CITY NEWS

Dillon's for drugs.

Tollman Studio for photos.

John Manto was fined $10 in the police court this morning on a drunk charge.

The flat wheels are being taken off the Springfield streetcar and replaced with good, true wheels.

Household goods have arrived here for Walter Lyons and family, who will reside in the city.

B. A. Ames and wife arrived in the city last evening with their six-week-old baby, who is lying at the point of death at the Hoffman House.

They brought it to Eugene for treatment by local physicians, but it seems to have been too late. Their home is at Wendling.

Word from Cottage Grove this morning brought the information that Gilbert Tyson is still improving.

W. L. Hite and family are moving to Lebanon to reside, their household goods having been shipped out today.

Ducks are said to be flying pretty well on the preserves. A number of the hunters went out today to spend Sunday there.

The river fell considerably last night and today and is back to the level of where it stood before the recent rains.

I. C. Smith has sold his farm south of town and will move to the city to reside. Mrs. Smith has brought property on College Hill and will soon erect a number of bungalows thereon to rent.

The work of laying the concrete blocks for The Guard's new press-room was completed today and the interior work will be rushed.

J. I. Jones, of Cottage Grove, today filed with the county clerk notice of location of the "Big Maud" mining claim in the Bohemia district.

Two carloads of material for the construction of the big gas tank arrived in Eugene this morning. Work on the structure will begin in a few days.

The High school boys will be addressed at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the boys' lobby by W. A. Soultis on "The Business Boy."

L. M. Wilkins, an employe at the

S. P. mills at Marcola, accidentally broke one of his arms yesterday and passed through Eugene on his way to Portland.

Snow covered the top of the Coburg hills again this morning. In the valley a heavy frost occurred last night, and it looked a little like snow this morning.

The Pollock Jewelry store has been conducting an opening during the last few days. Many have visited this neat little store and have found that the goods are up-to-date.

The third game of the inter-church indoor baseball series will be played tonight at the Y. M. C. A. between the teams of the Methodist and Baptist churches. These teams are considered rivals, and a good contest is expected.

There will be no evening service at the Presbyterian church tomorrow because of the sickness of the pastor, Rev. H. N. Mount. The morning service will be in charge of the ladies of the church, who will hold the annual missionary meeting.

Mrs. Sallee and two children, who have been in the city for the past two weeks, stopping at the Hoffman House, returned home to Crow today. One of the children was quite ill and they were here for the purpose of securing treatment.

The following took the stages out this morning: D. Steele, wife and son, to Deerhorn; J. C. Hooker, to Deerhorn; P. Gunstad, Mr. Breeding and Eugene Holland, to Crow; G. Gardner and Carl Oglesby to Mapleton; Hoffman and J. R. Williams to Elmira.

Martin Miller, the shoe man, will soon move his shop from the Schneider block on West Eighth street to the room to be vacated by the Hunter Electric company in the Matlock block on the same street, a little further toward Willamette street.

Work has been begun by the Oregon Power company for its sub-station at Albany, to connect with the power line coming from Springfield, soon to be working here. It would be welcome just now, while the water is high, and water-power stopped. Wood has to be used for a few days. —Albany Democrat.

J. B. Coe, of Portland, who is contemplating going into the book and stationery business in Eugene, has not leased the room in the Titus block now occupied by the Watts Jewelry company. He has paid one month's rent on it as an option, but has other locations in view, and is not decided as to where he will do business.

Another carload of machinery and fittings for the city filter plant passed through Huntington, Oregon, on the 18th inst. and is expected to arrive in Eugene tomorrow or next day. Work has been progressing slowly because this carload of material was needed before it could progress rapidly.

Miss Anna Young, of Springfield, who is employed as a stenographer in the traffic department of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company in Eugene, has been notified that she will be transferred to Salem in about two weeks, to which city a part of the bookkeeping department has been transferred.

Mabelle Russell was today appointed by Judge Thompson as guardian of Grace Lyons Kirkpatrick, a minor, who possesses property left by her father, who recently died in Springfield. The guardian's bond was fixed at $3000. B. A. Washburne, M. Peery and J. B. Bell were appointed appraisers of the property.

Notice has been received by County Clerk Russell from Dr. R. E. L. Steiner, superintendent of the state insane asylum, informing him that Frank Leist, who was admitted to that institution from Lane county on December 17, 1909, and was released on six months' leave of absence on March 19, 1910, was given a final discharge on January 16, 1911.

The rain has left the gas company's open ditches in bad shape. On Alder street a large portion of the ditch will have to be dug again, because of the walls caving in. The trench has been filled with water, and it will be much work to put it in shape for the gas pipes. The pipes should be laid as fast as the ditches are dug, and there would be less inconvenience to property owners and less danger to the ditches.

The funeral of Mrs. Frank Gross was held at the Gordon undertaking chapel this forenoon at 10 o'clock, and the remains interred in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. That of Nicholas Felderswert was held at his residence on Jefferson street at 10:30, with interment in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. The funeral of Mrs. V. A. Williams was held this afternoon at the Gordon chapel, and her remains, too, were buried in the same cemetery.

We recently received the good news that the Benedictine Fathers at Mt. Angel, Or., who have worked in this state since 1882, are to publish a centennial number, in which our city is to have a conspicuous position. "The Mt. Angel Magazine", which circulates all over the United States and Europe, in previous years has done much to advertise Oregon and bring progressive citizens to the West. N. Henry Robinson, the field solicitor, will call here and take up the work with the Commercial club. We bespeak a good word for him.

Judge Harris today granted a divorce to E. O. Tobey from his wife, Inez Tobey, on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment. They reside in Eugene.

S. P. Ness was today appointed administrator of the estate of Yahn W. White, the aged Norwegian, who is said to have been a nobleman and who died in this city on January 16. It has been found that he had $800 on deposit in a local bank.

The Factor

EXPERIENCE--that is what counts. That is the chief factor in the perfecting of a prescription. So far as the law is concerned, every druggist is on an equal footing, but it takes years of experience for a druggist to perfect his first knowledge. Your prescriptions filled by us will be filled right, because our experience gives us the right knowledge of prescription filling and aids us in the proper selection of the right kind of drugs.
