

Dillon's for drugs.
Tollman Studio for photos.
 A marriage license was issued this morning to Anson V. Thompson and Ellis E. Rust, both of Blachley.
 C. E. Cokerly is today moving his electrical goods to one of the rooms of the Banks block on Olive street.
 Half page ad in this paper for you to read. It will save you money. It is Kays Furniture Co., opposite the Suede hotel.
 J. F. Lyons and crew of nine men have completed their big job of painting all of the new Booth-Kelly buildings at Wendling.
 A marriage license was granted this afternoon to E. Earl Vincent, of Springfield, and Miss Rachael E. McLaughlin, of Fall Creek.
 The duck hunters all report good success on the preserve Sunday. The local markets are well supplied with the birds as a result.
 C. F. Merrill and Richard Ove each paid a $2 fine in the police court this morning for riding their bicycles on the sidewalks after dark.
 W. O. Heekart has his men at work arranging to begin the work of erecting the Northwestern Corporation's new block, for which he has the contract.
 L. L. Marsters, elevator conductor at the White Temple, has been called to Mill City, Linx county, by the serious illness of his father, Rev. Marsters.
 The local commission houses have quit buying turkeys for the Thanksgiving trade. They paid 23 cents a pound dressed, and 20 cents alive for the birds.
 W. M. Green, the grocer, began moving to his new location one door south of the old store this morning. He will have much more room in the new building.
 The women's missionary society of the Presbyterian church will hold its regular meeting tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The subject of Kora-va will be discussed.
 Judge E. O. Potter has sent to friends in New Jersey a box of Col. W. G. D. Mercer's excellent apples, together with a copy of the Colonel's "Apoptrophe to the Apple."
 Manager Spencer, of the Northwestern Corporation, is making an extended trip to Portland and to points in Washington, where the Blythe company is interested.
 The Men's club of the Unitarian church will meet Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, November 22, at the office of Holmquist & Nelson in the Merchants Bank building. All men are invited.
 F. T. Plank and Geo. Green have leased the room being vacated by W. M. Green's grocery store, and will

The Methodist aid society will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. E. Chambers at 127 West Sixth street. The members are requested to bring along articles for the Thanksgiving box.
 The crew of the Shasta Limited was in Eugene today to appear as witnesses in the case of Hazelton vs. the Southern Pacific company, but as the plaintiff failed to appear, the case was not brought to trial.
 Many of the Eugene lumbermen attended the lumbermen's banquet in Portland Friday evening. At the table were mill and timber men from all parts of the state and they ranked from superintendents to managers.
 Judge Frank M. Calkins, of Ashland, is in the city visiting his brothers, W. W. and S. M. Calkins, and sat on the bench with Judge Harris in the circuit court this afternoon. He was re-elected at the recent election.
 The following took the stakes out of Eugene this morning: George T. Hall, Sr., to McKennie Bridge; Mrs. Scott and Mr. Abbott to Crow; Miss Deene to a point eight miles west of the city on the Bluslaw road and Mrs. Cadby to Elmira.
 One of the hardest showers ever seen here fell about eight o'clock this morning. The catch basins on the streets were all clogged with the rubbish on the pavement and the street commissioner's force was kept busy clearing it out.
 John W. Hobbs, Cassius W. Ryehard and John M. Williams comprise the auditing committee that is going through the books of the county officials for their annual reporting. The county clerk's books are the first to be examined.
 H. E. Morris, the music dealer, aside from having the front of his store remodeled, will remodel the interior of the place, dividing it into several rooms for the accommodation of his patrons, for the purpose of trying out any instrument that they desire.
 There is a woodpile in front of the Nicklin & Holt grocery store at East Ninth and Oak streets, which no one claims and which has been there for a long time. Chief of Police Farrington has been trying to find out who owns it so that he can order it removed.
 Judge Harris, of the circuit court, Saturday granted a divorce to George W. Walker from his wife Anna Walker, on the ground of desertion. They were married at Windom, Minn., on June 29, 1891, and have three minor children, Boyd, aged 13, Bessie, aged 13, and Margaret, aged 15.
 Herbert F. Martin, of Foxcroft, Me., writes the promotion department of the Commercial club that he is desirous of coming to Oregon and thinks of making Eugene his home in the near future. He has a laundry that desires to establish a laundry and asks if there is an opening here.
 There was a total precipitation between 8 o'clock Sunday morning and

Take Hood's Pills
 Gas-heaving, coated tongue,
 Gas-heaving, coated tongue,
 8 o'clock this morning of 95 of an inch. There was a big storm nearly all of last night, but it was mostly wind, although there were some heavy showers. The river is at a height of 3.5 feet and rising slowly.
 The public school children of Eugene are gathering a large amount of donations to be sent to the Boys' and Girls' Aid society at Portland for Thanksgiving. These donations consist largely of preserved fruits and vegetables, but some money and clothing is contributed.
 Miss Jessie Moorhead has resigned her position as bookkeeper in the Farmers & Merchants bank, and will leave some time after Thanksgiving for Denver, Colorado, where she will spend the winter with her aunt, Mrs. J. A. Bishop. She is succeeded in the bank by Ralph Jackson—Junction City Times.
 J. W. Harringer, the house mover, has loaded up his moving outfit and shipped it to Eugene. We were misinformed when we stated that he had the contract for raising the Archard building. R. M. Mevius has the contract and will commence work as soon as he can care for some other work on hand.—Junction City Times.
 Miss Eunice Lattin, of Springfield, left on Saturday for Arco, Idaho, to reside. It will be remembered by her many friends that on Thanksgiving day she is to become the bride of Mr. Edwin Jones of Arco. The groom is not known here, but the bride has many friends who wish them much joy and happiness in life's long journey.
 A letter has been received in Eugene from Mrs. W. L. Souders, formerly of this city. She and her husband, who is a former Eugene merchant, are now living at Indianapolis, Ind. Mr. Souders traveling for a big eastern wholesale house. They are desirous of coming back to the coast again, and think they will in the spring, to engage in some kind of business.
 Dr. Rehban, recently of Brownsville, has decided to locate in Eugene and will soon open office rooms in the White Temple. He will use Dr. Bartle & Seale's waiting room and have his offices next door on the second floor of the building. Dr. Rehban was formerly physician for the Booth-Kelly Lumber company at Wendling and lately went east to take a post-graduate course.
 County Commissioners H. D. Edwards and H. M. Price inspected the county road leading south from the city limits on south Willamette street this afternoon with a view to its improvement. The street railway company left the road in bad shape after the College Hill loop was constructed and the farmers living south of the city have been complaining bitterly over the condition of the road.
 The repair outfit of the Warren Construction company has arrived here, and as soon as the weather settles some, the work of patching the pavement in various parts of the city will begin. It has been torn up in several places for gas and water mains. It is also probable that this outfit will repave the portions of Willamette and West Eleventh streets, where the pavement was torn up in the middle of the street for the College Hill loop of the street railway.
 It takes two cents postage to send The Guard's special edition through the mails. The postoffice clerks say that about half of them mailed since the edition was printed Saturday evening have only a one-cent stamp on the wrapper. This necessitates the sending of a notice to the addressee telling him that one cent postage is due and after he remits the stamp the paper is forwarded to him. To save all this bother, be sure and put on two cents hereafter.
 J. C. Mulligan, of Springfield, returned last evening from Portland, where he visited his son, Lawrence, who is in the Good Samaritan hospital recovering from a broken thigh. It is remembered that Lawrence broke his leg several weeks ago and before he was off his crutches he fell again, breaking his thigh. He is now resting comfortably, but it will be some time before he can be out and around again.
 W. E. Summer has sold his residence property near the Svarverud residence on Fairmount Heights to Robert D. Thompson, recently from Chicago, for $3250. Mr. Summer and family have moved to a residence near the car barns on East Thirtieth street. Mr. Thompson and family have recently arrived here and will make Eugene their permanent home. Garrett & Mitchell negotiated the sale of the property.

Thanksgiving Specials In All Departments This Week

The McMoaran & Washburne Store, 538-540 Will. St.

$12.50 BROADCLOTH CAPES, SPECIAL AT $9.00
$ 8.50 BROADCLOTH CAPES, SPECIAL AT $6.50
 40 Women's Broadcloth Capes, full lengths; come in black, blue, brown, green and red; military styles, high collar, cut with very full sweep; sizes 34 to 42; made of good quality broadcloth. These Capes are regular $8.50 and $12.50 values; now specially priced, while they last, at only $9.00 and $6.50

CHILDREN'S RUBBER RAIN CAPES, EACH, $2.19
WOMEN'S MOIRE RAIN COATS, SPECIAL AT $8.95
 Two great specials in the cloak and Suit Department—Children's Rubber Rain Coats, sizes 4 to 14, in dark slate, with colored stripe; and Women's Moire Rain Coats in blue, black, brown and gray, cut with full sweep collar; these are worth $3.00 and $15.00, but we have cut them to $2.19 and $8.95

$1.25 OUTING FLANNEL NIGHT GOWNS, EA., 94c
 Come in colors, stripes, checks, etc. and white, sizes 15 to 18, made of good heavy Outing Flannel; some have high V necks and some Dutch necks; spec. priced now at this low price 94c

FLEECE-LINED UNDERWEAR, IN ALL SIZES, 25c
$1.25 ALL-WOOL PANTS AND VESTS, EACH, 89c
 Special in the Underwear Section—Women's all-wool Cream Vests and Pants, in sizes 4 to 6; fine Swiss rib styles; and all neatly finished; these are exceptional values in garments. 98c

CHILDREN'S WOOL SWEATERS, 16 TO 26, AT 50c
WOMEN'S OUTING FLANNEL SHORT SKIRTS, 50c

ART DEPT. ROYAL SOCIETY EMBROIDERY
THREAD AND PACKAGE
GOODS; BIG VARIETY
 Pillow Tops, Table Runners, Centre Pieces, Stamped Goods, Carlson Currier Embroideries.
LINEN HUCK TOWELS,
 Special, the yd., 50c and 65c
ENGLISH MADE CAPES,
HID GLOVES, PR., $1.25
FINE H. S. KERCHIEFS,
 Great Values at 50c Per Dozen
H AND EMBROIDERED
HANDKERCHFS EA. 25c
 By express we have received during the last few days a large line of Holiday Neckwear in Lace, Embroidered and Persian Jabots, Stoles, Stocks, Dutch Collars, etc.; ea 10c to $3.00

Feature Pictures Make Up the Programs at

Photoplay Theatres

TODAY AND TUESDAY

Shell

- "ROBINSON CRUSOE," Daniel DeFoe's famous story dramatized.
- ILLUSTRATED SONG.
- "THROUGH THE RUINS OF CARTHAGE," A wonderful picture, giving valuable information of the ruins.
- "BEHIND THE SCENES OF CINEMA STAGE," a Comedy.

Aloha

- "THE MOONSHINER'S DAUGHTER," a fine drama, well acted.
- ILLUSTRATED SONG.
- "DOTS AND DASHES," one of the greatest pictures produced in motion pictures, with many exceptional conditions.

Bell

- "THE WHITE PRINCESS OF THE TRIBE"—A beautiful picture depicting wonderful scenes and of unusual interest.
- ILLUSTRATED SONG.
- "AN ASSISTED ELOPEMENT," one of those interesting dramas by the Thanhouser Company, with just enough comedy included to keep you grinning all the time.

If you miss these programs at the Aloha, Shell and Bell theatres you miss a treat. Admission, 5 Cents.

THE EUGENE Cloak and Suit House

Interesting news for women who are in need of a good Winter Suit, Coat or Dress at a low price. This offering consists of a splendid assortment of classy garments, with a touch of distinction.

$20.00 to $18.50 COATS, NOW $15.00
 $25.00 to $22.50 COATS, NOW $18.50
 $27.50 to $25.00 SUITS, NOW $18.50
 $35.00 to $30.00 SUITS, NOW $25.00
 SPECIAL VALUES IN DRESSES $10.00 to $12.50
 New Novelties in Neckwear and Belts just received.

Eugene Cloak and Suit House
 483 Willamette St. Register Block

FOLLY THEATRE
 (The Pride of Eugene)

 SELIG and VITAGRAPH today.
 ONE ON MAX, Comedy. Pathé.
 JENKS WANTS TO BE AN ACTOR, Comedy. Pathé.
 THE BACHELOR, Selig, comedy.
 THE LADY BARBERS, Selig, comedy.
 THE DIVER'S HONOR, Gaumont.
 HIGH SPEED HIKER, Gaumont.
 THE LAST SAXON, Vitagraph.
 Admission: Children, 5 cents; adults, 10 cents.

If You Want a Piano Try This

The Most Interesting Advertising Competition Ever Inaugurated in America

FREE! $4,500 in Prizes, including A FINE FREE! PIANO, CHEST OF SILVER, Etc. Etc.

FIRST PRIZE

One of our full-sized mahogany Upright Pianos

Second Prize---a $200 Purchasing Check and a Chest of Silver.

Third Prize---Elegant Kimball Parlor Organ, worth $125.00.

Then, in order of merit, Sixty Special Advertising Appropriation Cash Drafts, in value from $30 to $50.

There are Six Faces in This Picture--- Can You Find Four of Them?

DIRECTIONS—Trace out the lines of each face on this separate sheet of paper, and mark them, 1, 2, 3, etc. The three nearest correct answers will be given the three grand awards above mentioned and the others in the order named. Each contestant to abide by the rules. The decision of the judges to be final. In case of a tie, prizes of similar value to be given to each contestant. Professional artists and music trade employes barred. All answers must be mailed or brought in to us by Monday, December 5, 1910, at 4 p. m. Be sure your name and address is plainly written on your answer, and send to CONTEST MANAGER, P. O. Box 419, Eugene, Oregon.

EILERS MUSIC HOUSE, Chambers Block, 462 Willamette Street, HULL MUSIC CO. Eugene, Or

STATISTICAL BLANK
 Attach this coupon, or one similar, to your answer, writing plainly
 Name _____
 Street No _____
 Post Office _____
 If possible, give below the names and addresses of two or more of your friends who you believe might consider the purchase of a phonograph:
 Name _____ P. O. Address _____
 Name _____ P. O. Address _____
 Name _____ P. O. Address _____
 Also one or more who might consider the purchase of a Piano, Autophone or Organ.
 Name _____ P. O. Address _____
 Name _____ P. O. Address _____
 Name _____ P. O. Address _____