TOMORROW WILL BE YOUR LAST CHANCE TO BUY FINE FURS HERE AT ABOUT 1-2 PRICE

Tomorrow will end the greatest Fur Sale ever held in Eugene, and we are safe in saying that never again will you have a like opportunity of buying real furs at such low prices. We still have about 150 Muffs and Neckpieces, in Mink, Fox, Lynx, Beaver, Squirrel, etc., sold in sets or separate, and the saving to you is one-third to one-half. Tomorrow night we pack what is left and ship them East. How did we get these furs? There was not a fur house in the country this year that was not overlaid with furs; and this manufacturer was mighty glad to send us a consignment, and we are going to make him happy by returning very few. Secure one before tomorrow night by paying a deposit.

Miss Esther Hansen was taken to the Eugene hospital this morning. She is very ill.

Another army recruiting station has been opened in the Cockerline & Wetherbee block.

L. M. Travis has sued L. A. Barbra in the circuit court to recover $24.69 with interest at 5 per cent from October 25, 1909.

William E. Wilcox has bought a 22-acre tract of land from Wm. Lilwall for $1200 and he will raise poultry there. Melvin Hansen made the deal.

The old wooden sidewalk that extends along the Seventh street side of the Episcopal church property has been torn up preparatory to building a cement walk.

The jury in the case of H. Hartwig vs. Ben R. and I. H. Bingham, to recover $200 on a promissory note, returned a verdict in favor of the defendants this morning.

"The Burgomaster," the old-time favorite, was not greeted by a very large house at the Eugene theatre last night. The show was up to its usual standard, though.

R. Roe is opening a florist's shop in the room just vacated by the Golden Bros. as a paint shop on East Ninth street. Other florists of the city may join him later and conduct a union store.

The Greek priest did not arrive from Portland until last night, consequently the funeral of John Megalochis, the sawmill laborer who was killed at Weidling, was not held until this morning.

Materials with which to build the partition in the room occupied by the Lovers cafe, making another room which will be occupied by Vagladry & Shumate's real estate office, are being delivered.

Frank Pettorle has begun suit in the circuit court against the Utah Construction company, A. G. Sartoris and Peter Moroni for an accounting between the defendant partners, that the company be restrained from making a settlement for work on a railroad contract and for a restraining order preventing defendants from disposing of the partnership property or any part thereof. Thompson & Hardy are attorneys for the plaintiff.

R. B. Spencer has received word of the death of Mrs. D. B. Jenkins, formerly of Eugene, at Chadron, Neb. Mrs. Jenkins was the wife of Attorney Jenkins, who was at one time a law partner with I. N. Harbaugh.

Dr. Stough will hold the service tomorrow afternoon at the Fairmount Christian church at the corner of West Seventeenth street and Columbia avenue, instead of the Fairmount Presbyterian church, as has been announced.

The Southern Pacific company has announced that student holiday rates will be in effect beginning Friday, the sixteenth. The University closes Friday and practically all will leave on that date. During the Christmas vacation nearly all the students will leave.
