CHRISTMAS EXERCISES FRIDAY AND SUNDAY AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Cantata by Sunday School Friday Evening and Special Music on Sunday

The Christmas programs at the Central Presbyterian church will be unusually attractive this year. Beginning with Friday evening the Sunday school will render a beautiful cantata entitled, "Santa's Surprise Party." The reputation of this school for beautiful exercises will be fully lived up to and every one is welcome to come and enjoy the program.

On Sunday morning there will be a union Christmas program for the Sunday school and congregation, consisting of readings, appropriate songs by the school, music by the orchestra and choir and a brief Christmas message by the pastor. There will also be a public reception of members into the church. This service will begin at 10:45 with music by the orchestra. There will also be a service at 10 o'clock for those expecting to unite with the church on confession of faith.

The evening will be occupied largely with a program of Christmas music by the choir. The quartet composed of the Misses Daisy Gilbert, soprano; Ethel Rowland, alto; M. F. McClain, tenor, and Warren Rae, basso, under the direction of Miss Ethel Rowland, is sufficient announcement to guarantee the excellence of the program, which will include the following numbers:

- Organ voluntary.

- Choral anthem—"The First Christmas," by the Quartette and Chorus.
