

SOCIETY

A large event of the week was the reception given by the Alumnae Association of the University of Oregon at Hotel Osburn Friday evening, October 20, to the regents, faculty, and students of the University. This is the first time the association has given a reception to all students and from now on will be an annual event. It was given in the beautiful Wisteria room. The presidents and vice-presidents of the various classes of the University introduced the guests to the receiving line. Those in the receiving line were President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Bean, Professor and Mrs. Stafford, Miss Ida Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Goodrich, Mr. Arthur Geary, Mrs. E. P. Geary, Judge and Mrs. H. S. Bean.

The evening was enlivened by delightful music from the Henderson Orchestra. During the evening light refreshments were served by Mrs. L. T. Harris, Mrs. R. S. Bryson, and Mrs. E. R. Bryson assisted by Miss Ruth Dunaway, Miss Mozelle Hair, Miss Mabel Kuykendall, Miss Olive Donnell, Miss Eva Allen and Miss France Kelly. The reception was largely attended and the event will be looked forward to with great interest next year.

Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Claude Gray and Mrs. Curtis Harris entertained in compliment to Miss Winifred Cockerline at the home of the former. The parlors were decorated in Oregon pennants and yellow streamers. The dining room was attractive in a color scheme of red and blue being strung from the chandeliers to the four corners of the table. Just over the center of the table was a large heart. After a delicious four-course luncheon the heart was opened and Miss Winifred was showered with many beautiful handkerchiefs.

The guests were Mrs. A. T. Cockerline, Miss Winifred Cockerline, Mrs. J. W. Kays, Mrs. J. W. Harris, Mrs. S. J. Wilson, Mrs. George Hug, Mrs. John Bovard, Mrs. Eberle Kuykendall, Miss Eva Allen (Portland) Miss France Kelly, Miss Eva Burton, Miss Nell Murphy, Miss Greta Bristow, Miss Jessie Prosser, Miss Lila Prosser, Miss Edwina Prosser, Miss Lola Howe, Miss Elizabeth Howe and Miss Mabel Kuykendall.

Last Saturday afternoon at one o'clock Mrs. M. H. Douglas entertained the Mu Phi Epsilon Sorority and their pledges at an elaborate luncheon. Her charming home on Fairmount Heights was beautifully decorated with gorgeous autumn leaves and chrysanthemums. She was assisted by Miss Barker. Those present were Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Mrs. A. C. Dixon, and Mrs. M. H. Douglas, patronesses of the sorority, and the Misses Mary Morgan, Eve Stinson, Lila Prosser, Nell Murphy, Alberta Campbell, Edwina Prosser, Ina Watkins, Ethel Evans, Nancy Peterson, Meta Goldsmith, Lucile McQuinn and Valene Eastham.

At two o'clock Wednesday afternoon, October 19, a pretty home wedding was solemnized at the home of the brides parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Abbott, when their daughter Myra Loanna was united in marriage to Dr. W. Claude Adams of Portland. Rev. J. T. Abbott father of the bride performed the ceremony assisted by Dr. H. S. Wilkinson. In the presence of the immediate friends and relatives, the ceremony was performed beneath a canopy of sweet lilies and ferns. The bride was beautifully gowned and carried a lovely bouquet of white carnations. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Abbott. The groom is a promising young dentist of Portland. Dr. and Mrs. Adams left on the 4:43 train for Portland where they will make their home.

Miss Mabel Kuykendall entertained Friday afternoon at her home on South Willamette street for Miss Winifred Cockerline, bride-elect. The afternoon passed swiftly with needlework. Flowers and ferns decorated the spacious rooms; the dining room was beautiful in the colors of pink and white. At the seating of the guests, a pink wedding bell suspended over Miss Cockerline's head, rang, emitting a shower of pink rose petals. A doll-bride marked the place of the bride-elect. Music from a hidden orchestra enhanced the three-course supper which was served by the Misses Helen DeLano, Barbara Booth, Coeby Gilstrap, Dorothy Schoolcraft. Those so fortunate as to share Miss Kuykendall's hospitality were: Messdames John Bovard, Eberle Kuykendall, Reuben Steelquist, Claude Gray, Curtis Harris, George Hug, and the Misses Jessie Bibbe, Merle McKelvey, Jane Knox, Norma Hendricks, Mary DeBar, Luella Campbell, Elizabeth Howe, Nell Murphy, Emma Travels, Lucia Wilki, Myrtle Kays, Kate Henderson, Greta Bristow, Pauline Potter, Hazel Humphrey, Frieda Goldsmith, France Kelly, and Myra Loveridge.

Thursday at one o'clock, Mrs. W. C. Perkins gave a delightful surprise luncheon in honor of Miss Winifred Cockerline. The dining room was gorgeous in a color scheme of white and yellow. The table was artistic in quantities of yellow ribbon, white tulle, and amials. Exquisite hand-painted place cards the work of Miss Eloise Edwards, marked the place of the guests. At the conclusion of the luncheon, the guests presented Miss Cockerline with a dozen handsome hand-painted plates, the work of Mrs. F. L. Chambers.

Mrs. Dean Hayes entertained the Thursday Afternoon Sewing Club at her home in the Flak apartment. Mrs. Everett Sherck and Mrs. Richard Hathaway were the guests of honor. Mrs. M. C. Harris was also a guest on this occasion. The Club will be entertained at their next meeting at the home of Mrs. Dearhorn.

Mrs. Dick Hathaway is the guest of Miss Norma Hendricks.

Friday evening the Beta Theta Pi fraternally entertained with a dancing party in compliment with the Freshman girls.

Miss Margaret Gray of Salem, is the guest of Miss Mildred Bagley at the Kappa Alpha Theta House.

This evening the student body of the University of Oregon will give an Informal Dance in Hayward Hall. Beside being a social event, the purpose of these dances is to offer an opportunity for the students to become better acquainted. Several of these dances are being planned for during school year.

Miss Gladys Farrar of Salem is a guest of the Gamma Phi Beta Fraternity.

Miss Eva Allen of Portland, is here visiting.

On Saturday afternoon the ladies of the Congregational Aid Society held a very profitable market at the Kohlinoor.

On Saturday last, Mrs. I. H. Bingham was hostess to the Board Lozen Bridge Club. Guests of the Club were Mrs. J. W. Quackenbush, Mrs. Everingham and Miss Veda Quackenbush.

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Yorran entertained at dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Yorran's guests were Mr. and Mrs. Cockerline, Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Cheshire, Miss Mabel Simmons, and Miss Winifred Cockerline.

On Monday next October 23, Mrs. Horn and Mrs. Hawthorne will entertain the Bazaar Tea of the St. Mary's Episcopal church at the home of Mrs. Horn.

Thursday evening the Benedict dancing Club gave their second dance of the season at the Folly Hall.

ents at the Baptist church on Friday evening, October 11, was one of the most novel affairs of its kind ever given in this city. The entertainment took the nature of registration day in "Live Oak College." The pastor, Rev. H. W. Davis, assumed the role of president of the college and very cleverly introduced the various members of the faculty. There were six departments represented in the course of study, including domestic science, horticulture, electrical astronomy, economics, oratory and music.

The ladies of the R. A. C. Club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Blewett on Fourteenth street. After a very pleasant afternoon spent at needlework, refreshments were served by Mrs. Blewett, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Dye. The ladies will meet two weeks hence with Mrs. Airheart, at 55 West Fifth street.

Wednesday at the home of E. L. Dorr, the contracting parties being R. J. Neill and Miss Helen Vanderburg. Rev. P. K. Hammond officiating. Mr. Neill is the assistant agent at the S. P. depot and his bride being the sister of John Shewry, manager of the Warren Construction company. After a dainty luncheon the couple left for the east to be gone about six weeks.

The guests after visiting each department observed an assembly hour, consisting of a violin solo by Professor Crocker; vocal solo by Oliver Needham and an address by Professor E. E. DeCou. Refreshments were then served by the alumni of the college.

On last Sunday evening the members of the Court Columbia, Daughters of Isabella, of Astoria, and members of the degree staff of Columbia, of Eugene, were the guests of Astoria Council No. 1307, Knights of Columbus, at a banquet in the Weinhard-Astoria hotel. The table were decorated in pink and red carnations and the place cards were entwined in nasturtiums. About thirty-five couples were seated at the banquet table.

Miss Annie O'Brien responded to the toast, "Daughters of Isabella, Miss Katherin Hastings gave a talk on the value of efficient officers and Miss Anna C. Schaefer delivered vocal solo.

BUY Athena Knit Underwear this season—get acquainted with its perfect fit—its daintiness—its wearing qualities—the splendid way it retains its shape and original beauty after washing—then you will wear it always.

ATHENA UNDERWEAR

for Women and Children

is the latest and best expression of true underwear comfort. Its perfect shaping brings it snug to the figure without wrinkling under the corset. The extra elasticity of the fabric prevents its becoming thick, coarse and bulky in laundering. The yarns are chosen with special reference to wearing qualities. Altogether no other underwear will suit your personal requirements quite so well. In union suits and separate garments at the price you usually pay.

For the Children

Athena insures a perfect fit the first time you buy it. It is long wearing.
