AN UP-TO-DATE DRUGGIST

It is surprising how many old-fashioned remedies are being used, which go to show that it is hard to improve some of our grandmothers' old, time-tried remedies. For instance, for keeping the hair dark, soft and glossy, nothing equaling our grandmothers' "sage tea" has ever been discovered. Although, by the addition of sulphur and other ingredients, this old-fashioned brew has been made more effective as a scalp tonic and color restorer. Nowadays when our hair comes out or gets faded or gray, instead of going to the garden or parrot for herbs and making the "tea" ourselves, we simply go to the nearest drug store and ask for a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. This preparation is sold by all leading druggists for 50 cents and $1 a bottle, or direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortland St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

For sale and recommended by the Bowers Drug Co., Inc.

FLORNCIE HOLDS A TOWN ELECTION

A special election was held in Florence last Monday to take a vote on amending the charter. Though not much interest was apparent in the matter (the day or two before election, quite a large vote was cast. O. B. Morrison, A. E. Pichler, and William Morris were judges of the election, with Claude Yates and Arthur Tins as clerks. In all 51 votes were cast, of which 12 were in favor of the amendment and 39 against it.

The total loss, including the goods destroyed, those damaged in moving and the loss to business was estimated at $862.50, leaving him still out $142.50.

The same day Mr. Smith received a check for $300 as a present from an uncle in Wisconsin.

Florence and Vicinity

Some of our people think they saw a balloon or air ship pass over near Florence last Friday shortly after noon. It seemed to be lowering some and moving in a northerly direction. On account of its great height and being so far away they could not tell much about it or the passengers. It is not often that a hunter is caught by his own trap, but that is what happened to John T. Stearns, of Mapleton, a few days ago. He was setting a trap for a bear when it sprung and caught him by the fingers. John has trapped a good many bear but this is the first time he ever caught himself.

Marion Morris a few days ago resigned his position as engineer on the steamer Hazel, which he had held for over three years, and has accepted a position in Kyle & Son's store. Marion says he wants to get acquainted with his family again.

The schooner Hugh Hogan was towed out to sea Wednesday morning and set her sails for a voyage to San Francisco. The vessel carried a cargo of lumber from the mill at Florence.

The heavy rains last week brought about 3,400,000 feet of logs from the upper river and tributaries down to tide water, where the logs are now safely stored in the booms.

The foundation has been laid by Frank Knowles for a new building on the site of the old Carman store that was destroyed by fire last month. Miss Alice M. Beebe has resigned her position as teacher at Heeeta and her leaves for home Saturday. Ill health was given as the reason for closing school.—Florence West.

AMUSEMENTS

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch"

The proverbial philosophy of that little feminine philosopher, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," who comes to the Eugene Theatre Tuesday, November 22, has become more famous and better known to the masses than even the "Proverbial Philosopher" which made Tupper famous. Here are a few of the sayings which playgoers hear and remember:

"I jes' do the best I ken when the good Lord put me at an' it looks like I got a happy feelin' in me most all the time."

"It looks like everything in the world comes right if we jes' wait long enough."

"I hold that it's wrong to keep everthing bottled up inside you. Yer feelin's like res'berry vinegar. If ye're akered to use 'em an' keep on savin' 'em, first thing you know they've done 'vaporated.'"

"I've made it a practice to put all my worries down in the bottom of my heart, an' then set on the lid an' smile."

"It's sinful to fua."

"Some folks goes right under when trouble comes, but I carry mine far an' easy."

"It ain't never no use puttin' up yer unbrill' till it rains."

"You never kin tell which way any pleasure is comin'. Wo ever would'er thought when we aimed at the cemetery we'd land up at a first-class fire."

"Some how I never feel like good things belongs to me."

"If you git knocked out of one plan, you want to git yourself another right quick, before yer spirits has a chance to fall."

"The way to git cheerful is to smile when you feel bad, to think about somebody else's headache when yer own is most bustin', to keep believin' the sun is a-shinin' when the clouds is thick enough to eat."

"No use to say livin' was like quillin'—you order less the pieces an' do away with the scraps."

"Mary Jane's Pa," as played by Max Figman, is a fascinating fellow and has made friends everywhere he has been seen this year. His first appearance was at the Garden Theatre, New York City, where he stayed six months and then went to Chicago for three. Manager John Cort heard he was going around without a guard and introduced him to Max Figman, who has made a lot of him, and who has a big company of players who are scoring the hit of his life. "Mary Jane's Pa" is a comedy and will be seen here with Mr. Figman in the title role, and have all the advantages of the original scenic production. The date will be Friday, November 25, at the Eugene Theatre.
