WILL BUILD LARGE NUMBER OF RESIDENCES IN NEW ADDITION
Vernon - McCroskey Company Will Erect Homes for Buyers of Lots in City Outlook

The Vernon-McCroskey Realty Co., with offices in the Cokerline & Wetherbee block on East Eighth street, who are handling the City Outlook tract just south of the city, adjoining the limits, also near the Massie cemetery, are disposing of a large number of lots in the tract, and are arranging to erect a number of bungalows for different purchasers. The firm has just contracted to erect residences for the following: Geo. A. Metzger, of Eugene, a five-room bungalow; W. G. Rossonette, of Beaumont, Texas, eight-room bungalow; and F. A. Kepl, of Spokane, a five-room bungalow. Another one has been contracted for and there are now on file with the company eight more applications. The work of erecting these residences will begin as soon as possible. Little will be done this winter on account of the wet weather, but as soon as the good weather begins in the spring there will be great activity in the building line in that addition. The company erects these houses for those who want them and they are paid for on the installment plan. No cheap structures are allowed on the tract, thus every lot purchaser is assured that no unsightly shack will be built next to his lot, lessening its value. In the spring the Vernon-McCroskey people intend to inaugurate a whitewash campaign for the sale of this property.

BABY FALLS FROM HIGH CHAIR; EYE GOUGED OUT

Freswater, Or., Dec. 29.—A most distressing accident occurred at Ferndale station three miles north of this city, when the little 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Haun, while rocking in his high chair, overbalanced himself and fell to the floor, striking his eye on the spout of the tea kettle. The spout literally gouged out one eye, the sight of which is utterly destroyed, and grave fears are felt for the child's recovery.

MARRIED

CUTICURA CURES STAY CURED

First Father is Cured of an Eruption that Burned and Itched Day and Night. Then Baby is Cured of a Distressing Rash.

Neighbors Pleased to Find a Sure Cure for Skin Afflictions.

"I suffered for eight years with what the doctors called the 'seven year itch.' This was like small red pimples such as form on the face but they burned and itched, day and night. These pimples were from my ankles up, but mostly on my thighs and arms. I tried doctor after doctor but their medicines brought no relief. But at last I struck the right treatment—this was Cuticura. I bought a set of the Cuticura Remedies—Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills—and a few applications brought relief. When I had used about half the set I was nearly cured and after using two full sets I was well and best of all, I have stayed cured."

"About four months ago, our baby began to be covered with a rash and his head with a spreading sore. Back of the ears, the flesh cracked open and the poor baby would scratch till he bled. He worried, cried and could not sleep. Then we bought a set of Cuticura and with a few applications the burning and itching ceased, baby stopped worrying and could sleep. When this single set had gone we had no use for any more as baby was never troubled with the disease again. The neighbors who saw the condition of the baby all asked what cured him and when we told them, they were surprised and pleased to find a sure cure for these skin afflictions. Edward H. Carter, 323 North 27th St., Camden, N. J., Mar. 6, 1910."

A single set of Cuticura Soap and Ointment is often sufficient, rendering it the most economical treatment for eruptions of the skin and scalp, used throughout the world. Puter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Price, 125 Broadway, N. Y., Boston, Mass. Registered Trade Name Cuticura. Book on Treatment of Skin and Scalp 25cents.

Eight months in Chicago, seven months in Boston and six months in New York is the record for "A Broken Idol" and has broken all records of successes. A musical play, full of surprises and popular bits of the whistling kind. At the Eugene theatre tomorrow night.

A good audience was present at the Commercial Club last evening and heard an exceedingly interesting and fascinating address by Mr. Loomis, illuminating engineer. This lecture will be repeated after the holidays for the benefit of the merchants who were unable to attend last night.

John R. Rotto, who was to have appeared here December 26th as one of the Buccol numbers, cannot come and in place will appear Montaville Flowers, a reader of Shakespeare and Dickens. His date will be March 20th. Judge Ben Lindsay will be the next attraction, his date being January 11th.

The University of Oregon correspondent of the Portland Journal writes of a typhoid epidemic in Eugene. No such thing exists and the correspondent should be called to account for the statement. There are perhaps half a dozen cases of typhoid in the city, but there is no semblance of an epidemic.

F. A. Taylor, of Veneta, Wash., has bought from Melvin Hansen a four-acre tract on the river road, and will build a home there. This is the last piece of the Ziegler farm, which Mr. Hansen divided and sold into small tracts. Fifteen different families have located on the tract since it was placed on the market.

With the end of the city case in the circuit court, Judge Harris has dismissed this term, and all remaining cases will be continued until the March term. Among these cases are the ones in which the street railway company and the property owners who subscribed to the bonus for the College Hill loop are concerned.

J. L. Lambirth, who has resigned his position with the Oregon Power company, says he will remain in Eugene and make this his permanent home. He has several business propositions in view, but has not decided which one he will take up. He made good as manager of the electric and gas plants before they were sold to the present company and will doubtless succeed at any business he enters.

The local civil service examining board announces examinations as follows: Research and editorial assistant in the bureau of labor, department of commerce and labor, January 20 and 21; statistical clerk in the bureau of labor, department of commerce and labor, January 18; export and special agent, bureau of labor, in the department of commerce and labor, January 18 and 19; scientist in soil chemistry, January 21.

The committee appointed by the Commercial Club Monday evening to arrange for the entertainment of the state legislators here on Commonwealth day at the University, report several voluntary cash subscriptions to the entertainment fund. The Portland, Eugene & Eastern Railway Company, through its local manager, Geo. D. O'Connor, has led off with a subscription of $25, and E. S. Rolfe has put his name down for $5.

By the first of next week, Manager Freeman, of the Commercial Club, will have completed indexing the names of 4000 actual inquirers, seeking information in regard to Eugene and Lane county, with a view to locating. More than a third of these, Manager Freeman says, have written more than once, thus showing that they are more than ordinarily interested and many may be counted as prospective residents. On Monday of this week fifty letters were received asking for information, and the average is 35 each day.

The police are looking for James Bennett, night cook at the lunch counter on West Eighth street with the big electric sign "Lunch" in front of it. He disappeared from the place early this morning and simultaneously some $22 in the till disappeared. It is not known whether he has left town or not. His clothes are still in his room and it appears that if he had intended to steal the money and leave town he would have taken his belongings.

The Eugene Bible Class Athletic association will hold a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. building tonight at 8 o'clock to talk over the situation with regard to indoor activities for the association this winter. Every man interested is invited to attend. Considering the success of last summer's baseball schedule, it is believed that either indoor baseball or basketball can be handled as well or better. It is hoped that a good representation from the different Sunday schools of the city will be present.

The case of E. F. McFie vs the city of Springfield, E. U. Lee, county clerk, H. F. Keeney, county assessor, and H. L. Bown county sheriff, to enjoin them from assessing his property for city taxes and from collecting the taxes, which was decided last June in favor of the city by Judge

Harris, of the circuit court, has taken appeal to the supreme court. His attorneys, Williams & Bean, having filed the notice of appeal yesterday afternoon. This is the case in which the validity of the election at Springfield in which a large amount of outlying territory, including McFie's land, was annexed to the city.

Mrs. Mary C. Porch yesterday afternoon filed a suit in the circuit court, through her attorney, R. S. Bryson, against her husband, James W. Porch, for a divorce and for her restoration of her maiden name, Mary C. Frederick. In her complaint she says they were married on Dec. 23, 1905, at Scott City, Kan., and immediately afterward her husband deserted her, she claims, telling her not to say anything about their marriage. Ever since then, she alleges, he has remained away from her and has never contributed to her support, and all of this without cause or provocation.

Tramps are reported to be very numerous in this part of the country right now and residents of Eugene living in the outskirts are annoyed greatly by them. A man was found on the porch of a residence in the western part of the city about 11 o'clock last night. When asked what he wanted he asked if there was any work he could do for something to eat, but it is more than probable that he was trying to steal something off the porch. Others report the theft of old overcoats and other articles from their porches. The "bos" seem to be working their way toward Portland, where there is always a better chance for them to live easily than in the rural districts, and in a city the size of Eugene.
