PEDDLERS STRIKE AGAINST ANTI- HOUSE LAW

Riot and Turmoil Incited at Big Randolph Market in Chicago

Chicago, June 20.—The peddlers, who have gone on a strike hoping to force a repeal of the anti-noise ordinance, which prevented them from crying their wares, today began acts of violence to force the less demonstrative members of the trade to join them. When they gathered at the big Randolph street market at daylight wagons were overturned, fruit and vegetables scattered about and drivers who refused to strike driven from their wagons. There were more than a score of arrests before the strikers deserted the market place.

There are said to be ten thousand peddlers in Chicago, and the anti-noise ordinance was passed for the benefit of night workers of whom there are a hundred thousand here, and whose days of rest are broken by cries of peddlers.

PROMINENT MAN DIES IN ACCIDENT

Bakersfield, June 20.—Free Ball, a prominent businessman of Maricopa and chief of the fire department, was instantly killed today by coming in contact with a live wire while fighting a fire which destroyed a large portion of the business section of the town early today.

The loss is $100,000.

OLD-TIME REMEDY DARKENS THE HAIR

Gives Color, Lustre to Faded and Gray Hair—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

From time immemorial, sage and sulphur have been used for the hair and scalp. Almost everyone knows of the value of such a combination for darkening the hair, for curing dandruff and falling hair, and for making the hair grow.

In olden times the only way to get a hair tonic of this sort was to brew it in the home fireplace, a method which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost every up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready-to-use product, skillfully compounded in perfectly equipped laboratories. The Wyeth Chemical Company of New York put up an ideal remedy of this sort, called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, and authorize druggists to sell it under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

For sale and recommended by the Bowers Drug Co.

FOR CONSTIPATION.

A Medicine That Does Not Cost Anything Unless It Cures.

The active medicinal ingredients of Rexall Orderlies, which is odorless, tasteless and colorless, is an entirely new discovery. Combined with other extremely valuable ingredients, it forms a perfect bowel regulator. Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy and are suitable for their agreeableness to the palate and gentleness of action. They do not cause griping or any disagreeable effect or inconvenience.

Unlike other preparations for a like purpose, they do not create a habit, but instead they overcome the cause of habit acquired through the use of ordinary laxatives, cathartics and harsh physic, and permanently remove the cause of constipation or irregular bowel action.

We will refund your money without argument if they do not do as we say they will. Two sizes, 25c and 50c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store, Red Cross Drug Store.

For the next few days go to Hill's for your baseball goods, and fishing tackle. You will find the prices a little lower than most places; try this store. Hill's Gun Store. J-20

SHE GAVE UP ALL HOPE

Physicians Failed To Help Mrs. Green, But She Finally Found Relief in Cardui.

Meetez, Va.—Mrs. J. C. Green of this place, says: "I suffered with womanly troubles so that I could hardly sit up. Two of the best doctors in our town treated me, and I tried different medicines, until I gave up all hope of ever getting well."

One day, I decided to try some Cardui. It did so much for me that I ordered some more, and it cured me! Today, I feel as well as I ever did in my life.

The pains and the trouble are all gone. I feel like another person in every way. I wish every sufferer could know what Cardui will do for sick women."

A few doses of Cardui at the right time, will save many a big doctor bill, by preventing serious sickness.

It tones up the nervous system, and helps make pale cheeks fresh and rosy. Thousands of weak women have been restored to health and happiness by using Cardui. Suppose you try it.

It may be just the medicine you need.

TO PROHIBIT FAKE MEDICINES

Washington, June 20.—Representative Shirley, of Kentucky, today introduced an amendment to the pure food and drug act providing that false and misleading statements regarding the curative value of medicinal preparations on patent medicine labels be prohibited. "The bill," Shirley said, "is intended to make the pure food law embrace those cases of interstate shipments of worthless medicines and drugs fraudulently held out to the public as possessing curative properties."

CHILDREN'S HAIR

Keep It Free From Dandruff and it Will Grow Lovely.

Being the best hair dressing for men and women, Parisian Sage is also best for children. Try it once and see how clean and healthy it keeps the scalp.

"My daughter used Parisian Sage on her children's hair, and it is as good as you recommend it to be."—Hannah Anderson, 1021 Divine St., Columbia, S. C.

Here is what a North Dakota woman says:

"Parisian Sage certainly has done my hair a lot of good, and will highly recommend it as a very good tonic for the hair. I have used various kinds of tonics and have found Parisian Sage the best. I have my hair free from dandruff now, and it has a healthy luster and an even color. It used to be stretchy. Many of my friends are using it, and they speak highly of it."—Mrs. Anna Rooney, 107 Second St., N. Fargo, N. D.

Always bear in mind that there is nothing for the hair that can compare with Parisian Sage. There are many imitations but none of them are guaranteed to eradicate dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks, or money back.

A large bottle costs 50 cents at the Red Cross Drug Co. and druggists everywhere. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every bottle.

A Successful Portland Enterprise

It will be gratifying to the friends of the Jewish Tribune to know that the Pacific States Fire Insurance Company is meeting with encouragement in all sections of the state. When we learned that such progressive business men as Joseph Simon, Ben Selling, Sam Friendly, A. B. Steinbach, Sig. Sichel and a number of other men of equal business prominence in the state were among the first to give the enterprise endorsement, and not only their moral but financial support, it was sufficient guarantee that the company was on the right basis and would be a success. This prediction has been fully verified. The company's statement shows that not a day has passed since it was organized that it has not added to its financial strength, and the Jewish Tribune is convinced that it is only necessary for the public to fully understand what the enterprise means to Portland, and when they do it will receive unanimous support.

If every business man in the state would place a policy with the Pacific States Fire Insurance Company it would not only insure success for the company but a big success, which would result in a benefit to the entire community. Portland cannot maintain her real estate values and financial supremacy unless enterprises like the Pacific States Fire Insurance company are encouraged to the fullest extent, and if all of our business men realized as fully as Messrs. Selling, Simon, Steinbach, Friendly and Sichel that when they are helping to build up an enterprise like the Pacific States Fire Insurance company, they are both directly and indirectly benefitting themselves, personally as well as the entire community, they would not hesitate to give this company every possible encouragement and support.

The company has recently consolidated with the Farmer's Fire Insurance company incorporated as a stock company by about two hundred of the leading farmers and business men of Eastern Oregon, which has brought a large additional volume of business and materially strengthened the company.

This community is learning more and more that in order to build Portland up, it is necessary to patronize home institutions, thus keeping Portland money at home. This city sends millions of dollars east every year for various things, among which are fire insurance premiums. If but a fraction of the vast amount spent here in Portland it would do a great deal not only towards building up local industries, but also in stimulating and encouraging business of all kinds all over the state. The effect of keeping Portland money at home will also be the entire severance of this city's dependence on the east, thus making Portland even more independent as a financial center.

The Jewish Tribune predicts success for the undertaking and is pleased to bespeak the good will and patronage of all public spirited citizens for the Pacific States Fire Insurance company.

The fact that F. E. Beach is president of this company is sufficient guarantee to all that the institution is worthy of the greatest support possible. Mr. Beach is an old business man of Portland, and has the confidence of the entire business community. The Jewish Tribune is pleased to state that it has the warm consideration for any institution which Mr. Beach is the head.
