

UNIONISTS MAKE IMPORTANT GAINS

John Redmond, Irish Leader,
Defeated by O'Brien
in Cork

London, Dec. 7.—The standing of the parties at the close of today's polling was:

Government coalition: Liberals, 123; Irish Nationalists, 38; Laborites, 23; total, 184.
Opposition: Unionists, 170.
The Unionists secured six gains in today's pollings, the results of which were announced tonight, and suffered a loss of only two seats. They thus returned to the position held before yesterday's voting. The Unionist total gains for the four days are 18, the Liberal gains 11, and the Labor four. Among the Nationalists the O'Brienites hold five seats.

Cardiff Victory Noteworthy
The most notable Unionist victory was in Cardiff, which has gone Unionist only once in a quarter of a century. This victory was largely due to the personal popularity of Lord Crichton-Stuart, who overcame a Liberal majority of 155, winning by 299, and the withdrawal from poll of the old member, D. A. Thomas, who was replaced in the Liberal interest by Sir C. Hyde.

There was even greater surprise, however, in the capture of Plymouth by Waldorf-Astor and A. Shirley Benn. John Burns' old opponent in Battersea, who took M. Durand's place as the running mate of the young Anglo-American. They proved a good team, and the work that Mr. Astor had done in the constituency was shown in his success in replacing C. E. Mallett, financial secretary to the war office, who is the first minister to be defeated.

Among those returned today, the most interesting candidates were Arthur Hamilton Lee, who was the British military attaché in the United States army during the Spanish war and military attaché at Washington; Austin Chamberlain and John Swift MacNeill, who has sat for Donegal, South, since 1887.

O'Brien Wins in Cork
The success of William O'Brien in Cork, and the possibility of his further increasing his following complicates the situation. The Unionists are asking what the government will do if it has to face a stronger Unionist opposition, with a stronger fighting force of Irishmen on its flank.

The fighting between O'Brien and William Redmond, the strongest candidates of the respective factions of the Nationalist party to represent Cork City, resulted in a sweeping victory for the leader of the "All for Ireland League." Mr. O'Brien not only held the poll with a majority of 628, but takes with him 24,000 votes with a majority of 525 over Redmond. Sixty-four members were voted for today, but only 36 results were announced. Most of the other contests were in counties where the polling places are scattered, so that the outcome will not be known until tomorrow.

AN OLD SONG REJUVENATED.
I cannot wear the old hair—
I wore some months gone by
I've laid it on the topmost shelf
With many a weary sigh.
No longer are they wearing puffs
And rates are quite de trop;

I can not wear the old hair—
Oh, what a cruel blow!
I cannot wear the old hair,
For which good gold I paid.
Red hair is so expensive when
One gets the proper shade.
It felt dreadful when it was coiffed
All little puffs and curls;
But I can't wear the old hair,
Alas, for Fashion's whirl!

I can not wear the old hair—
Four switches I must buy
And wind them round and round my head
As flat as they will lie.
My face is far too plump for this;
My nose is much too long;
But I can't wear the old hair,
It's altogether wrong.

'VARSITY PLAYERS MAY BE BARRED

University of Washington, Seattle, Dec. 7.—Whether 'Varsity players who entered professional baseball last summer will be allowed, under the conference rules, to return to the University of Washington team next year will be decided this week by the student body.

As the rule stands, players who enter professional baseball for pay are barred from inter-collegiate games, but heretofore the rule has not been enforced strictly.

This year the rule will affect Washington's last year's captain, "Jimmy" Clarke, of Chehalis, who was one of the figures in the Northwest League. Clarke played with "Bob" Brown's Beavers of Vancouver, making a decided hit. This year Clarke does not expect to play with the 'Varsity and his work in the box will be greatly missed, as to him much of Washington's success was due. Clarke expects to play with Vancouver.

Others of the Washington team have signified their intention to enter the professional game, so Washington's chances this year for baseball are not bright.

SOUR STOMACH

"I used Cascarets and feel like a new man. I have been a sufferer from dyspepsia and sour stomach for the last two years. I have been taking medicine and other drugs, but could find no relief only for a short time. I will recommend Cascarets to my friends as the only thing for indigestion and sour stomach and to keep the bowels in good condition. They are very nice to eat."

WONDERFUL REMEDY
That's What is Said of Stomach Prescription Guaranteed by the Red Cross Drug Co.

Stephen Waite, of Lansing, Mich., writes: "For over three years I suffered much pain and annoyance from stomach trouble. I had no help from my digestive organs apparently, and my food would stay in my stomach and ferment, causing gas; there was also a dizzy headache. I doctored and used every remedy that I heard of, but it remained for M-I-O-N-A to cure me entirely. Before I had used three boxes my appetite and digestive organs became all right. It is a wonderful remedy."

M-I-O-N-A stomach tablets are small and easy to swallow. They stop the most painful stomach distress in five minutes. They drive out soreness and gas and make the stomach clean and sweet.

They are sold by the Red Cross Drug Co. under a positive guarantee to cure any case of indigestion, or money back. They put vigor and vitality into people run down by indigestion. Sold by the Red Cross Drug Co. and the leading druggists everywhere for 50 cents a large box.

Delicately Formed

and gently reared, women will find in all the seasons of their lives, as maidens, wives and mothers, that the one simple, wholesome laxative remedy, which acts gently and pleasantly and naturally and which may be taken at any time, when the system needs a laxative, with perfect safety and really beneficial effects, is Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

It has that true delicacy of flavor which is so refreshing to the taste, that warning and grateful to the stomach which responds so favorably to its action and the laxative effect which is so beneficial to the system when, occasionally, its gentle cleansing is required.

The genuine, always bearing the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., may be purchased from all leading druggists in original packages of one size only, price fifty cents per bottle.
