NO MORE GRAY HAIR

It is easier to preserve the color of the hair than to restore it, although it is possible to do both. Our grandmothers understood the secret. They made and used a "sage tea," and their dark, glossy hair long after middle life was due to this fact. Our mothers have gray hairs because they are fifty, but they are beginning to appreciate the wisdom of our grandmothers in using "sage tea" for their hair, and are fast following suit. The present generation has the advantage of the past in that it can get a ready to use preparation called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. As a scalp tonic and color restorer, this preparation is vastly superior to the ordinary "sage tea" made by our grandmothers, and it can be bought for 50 cents and $1 a bottle at almost any first-class drug store, or will be sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

For sale and recommended by the Bowers Drug Co., Inc.

AMUSEMENTS

A Good Comedy.
Unusual interest is being shown by the theatre-goers in the coming attraction at the Eugene Theatre, Saturday, October 22, when Messrs J. G. Harper and Glenn Carper will present the dashing, refined and very successful comedy play, "Is Marriage a Failure." A company of unusual excellence appears in this comedy headed by the popular comedian, Joseph Detrick. This play is a splendid vehicle for Mr. Detrick to bring out his best talent in the comedy line, and his performance of the leading role, is said to be the best he has ever given. Each character is strong and very humorous. The story is well written and thoroughly enjoyable. It abounds in funny situations and humorous scenes relating to the trials and tribulations of a husband who has a jealous wife, giving scope for excellent work in the comedy line. The atmosphere, sentiment, and humor, are strictly American and it has been styled by many as the best American comedy. The management has mounted the play with appropriate scenery and accessories and the wardrobe is very handsome and correct.

"The City."
One of the most important theatrical events of the season in this city will be the appearance of "The City," the posthumous work of the late Clyde Fitch, which an exceptional company of players will present at the Eugene Theatre on Tuesday, October 25. It is a stirring, powerful drama of country and city life, showing the effects of environment on an ambitious, somewhat unprincipled family from a small town, who move to the great city. A degenerate blackmailing son is one of the chief characters. In the cast are Norman Hackett, Geoffrey C. Stein, Josephine Florence Shepherd, Ethel Martin, M. H. Harriman and other capable players.

The fire department had quite a run recently, in that some one saw the burning wood display at Linn's Drug Store and thought it had better be "put out." They'll be out unless you put yourself out and go to Linn's and get burnt wood yourself. Now.

SPORTS

PORTLAND WILL SHOW APPRECIATION OF BASEBALL TEAM

Portland, Oct. 21.—Portland citizens, baseball fans, Commercial club and all are lined up in the movement to give the baseball team a big benefit at the windup of the season. It is thought that at least $5000 can be realized and divided among the Beavers.

Portland feels that it has had the worst of it in official decisions throughout the season, particularly in the recent hotting ruling, but in spite of these handicaps, loyal fans believe the home team will yet bring home the pennant. The benefit will get all the more loyal support because it is the common belief that the Beavers have played under the handicap of official prejudice and have lost out in pinch decisions.

Business men of the city, no less than the more rabid fans, are square behind the movement.

Fans declare they will show the Beaver players that they appreciate their winning the 1910 pennant, whether President Graham withholds it on account of the Helling case or not.

INTERFRAT BASKETBALL LEAGUE TO ORGANIZE
Basketball practice will begin next week, and all aspirants for Varsity honors will be given an even chance, according to a statement from Bill Hayward. The hour will be from four to five on week days.

and later, when the squad is picked, evening practice will begin.

Beside the regular interclass games, it is Mr. Hayward's intention to hold an interclub and interfraternity tournament. The idea, as yet, is in its infancy, but if enough teams enter, and sufficient skill is developed, a trophy will be put up for the winner. Regular hours will be assigned to the different teams to avoid conflicts in practicing.

There appear to be enough basketball men in college to make a success of such a league, but interest in the indoor game evidently has waned since members of the Varsity basketball team were denied "O's."

O. A. C. PRACTICING FOOTBALL IN SECRET

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Oct. 20.—For the first time this season the spectators at football practice were driven from the field yesterday as the team tried new formations on the scrubs and ran through signals behind closed gates. Every person not directly connected with the football squad was requested to leave the grounds and a strict watch was kept on the entrances.

CLARENCE DARROW COMING
Hon. Clarence Darrow, the internationally famous lawyer and orator, will speak in this city Friday evening, October 21st, at 8 p. m., in the opera house, on "The Liberties of Men and the Fallacies and Wrongs of Prohibition."

No attorney is better known to the laboring men of the United States than Mr. Darrow. His life has been devoted to the study of social and industrial conditions of the wage earners, particularly, and the human family generally.

Mr. Darrow is urging and supporting the passage of initiative bill 328, which will give to every city and town the power to license, regulate, control or suppress or prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors within the municipality, and which also embodies the present local option law.

Every prohibitionist and church member should hear Mr. Darrow. Admission free, and everybody welcome. (Paid Adv.)

You will not make a mistake in hearing Hon. Clarence Darrow on Home Rule in Oregon at the Eugene Theatre, Friday evening, October 21. He does not only speak to people who think as he does, but to prohibitionists, local optionists, etc., and would be glad to have all attend. The argument is really worth hearing. (Paid Adv.)

Cold Weather Advice.

to all is to beware of coughs and colds on the chest; as neglected they readily lead to pneumonia, consumption or other pulmonary troubles. Just as soon as the cough appears treat it with Ballard's Horehound Syrup the standard cure of America. Use as directed—perfectly harmless. A cure and preventative for all diseases of the lungs. Price 25c, 50c, and $1.00 per bottle. Dillon Drug Co.
