The Solution

With this article the present publicity series will be concluded.

We admit that we have offered no solution for the predicament in which the city finds itself.

We admit that the city has an investment of over $200,000 on its hands.

Although we have not proposed a solution, only the pessimistic will believe that a way cannot be found out of the problem which will protect and conserve the best interests of the city.

There is no proposition without a hopeful side.

When men undertake to settle difficulties, strong in their determination to find the BEST way, things can be accomplished of utmost value.

The business and professional men of the United States every day work out problems far more formidable than the municipal power situation in Eugene, and achieve results SATISFACTORY TO ALL CONCERNED.

But first and foremost in solving such problems as Eugene is now facing, must come the spirit of fair-mindedness and the desire to CO-OPERATE for constructive good.

Two contesting armies hardly can be imagined conferring together about the establishment of a great philanthropic hospital.

One can hardly conceive a doctor discovering an antidote toxin for diphtheria while the members of his household were devoting their energies to a bitter quarrel.

Nor do toleration and mutual help and mutual ADVANCEMENT flourish in an atmosphere of suspicion.

Each side to every controversy has SOMETHING TO GIVE and SOMETHING TO GAIN.

As we see it, a suggestion at this time as a possible means of solving the situation would not come with the best of grace, nor would it be APT TO BE HELPFUL.

If we offered a solution, no matter how sensible and reasonable it would be, we would be accused of trying to "control" the matter, and trying to deceive the people into doing something which would be to our own aggrandizement and injurious to citizens.

At this time, therefore, we wish to simply say that the Oregon Power Company will be ready and willing at all times to meet the people of Eugene half way in any movement which requires our co-operation.

LOGANBERRY CROP

IS IN EVIDENCE

Gervais District Has a Fine Outlook—Harvest Begins Next Week

Gervais, Or., July 5.—The loganberry season is in evidence, several small shipments have been made from this vicinity, and the larger yards are making preparations to begin picking next Monday. The 16 acre field of S. H. Brown, just east of town, with several smaller tracts near Gervais, will use an extra express car daily during the season. The yield will be good, but not so many berries will be harvested this year as last, because last year's growth was not as prolific as it should have been. During the season hundreds of women and children are employed in the fields. They look to the berry picking much as they do the hop picking.

The recent rains have been very beneficial to all late-sown grains, and the prospects for a bumper crop for cereals in this locality is never better. While a good quantity of clover and vetch hay was cut before the rains, little damage was done. The hop crop some time back looked very discouraging, but for the last two weeks, and especially since the rains, the vine has made a good growth, and while the crop in this immediate vicinity will be short there will be more than was first estimated. Late potatoes are coming up well and a heavy yield is anticipated by the growers.

"HOW TIM FLANIGAN QUIT HIS DRINKIN'."

Tim Flanigan is a carpenter good. As any who know him will say: A former mechanic than Tim, OI tell ye, Is not to be found iv'ry day.

And if ye're wantin' to build a foine house,

Wid the latest improvements to it, Ye needn't look fuder than Tim for a man. For he's joost the chap that can do it.

Did ye ever hear how he quit drinkin'?

Ye know how he loved a wee drop, And always used to kape the stoof by him. A bottle or two in the shop.

Wan day, whin he had been drinkin' Rather more than usual, OI think, He was up on a ruff at worruk shinglin'.

A little the wurruk for the drink.

And some way, OI don't know how it happened,

His foot slipped and down poor Tim fell; Sooch a fall as he got OI'm thinkin' Would shurely a sober man kill.

Poor Tim! He lay on the ground gurraulin'.

A picture of misery: His face was all covered wid blood and dirrut.

A pitiful sight to see.

Two or three of his ribs were broken Besides, he had burruk his left leg;

His body was covered wid bruises, And a loomp on his head pretty big.

The min that wuz worrukin' wid him

Tuk him gintly and carried him home;

And did the bist that they c'd for him

Till the docther they saint for c'd come.

His wolve wuz almost distracted

To see Tim brought home in sooch plight.

And shure, the way he wuz lookin' Would give any woman a fright.

Tim had plenty of toime for reflection

On the way he had lived in the past;

And he decided that he in the future

His vote against loicense would cast.

'Twas a mercy OI didn't get killed,

And he, For OI fill loike a thousand o' bricks;

And OI ought to thank the Lorrid OI suppose.

'Twas me lig burruk instid of me nick.

Wan day, when he'd nearly recovered,

In talkin' wid Bridget, his wolve, Sez he, If the Lorrid will help me, OI'll not drink any more in me loife.

And Tim has been thrue to his promise,

Since that toime, some tree years ago;

And now he's as abtrait and as sober As any other mon that OI know.

He is chuck full of wurruk all the toime now.

In fact, more than he can attind, For since he has give up his drinkin' Iverybody in town is his friend.

The table is always provided

Wid plenty of good things to ate, Such as pole and cake and plum puddin'.

Brid and butter, purraties and mate.

Tim has built a foine house for himself now;

And Bridget goes drissed loike a quane;

And their daughter has lately married.

URICSOL

TRADE MARK

CURES ALL FORMS OF RHEUMATIC DISEASES AND ELIMINATES DEPOSITS IN THE JOINTS

NO MATTER HOW MANY OTHER REMEDIES YOU MAY HAVE USED, YOU HAVE NOT DONE YOUR DUTY BY YOURSELF UNLESS YOU HAVE TRIED URICSOL

Here Is What One Grateful Ex-Rheumatic Sufferer Says:

Arthur P. Hawkes with National Pharmacy Co., Los Angeles, writes in 1902: "I want to add my testimony to the value of your rheumatic remedy URICSOL. I have had muscular rheumatism for over a year. Tried many remedies and was under treatment by a physician but got no relief until I used URICSOL. Half a bottle of which cured me. That was three months ago, and I have had no return of the disease."

TRY URICSOL WITHOUT FAIL. IT WILL NOT FAIL TO HELP YOU.

PAGE Woven Wire Fence

BEST ON

First---It is the strongest fence, made of the strongest wire.

Second---It is the most elastic fence, and springs back when released from any strain. Every wire tight and right.

Third---It is not controlled by the wire trust or any other trust. And it is double the strength of any common soft wire you are used to, by actual test. Are you from Missouri? I am here to show you.

Fourth---Fits the roughest ground as well as the smoothest.

Fifth---Only takes one-third as many posts, and don't bag or sag.

Sixth---It is the only wire with loop ends. No trouble to splice. Always even at ends.

Seventh---It has the best weave, and the only knot that holds fast and stays. Runs from top to bottom.

Eighth---It is the government standard fence.

HAY FEVER AND SUMMER COLDS

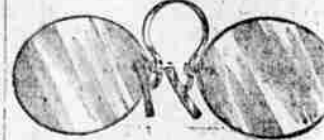

Must be relieved quickly and Foley's Honey and Tar Compound will do it. E. M. Stewart, 1034 Wolfram St., Chicago, writes: "I have been greatly troubled during the hot summer months with Hay Fever and find that by using Foley's Honey and Tar Compound I get great relief." Many others who suffer similarly will be glad to benefit by Mr. Stewart's experience.

POSTAL BANKS HOLD VERY FEW DEPOSITS

Salem, Or., July 5.—In a report issued by the State Bank Examiner it is shown that $9,696.20 in deposits are being held by the Postal Savings Banks in Oregon, while a total of $105,412.88 is on deposit in all the banking institutions in the state. The increase is $2,526.976. The report shows that there are now 247 banking concerns in operation in this state and the increase for the past year is 21 banks.

COTTAGE GROVE'S FOURTH IS SAFE AND SANE

Cottage Grove, Or., July 5.—The program for the first sane Fourth this city has even had was carried out to the letter. Mayor Abrams issued orders that no fireworks of any kind should be fired until after 6 o'clock in the evening. The fireworks were to be set off from Reservoir Hill. Miss Marie Willard represented the honors of Goddess of Liberty. One of the most interesting features of the day was the sham battle given by Company E, O. N. G., of this city, under command of Captain B. K. Lawson. The numerous floats were nicely decorated and made a very imposing parade.

Honest Medicines Versus Fakes.

President Taft's recent message suggesting an amendment to the Pure Food and Drugs law in its relation to Prepared Medicines, does not refer to such standard medicines as Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and Foley Kidney Pills, both of which are true medicines carefully compounded of ingredients whose medicinal qualities are recognized by the medical profession itself as the best known remedial agents for the diseases they are intended to counteract. For over three decades Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has been a standard remedy for coughs, colds and affections of the throat, chest and lungs for children and for grown persons, and it retains today its pre-eminence above all other preparations for its kind. Foley Kidney Pills are equally effective and meritorious. Sold by all druggists.

SAVE YOUR HAIR; SAGE TEA WILL DO IT

Dandruff, Itching Scalp and Falling Hair Quickly Stopped.

There is one place where baldheaded men shine, and that is in the front row seats of the theatre. If these bald headed people had used Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy in their earlier days they would not be so conspicuous now. This preparation does not plant new hair, but it does strengthen weak, dying hair, and not only brightens full, parched hair, but gradually restores the color to faded or gray hair. It is a clean, wholesome hair dressing, which can be used daily with perfect safety.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is sold under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

For sale and recommended by the Bowers Drug Co.

Foley Kidney Pills are composed of ingredients specially selected for their corrective, healing, tonic and stimulating effect upon the kidneys, bladder and urinary passages. They are antiseptic, antilithic and a uric acid solvent.

25 PAROLED PRISONERS PROVIDED WITH WORK

Salem, Or., July 5.—At a special meeting held by the Prison Parole Board yesterday afternoon, 25 out of 40 applicants were paroled. The board states it has provided places for the 25 men paroled in different sections of the state, and had it been possible to secure positions for the balance of the number on the list from the prison would have been much larger.

Notice of Special City Election July 17, 1911.

Notice is hereby given that by Ordinance No. 1118 duly passed, the Common Council of the City of Eugene, Oregon, on the 17th day of July, 1911, between the hours of 8 o'clock a. m. and 7 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of submitting to the electors of said city two certain proposed Charter Amendments.
