AT THE ALOHA THEATRE

The Aloha theatre keeps playing to capacity and vaudeville is making a big hit with Eugene, coming tonight for three days Bennett and Marcella, Comedy Acrobats. "I heard an old lady say the other day that there was nothing left for vaudeville acrobats to do but to swallow themselves from their toes up, while they will not swallow themselves they will accomplish equal impossibilities, on the same bill will be Cooke and Myers, comedy singing talking and dancing, who bill themselves as The Acrobatic Dutchman and the Dancing Girl, and from reports that precede them they give twenty minutes of real fun. The Aloha management has made arrangement with the Film Exchange in Portland, Oregon, that beginning Monday they will receive the same pictures as are shown in the Majestic theatre in Portland. As the Majestic theatre is the largest picture house in Portland and are nightly turning people away. We can judge that the classiest pictures are shown. It has been a great pleasure to spend an hour and a half at the Aloha, and we never miss the opening nights Monday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Tripp have returned to Eugene after an absence of nearly two months, on a pleasant wedding tour. They have visited Seattle, Everett, Aberdeen and other Washington cities, but sojourned the greater part of the time at American lake, near Tacoma, in a delightful camp on the lake shore. Mr. Tripp says that American lake took on a lively appearance when a thousand or more militiamen were encamped there during their visit at the lake.
