

Copyright, MCMV, by WALTER JACOBS
International Copyright Secured

Used by permission, MURRAY MUSIC CO., New York

No. 227.

Lyda.

No. 227.