

CONTEST WILL CLOSE ONE WEEK FROM TONIGHT

ALL COUPONS CLIPPED FROM THE PAPER MUST BE IN THE GUARD OFFICE BEFORE 8 P. M. MONDAY, JULY 3RD—NO MORE COUPONS TO BE PRINTED.

Ballot Box Will Be Sealed Tuesday Next

Seven More Days in Which to Get Subscriptions—Then the Final Count on Saturday, July 8th.

The great special offer made to the contestants closes Saturday night at 9 p. m. In order to have subscriptions count on this special offer they must be received at the Daily Guard office not later than that time. To give the contestants in the territory outside of Eugene the same amount of time, we will accept all subscriptions that are mailed before Saturday at 9 p. m., but the envelope or package must bear the postmark and date of hour mailed with the postmaster's name and in ink on the outside of the envelope.

To the contestants who are entitled to special ballots the same will be mailed to them Monday in time to be returned for the final count.

One week from tonight will tell the story—one week from tonight the names in The Daily Guard Alaskan Trip Contest will be announced. And the winners will be those girls who will work the hardest during the next seven days.

Luck will not enter into it—hard and continuous work will be the deciding factor, and we know from our observations that those girls who are leading in their respective districts have attained the top of the list by the hard work of themselves and their friends, and it is going to take continued and sustained effort to keep them there.

One week is left and while those seven days will pass rapidly, any girl who makes up her mind to work hard and intelligently during the remaining time can make every girl who aspires to win keep on the jump to beat her.

In another part of this paper we describe the trip to Alaska and we want every contestant to read it—it tells of a wonderfully beautiful trip and we believe that every contestant will agree with us that it is well worth the effort to win it.

Now there is but one way to win it and that is to get subscriptions during this next and final week—remember that there will be no more coupons in the paper, and those that have been printed will not be counted if they are not in this office before 8 p. m. Monday, July 3. So you see to increase your final vote it is necessary to get either new or old subscriptions. Don't depend upon your reserve because every girl in the contest has built up a magnificent one—it is subscription ballots secured during this the final week, that is going to win. And perhaps it will be one 15,000 vote ballot secured by a year's subscription that will decide—so don't neglect any possible chance to get either new or old subscriptions.

There will be two more changes in the voting list before the final count—one on Monday and one on Tuesday. After Tuesday's vote the ballot box will be sealed not to be opened again until the night of July 8, when the final count will be made.

SUBSCRIPTION COUPON.
The coupons secured on subscriptions will be good up to and including the last day of the contest—Saturday, July 8th—and will be counted. But the ballots that are clipped from the paper will be destroyed if they reach this office after 8 p. m. Monday, July 3. BE SURE AND SEND ALL YOUR COUPONS TO THIS OFFICE AT ONCE, AS THEY ARE NOT GOOD AFTER MONDAY.

CONTESTANTS, READ VERY CAREFULLY.

Coupons have appeared in the paper for the last time and in order to have them count must reach this office not later than Monday, 8 p. m. July 3rd.

All votes cast before 5 p. m. Monday, July 3rd will appear credited to the proper candidates in the paper of Tuesday, July 4th.

After the count on Tuesday the ballot box will be locked and sealed, the key deposited at some local bank until the contest is closed, and will then be delivered to the judges who will have charge of the final count.

The standing of the candidates as they will appear in the paper on Tuesday, July 4th, will not be changed again until the contest is over. This is done so that no one will have any knowledge of the reserve vote of the different contestants, and also that the contest department may devote its time to waiting on the different candidates desiring to secure ballots on subscriptions.

Remember all candidates who desire to stand well in their district during the final days of the contest will have to have the rates they wish to appear during the time in the ballot box in this office not later than Monday, July 4th at 8 p. m.

Kill More Than Wild Beasts

The number of people killed yearly by wild beasts don't approach the vast number killed by disease germs. No life is safe from their attacks. They're in air, water, dust, even food. But guard protection is afforded by Electric Bitters which destroy and expel these deadly disease germs from the system. That's why chills, fever and ague, all malarial and many blood diseases yield promptly to this wonderful blood purifier. Try them, and enjoy the glorious health and new strength they'll give you. Money back, if not satisfied. Only 50c at W. A. Kuykendall's Drug Store.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COMPOUND.

Is effective for coughs and colds in either children or grown persons. No opiates, no harmful drugs. In the yellow package. Refuse substitutes.

HAY FEVER AND SUMMER COLDS

Must be relieved quickly and Foley's Honey and Tar Compound will do it. E. M. Stewart, 1034 Wolfram St., Chicago, writes: "I have been greatly troubled during the hot summer months with Hay Fever and find that by using Foley's Honey and Tar Compound I get great relief." Many others who suffer similarly will be glad to benefit by Mr. Stewart's experience.

RESTORE GRAY HAIR TO NATURAL COLOR

By Common Garden Sage, a Simple Remedy for Dandruff, Falling, Faded, Gray Hair.

The old idea of using sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers used to have dark, glossy hair at the age of seventy-five, while our mothers have white hair before they are fifty. Our grandmothers used to make a "sage tea" and apply it to their hair. The tea made their hair soft and glossy, and gradually restored the natural color.

One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it, especially as it had to be made every two or three days, on account of souring quickly. This objection has been overcome, and by asking almost any first-class druggist for Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy the public can get a simple preparation of sage, with the addition of sulphur, another valuable remedy for hair and scalp troubles. Daily use of this preparation will not only quickly restore the color of the hair, but will also stop the hair from falling out and make it grow.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. For sale and recommended by the Rovers Drug Co.

SATURDAY NIGHT SERMONS

BY REV. SAMUEL W. PURVIS, D.D.

SOME ONE TO TAKE YOUR PART.

Text: "The Lord shall fight for you, and ye shall hold your peace."—EX. XIV, 14.

Man's extremity is God's opportunity. A horde of Israelites were once fleeing from their taskmasters, terror-stricken, stampeding, with men shouting, women praying, children crying, cattle lowing, everywhere indescribable fear and confusion, before them an impassable sea, on either side towering, unscalable cliffs, to their rear Pharaoh's army. They could hear the roar of hoofs and the dull thunder of chariot wheels. Any first year West Pointer would have pronounced such a position a huge tactical blunder. The end was clear—sword, rapine, massacred men, despoiled women, captive children. At the darkest moment there's a frantic appeal to Moses and God. The answer is Godlike in its strength and assurance, "The Lord shall fight for you, and ye shall hold your peace." Ever have your lawyer say: "Now, just leave this case with us. It is clear as daylight." Ever have your physician say: "We'll have that child dancing on the sidewalk and humming enough to eat nails in a week." Then you went to your work with light heart. It wasn't many hours until the impossible happened. The sea was opened, and the Israelites passed over dry shod, while a cloud of protection dropped between them and their pursuers.

When You've Done Your Best.

Say, mother, ever get to the breaking point, the place where if you could just scream it would seem relief? Don't do it. The asylum's at the end of that road. There's something better. I know the pace is terrific, and yet you don't seem to get anything done. Washing baby faces, starting little feet off to school, laundering, mending, baking, scrubbing, sweeping and the thousand other duties that constitute a woman's day do not seem to count for much, but I declare unto you that you are doing more for the world than now is and that which is to come than many another woman who fancies she sways the rod of empire. But when your nerves are jangling, doing duty with a fearfully worn constitution, whooping cough in the house for six weeks, no rest, no sleep, other troubles you don't dare tell any one, when you cover the cage to keep the canary from singing, when you muffle the doorbell, when the wagon passing seems driving over your forehead—then you are at the Red Sea. There's one of two ways then, either the madhouse or God. There's nothing but the old fashioned religion of Jesus Christ that will carry a woman through the trials of home life.

At the End of Your String.

Of course the fellows on the Merriam were heroes; also the fellows carrying out the powder sacks among the sparks at Fortress Monroe. Death snapped right in their faces. But sometimes the easiest thing to do is to die. The big trick, then, is to have grit enough to live. Say, father, at the desk, at the bench, behind the counter, are you sometimes almost at the end of your string? Can't hardly make both ends meet? Fighting slander, financial losses, life plans slipping away, have to let a policy lapse and put a mortgage on the little home? Are there nights when you've had to take the cartridges from your revolver? "My God, not that!" your better self said. Listen! There's some one who cares. You are now wedged in—the Red Sea ahead, the mountains on either side, the floods of hell back of you. There's nothing left but God. Go right to him. I challenge you. Have you ever honestly tried? You see the thing is in his hand. Who sent the rain before Waterloo? If the atheist is right then hunt up your cartridges again. If Christ is right then you have a Father who can somehow make "all things work together for good to them that love the Lord."

Simply Let Go!

Don't pester your lawyer telling him of something you've read along the line of that case. Don't give your sleek baby quiet doses of "something you've heard of" to aid your doctor. He knows quite a few things that you do not know. Trust him. God isn't in a tight place. You don't have to help him. Trust him. He guides the comets in their multimillion mile orbits. He balanced the leaf that fluttered just now. He has handled bigger tasks than yours. Trust him. Remember back home years ago, in the old pond, when the fellows were teaching you to float? Remember how you floundered, and flung, and grasped, and clutched, and struggled, with your mouth and nostrils full of the muddy pond water, even with the fellows keeping their hands under your sun bronzed body? Then Bill Jones—bless his freckled face, wonder where he is now—said: "Now, Jim, don't be so foolish. Just simply let go." And before long you were floating like a lazy old porpoise in the sunshine. God sometimes leads a man into a wedge from which there seems no escape. Then when you are ready—not God—lo and behold, the way opens up wonderfully. Just scurs a circle hap-

The Fountain Head of Life Is The Stomach

A man who has a weak and impaired stomach and who does not properly digest his food will soon find that his blood has become weak and impoverished, and that his whole body is improperly and insufficiently nourished.

Dr. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY makes the stomach strong, promotes the flow of digestive juices, restores the lost appetite, makes assimilation perfect, invigorates the liver and purifies and enriches the blood. It is the great blood-maker, flesh-builder and restorative nerve tonic. It makes men strong in body, active in mind and cool in judgement.

This "Discovery" is a pure, glyceric extract of American medical roots, wholly free from alcohol and all injurious, habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients are printed on its wrappers. It has no relationship with secret nostrums. Its every ingredient is endorsed by the leaders in all the schools of medicine. Don't expect a secret nostrum as a substitute for this time-proven remedy of known composition. Ask your druggist. They must know of many cures made by it during past 40 years, right in your own neighborhood. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.
