

Dining Room Furniture

Nowadays the dining room is the second room in every home and one reason of this is that the houses of the present day are planned and built in such a manner that the dining room, as a rule is off the front room with nothing but an open archway between.

Of course the prominence given the dining room necessitates furniture more elaborate and more substantial than used a generation back or even a few years back—and it is to our stock of dining room furniture that we call your attention.

We are showing Buffets, Serving Tables, and Dining Tables, and also full room Suites including Chairs, that are the product of the foremost furniture manufacturer. We have sets and single pieces in Fumed and Golden Oak that are attractive beyond the ordinary and with care will last a life time.

Please understand that we are headquarters for superior dining room furniture all priced as low as the most economical person would desire.

Also that all our customers have the privilege of paying their bill in convenient monthly payments.

SOCIETY NOTES

Mesdames G. S. O. Humbert and E. C. Wignore entertained at the home of the former on South Ferry street, Wednesday afternoon from three to five with a very pretty and substantial luncheon in honor of Dr. Merle Shelley of Portland, who is to become the bride of Mr. Frank C. Michton at Winnipeg, Canada, November 3th.

Miss Shelley is a former Eugene girl, a graduate of the Eugene Bible University and a recent graduate of the Pacific college of Chiropractic of Portland. She is a talented young woman, in every way fitted to assume the responsibilities of a home and to become the helpmeet of the man she has chosen.

A nice musical program was rendered, at the close of which America was sung, followed by "God Save the King," in honor of the bridegroom. The color scheme of pink and white was artistically used, being carried out throughout the refreshments. The Misses Bernice Holmes, Madge Humbert and Vivian Kellems assisted in the serving. The invited guests were: Mesdames E. C. Sanderson, J. S. McCallum, D. C. Kellems, H. A. Beuton, W. A. Billington, J. B. Holmes, George Morgan, E. J. Fuller, J. H. West, M. J. Thompson and Rose Washburn; the Misses Allie Stevens, Effie McCallum, Minnie Markhart, Mamie Hickelshier, Myrtle Green, Fannie Cornelius, Anna Wilke, Letha Homig, Edith Prater, Belle Prater, Belle Keeney, Genevieve Lucas, Edna Bertsch, and Gladys Shelley.

The Riverside Society met at the home of Mrs. Fish, 1067 Harrison avenue Friday, the 20th. There were forty at the meeting. A good social time was had. At 4 o'clock Mrs. Fish, Mrs. Dunbar and Mrs. Doty served an elegant lunch.

SOCIETY AT SPRINGFIELD

The wedding of Miss Louise Martin to Leslie R. Hagland, of Walla Walla, Wash., solemnized Thursday evening at 5 o'clock, was a quiet though extremely pretty event of the week. Rev. W. M. Erskine, formerly pastor at Springfield but now pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at Halsey, officiated and the ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Martin on north B street. The house decorations were artistically arranged in pink and green with ivy, ferns and pink roses, mingling in this clever color scheme. Just a small number of the immediate close friends of the bride were bidden to witness the impressive ring ceremony, which was performed in the southwest corner of the cozy little parlor, where the groom received his bride from the hand of her father. The bride was charming in a gown of beautifully embroidered cream crepe de chene. Her veil completely enveloping the stylish figure, was fastened with lilies of the valley. She carried an exquisite bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

The marriage of Williams Beals, Jr., and Miss Junia K. Kirkland was solemnized at the Methodist parsonage in Eugene, Saturday, October 14, 1911, Rev. H. S. Wilkinson officiating. The bride, who formerly lived at Drain, has made her home here in Springfield with an aunt, Elizabeth Kirkland, for the past several months and possesses a personality so charming as to endear her to a great host of friends. Mr. Beals is one of Springfield's most trusted and worthy young men, and occupies the position of assistant cashier in the First National bank, which responsibility is evidence of his integrity. Mr. and Mrs. Beals spent a brief honeymoon at Drain and Pleasant Hill, returning Wednesday evening. The young couple will be at home to their friends in one of the Johnson houses on B street between Seventh and Eighth.

A most enjoyable time was had Saturday evening at the home of Miss Marian Harper, the occasion being a miscellaneous shower for Miss Lulu Martin. The evening was spent in playing games, a number for which prizes were given. The successful contestants being Miss Lulu Martin and Mrs. F. E. Kahler. Partners for supper were chosen by means of poems from noted authors and the guests were then ushered into the dining room where an excellent supper was served. The crowd again assembled in the parlor where Miss Martin was presented with numerous useful and dainty gifts by her many friends. Those present were: Mesdames E. C. Martin, K. L. Page, H. E. Walker, W. F. Walker, F. E. Kahler, J. N. Harper, Misses Mary Roberts, Etta Bowerman, Alice Kester, Marian Harper and Lulu Martin.

Miss Maybelle Conley was given a very pleasant surprise Monday evening by a number of young ladies from Eugene. The evening was spent in music, and games after which an elaborate luncheon provided by the guests was enjoyed by all. Those present were Bertha Barrett, Lella Circle, Ethel Stemler, Minnie Clark, Helen Large, Stella Barrett, Marie Pinkham, Ora Thomson, Harriet Large, Ethel Forrester and "Si" Gay (?)—News.
