JOHNSON PEEVED AT "DOPE" STORY

Chicago, Jan. 10.—Peeved at the stories that Jeffries was duped before the unpleasantness at Reno, Jack Johnson today offered to meet Jim in a return battle.

Barney Oldfield's statement that Jeffries is a good man as he ever was and that he was drugged when he entered the ring at Reno was repeated to Johnson. Jack was so angry that the golden snuff didn't show for fully five minutes.

"I'm tired of the dope story," he said. "If Oldfield thinks Jeffries is as good as he ever was let him get some club to hang up a suitable purse and then watch me. I'll sign the articles all right, and I will demand nothing unreasonable."

Johnson said he was entirely in earnest in waiting a return fight, and that he was ready to go after Jeff just to prove that the dope yarn was a fake.

McFARLAND WON FROM MCCARTHY

Kansas City, Jan. 10.—Packer McFarland, of Chicago, won the decision over Johnny McCarthy, of San Francisco, in a ten-round bout last night.

The Chicago boy, after leading by a wide margin in every round, left the ring unmarked. McCarthy's face was badly bruised. His nose bled freely in each round until the end of the battle.

McCarthy fought a game fight, but his blows were ineffective. He played for Packer's wind and knees in every round. McFarland's dazzling footwork caused the San Francisco man to miss at least a third of the blows he started. When McCarthy did land his punches did not seem to carry force.

GEORGUS DEFEATS LIONUS ON THE MAT

Last evening George Georgus demonstrated his ability as a wrestler when he downed Nick Lionus two successive times at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium.

Lionus challenged Georgus to a friendly bout to determine their relative superiority and was taken up. The match was lively and snappy, and both men showed good form.

The first fall was secured from a half Nelson toe hold. The second was three-quarters Nelson.

Quite a large number of spectators were present and enjoyed the affair hugely. The Monday night gym classes are always alive and full of interest. If more men would attend, there is no reason why the results should not be even more interesting.

SENDS FIVE CENTS

FOR SOAP HE STOLE

SOME MONTHS AGO

Portland, Jan. 10.—Conscience-stricken because he stole a bar of soap from the Northern Pacific Steamship company last summer, while bound from Los Angeles for Portland on the steamer Roanoke, Reinhardt Marten apologized profusely in a letter which the company received from him this morning. He also enclosed 5 cents as payment in full for the soap, which he took to assist in performing his ablutions.

The letter was written at Milwaukee, Wis. Since stealing the soap the writer says he has become a Christian. He explains that the thought of the theft has preyed on his mind of late to such an extent as to give him no peace.

ROSEBURG PLANS

TO OPEN SALOONS

Under Home Rule It Is Intended to Limit the Number of Drink Shops

Roseburg, Jan. 10.—The prohibition question is to be decided in Roseburg under the provisions of the home rule law. Petitions calling for an election were presented to the city council last night. If favorable action is taken immediately the election will be held early in February. During the past six years Roseburg has been legally dry, but not by the city's own vote. At the general election last November, the city cast a majority of 422 against the statewide prohibition movement, and it is predicted that in the home rule election it will vote wet by a margin fully as great. The petition laid before the council last night bore the signatures of nearly 600 citizens, or about one-half the number of voters in the municipality.

So little doubt exists as to the outcome of the election that plans for strict regulation of the local liquor traffic are already in process of formation. The indications are that saloons will be limited in number, with the proprietor of each under a surety bond, aside from an annual license of not less than $1000, payable in advance.
