HEROES.

I read about the warlike guy who smiling goes to battle; and naught can still his joyous cry, and nothing can him rattle. But nobler than the man who wins renown with battle axes, is he who springs some sunny grin while coughing up his taxes. The captain who, in time of wreck, is free from fear's emotion, who calmly walks his sinking deck, alone upon the ocean, deserves a wreath upon his tile; he's surely smooth as wax is; but O the man who wears a smile while coughing up his taxes! I've seen a brave policeman walk where vicious knives were lying, and bullets barely missed his block, and bricks and knives were flying; I've seen the wild beast tamer fool with savage bears and yaks! But O the man who's calm and cool when coughing up his taxes! Let oak leaves on his brow be laid, let nothing be denied him! All other heroes wilt and fade when they are brought beside him! No greater shall be found, while earth revolves upon its axis—this lofty soul of sterling worth, who smiles when paying taxes!

ECONOMY OF GOOD ROADS.

The economic loss due to bad roads is beyond computation and the indifference of the general public toward any projected improvement of our highways is not easily understood. Each owner of property must be held accountable for the condition of the highways of this locality.

Of our public works the condition of none reflects our business status more accurately than the condition of our highways. To make good roads so that products of the farm are easily and quickly brought to this market is to increase the value of every farm along these roads and is practically to increase the farmers' facilities and lessen their expenses; at the same time making this town a bigger and better market for farm produce.

If every citizen could see in actual money the financial return on his investment in good roads he would contribute his share thereafter with alacrity. He has drained the swamps on his land and converted them into arable land. He had bought improved farm implements—he has, in fact, adopted all modern methods—in order to increase the productiveness of his land. But the marketing of his farm products is still seriously hindered by defective highways. The actual returns on any investment in improving the roads to market are just as direct and even more prompt than are those from farm drainage and improved farming methods.

In these days of automobiling good roads open up a much wider range of vision for the rural inhabitants and the same conditions that enable our residents to visit other sections induce residents of other communities to visit this locality. This inter communication results in a kind of advertising that inevitably increases the value of property in bringing in desirable purchasers. In fact, the results accruing from the building of good roads comprise an endless chain of benefits to the community that builds the roads.

How complaisant and gracious are the great trusts recently decreed to be dissolved. They will obey the law their officers declare, as interpreted by the supreme court. This is a gallant contension; in the course of time these corporations may come to admit that the public has rights which should be respected.

Maybe it's true that Ohio's present legislature is its most corrupt one, but wouldn't it be wise to add the words, "that has been found out?"

The human form divine may not be beautiful clad in trousers and skirts; nevertheless, those useful articles cover a multitude of shins.

According to a Swedish astronomer the earth has about 10,000 more years to live. That ought to be long enough to satisfy any of us.

BAD HEADACHES QUICKLY DISAPPEAR.

Mrs. Chas. Hartley, 514 Franklin St., Jackson, Mich., says: "I had suffered all kinds of pain and agony from stomach complaint for several months. The pains in my stomach were very bad, the gas forced the food up into my throat, my food did not digest, headaches of the worst kind attended, I became weak, nervous and in a condition I could not sleep.

Was alarmed at my condition as doctoring did not benefit me, finally I was induced to try M-I-O-N-A, and after using for about two weeks, I found a cure."

If you have a sallow complexion, pimples, blotches or dull eyes, your digestion is all wrong, and you should take M-I-O-N-A stomach tablets immediately, and put your stomach right.

M-I-O-N-A instantly stops belching of gas, sour stomach, heartburn and foul breath, and gives complete relief in five minutes.

M-I-O-N-A is guaranteed to cure dyspepsia, constipation, vomiting of pregnancy, or money back.

Don't hesitate to try M-I-O-N-A. It is for sale by The Red Cross Drug Co., and all leading druggists everywhere at 50 cents a large box.

Your Advice and Help Wanted

Hampton is not written in the possessive case. I do not call it "My Store." Its your store. It is an institution for service, and the statement is made without buncomb. Your store—your dependence for supplies. Your store safe for body and for purse. Your store—comfortable and complete. Your store—and therefore you are to be courteously treated—and you are.

Now then; being from a larger standpoint your store, will you not criticize, help and suggest for the bettering of this store. Believing the best way to bring this desire to your notice and get your help, would be through my space in the daily press. It isn't advertising; it's a keen desire to make this store better, thoroughly better. Please give address and sign all suggestions. I may need to further solicit your help or ask questions. Some very earnest suggestions may reach me that cannot possibly be carried out, but you can't foreknow that; I cannot forewarn you. Everything will be carefully weighed, and I shall thank you whether or not I can incorporate your idea into a good store.
