AN EASY AND HARMLESS WAY TO DARKEN THE HAIR.

Who does not know of the value of sage and sulphur for keeping the hair dark, soft, glossy and in good condition? As a matter of fact, sulphur is a natural element of hair, and a deficiency of it in the hair is held by many scalp specialists to be connected with loss of color and vitality of the hair. Unquestionably, there is no better remedy for hair and scalp troubles, especially premature grayness, than sage and sulphur, if properly prepared. The Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, put up an ideal preparation of this kind, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur. It is sold by all leading druggists for 60c and $1.00 a bottle, or is sent direct by the manufacturers upon receipt of price.

AMUSEMENTS

"A Broken Idol" that triple city success which will appear here Thursday night has been justly termed by press critics a musical farcicality of many surprises. Among the many surprises that created talk during its Chicago, New York and Boston successful runs was "The Balloon," "The Human Dragon," "The world's merry-go-round" and "the living rose bushes." William F. Mann, who submits this attraction, has succeeded in re-engaging nearly all of the original company as well as Gus Sohlke, who staged the original production, to stage it. The book was written by Hal Stephens, music and lyrics by Egbert Van Alstyne and Harry Williams, writers of more than a score of successful musical comedies. Scene one is laid in Chinatown, Los Angeles, during the Chinese New Year celebration; scene two at Silas Pugaley's home, Santa Monica, California. Mr. Sohlke has taken great care in selection of his chorus and it can be truthfully called an American Beauty Chorus. The book is bright and crisp, the music of the whistling kind and is being played on tour by such hands as Sousa and Creatore. It takes a big company of fifty to produce it and Manager Mann has spared no expenses to make it the leading comedy of the day.

SIMPLY A QUESTION OF VERACITY

Lillian A. Turnbull Blushes to Shame in Course of Examination

Los Angeles, Dec. 20.—More letters came out of the past today to confront Mrs. Lillian A. Turnbull, star witness in the "Lucky" Baldwin will contest, but with remarkable fortitude the ready wit and wariness that carried her safely over the cleverly set traps, the woman who is fighting for $2,500,000 as her daughter's share of the late turfman's estate, not only met the attacks of cross-examination but frequently fought back.

This morning Mrs. Turnbull faced an onslaught and was calm, although the questions hurled at her frequently made the other women in the court room blush and look down. This afternoon, when apparently by an agreement of counsel, the attorneys of the opposing side treated her with more consideration, she started to heckle them in return.

Gavin McNeB, in his cross-examination, continued his efforts to show the jury that Mrs. Turnbull had not been a spotless woman until she yielded to the blandishments of Lucky Baldwin, as she alleges. In one of the letters introduced occurred a passage describing an oath taken by Mrs. Turnbull regarding the paternity of Beatrice A. Turnbull, the plaintiff in the present case. As written, this passage declared Colonel Albert Pope to be the father of her child. Mrs. Turnbull declared the name of Pope was forged and what she did swear to was that Baldwin was the father.
