Large Buildings Are Erected at Army Bases in Preparation for Coming of Troops From United States.

(By The Associated Press) Paris, June 20.—The American army and navy Young Men's Christian association is making extensive plans to look after large forces of American soldiers and sailors as they arrive in France.

A meeting was held at the American embassy today at which the proposals were outlined. William Graves Sharp, the American ambassador, was named as honorary president of the association, and James J. Barbour, active president.

Already large forces are at work at the four American bases which cannot be designated because of military reasons. Ten large buildings have been ordered at a cost of 60,000 francs. Pending the completion of the buildings tents have been temporarily erected and local buildings rented. One large saloon has been bought out and transformed into flourishing Y. M. C. A. quarters. It was ready when the first American sailors landed and they were greeted with the Stars and Stripes and a large sign reading, "American Y. M. C. A. Come in." Here the men wrote letters, got their money changed and read American newspapers and magazines.

The American sailors and soldiers are showing the greatest interest in the distinctive American features of the Y. M. C. A. headquarters, such as soda water fountains, shoe shining parlors, chewing gum and peanuts. The organizers by Americanizing the centers are assuring substantial results in keeping the sailors and soldiers from the streets and cafes.

SUFFRAGIST BANNER IS AGAIN TORN DOWN

Crowd Is Angered by Display Made by Women Sentinels at White House Gates.

Washington, June 20.—The suffragist sentinels brought another banner to the White House gates today and another crowd tore it down. Today's wrecking of the banner was done with more deliberation than was the case yesterday. The police did not interfere.

The inscription on the banner today was the same as on the one displayed yesterday, accusing President Wilson and Elihu Root of "deceiving Russia" in saying the United States is a democracy and pleading with the Russian mission to demand the enfranchisement of women in the United States.

The banner was in front of the White House gates only for a few minutes and the crowd that collected was not large. A man passing in an automobile about the time the sentinels brought it from their headquarters, stopped his car, walked over, tore part of it off and resumed his journey, refusing to give his name.

A few minutes later after the crowd had grown a little and after a few shouts of "traitors," a man who gave his name as George B. Montgomery, of Richmond, Va., walked over and tore the remainder of the banner from its frame.

After the last shred of canvas had been removed, the police dispersed the crowd. Miss Lucy Burns, of New York, and Miss Catherine Morey, of Boston, held the banner. No attempt was made to touch them, either by the police or the crowd.

TRY IT AND SEE!

Lift your corns or calluses off with fingertal. Doesn't hurt a bit!

A noted Cincinnati chemist discovered a new ether compound and called it freezone and it now can be had in tiny bottles as here shown for a few cents from any drug store.

You simply apply a few drops of freezone upon a tender corn or painful callus and instantly the soreness disappears, then shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you can just lift it off with the fingers.

No pain, not a bit of soreness, either when applying freezone or afterwards and it doesn't even irritate skin.

Hard corns, soft corns or warts between the toes, also toughened calluses just shrivel up and lift off so easy. It is wonderful! Seems magical. It works like a charm. Genuine freezone has a yellow label. Don't accept any except with the yellow label.

100,000 AIRPLANES FOR ARMY, FAVORED

President of Aero Club Says 25,000 Aviators Equal Army of 1,000,000 men.

(By The Associated Press) Washington, June 21.—A billion dollars probably would be required to put 100,000 American airplanes and 10,000 to 20,000 aviators into the war, Allan Hawley, president of the Aero club of America, today told a sub-committee of the house military affairs committee. He declared 25,000 aviators could do more toward ending the war than 1,000,000 additional soldiers. He endorsed the bill to establish a separate department of aeronautics.

What might remain of the 100,000 airplanes when peace is restored could be utilized for commercial purposes, he said. A French government commission now is making plans for such use.

Mr. Hawley predicted that the day of trans-Atlantic air lines was at hand. "We are now manufacturing air cruisers capable of crossing the Atlantic and have both the pilots and the instruments needed for piloting them," he said.

CHERRY CROP WILL BE SHORT THIS YEAR

Present Indications Point to High Prices During Entire Season.

That Lane county will have only about one-third of a normal crop of cherries is the prediction of local growers and market men. California also has a short crop and southern Oregon also reports a short crop. As a consequence prices are expected to rule high during the entire season.

Firm prices without change characterize the local markets in most commodities. Grains, hay and seeds remain at the same prices which have ruled the most of the time for several weeks. Meats and poultry also continue about stationary.

The following prices are quoted on the local markets today:

Regiment of Girl Soldiers in Russia Now Ready For Service; Hardened for Task

Volunteers in "Command of Death" Sleep on Boards Without Bedclothes, Eliminating the Weak. Woman Officer, Twice Wounded, Will Command. Leader Convinced Her Warriors Will Excel Male Fighters. Smallest Breach of Discipline Is Punished by Expulsion and Disgrace.

(By The Associated Press) Petrograd, June 21.—The "command of death," which is the official title of the women's regiment raised by the twice wounded girl officer, Vera Butchikareff, will be reviewed today by Minister of War Kerenky. The regiment will have its first public parade on Sunday and will leave in a fortnight for the front, probably for the Minak sector.

The Associated Press correspondent, who visited the barracks in Torgyaya street, found posted at the gate a little blue-eyed sentry in a soldier's khaki blouse, short breeches, green forage cap, ordinary woman's black stockings and neat shoes. The sentry was Marya Skrydloff, daughter of Admiral Skrydloff, former commander of the Baltic fleet, and minister of marine. Inside there were four large dormitories, the beds without bedding and strewn with heavy soldiers' overcoats. In the courtyard 300 girls were at drill, mostly between 18 and 25 years of age, of good physique and many of them pretty. They wore their hair short or had their heads entirely shaved. They were drilling under the instruction of a male sergeant of the Volynsky regiment and marched to an exaggerated goose step.

Comander lieutenant Butchikareff explained that most of the recruits were from the higher educational academies or secondary schools with a few peasants, factory girls and servants. Some married women were accepted, but none who had children. The girl commander said: "We apply the rigid system of discipline of the pre-revolution army, rejecting the new principle of soldier self-government. Having no time to inure the girls gradually to hardships we impose a Spartan regime from the first. They sleep on boards without bedclothes, thus immediately eliminating the weak. The smallest breach of discipline was punished by expulsion in disgrace."

"The ordinary soldier's food is furnished by the guards' equipage corps. We rise at 4 and drill daily from 7 to 11 and again from 1 to 6. The girls carry the cavalry carbine, which is five pounds lighter than the regular army rifle. On our first parade I requested any girl whose motives were frivolous to step out. Only one did so, but later many who were unable to stand the privations left."

"We are fully official and are already entered on the list of regiments. Uniforms and supplies are received from the ministry of war, to which we render account and present reports. Yesterday the commander of the Petrograd military district reviewed us and expressed his satisfaction. I am convinced that we will excel the male fighters."

Asked as to the attitude of the male army, Commander Butchikareff said that only the Volynsky regiment, which led the Petrograd revolution, was really favorable.

JUDGE SKIPWORTH'S DECISION IS UPHELD

Oregon Supreme Court Sustains Eugene Jurist in Roseburg Bank Case.

The Oregon supreme court handed down a decision Tuesday upholding the decision of Judge G. F. Skipworth, of Eugene, in the case of Marks vs. The First National bank of Roseburg.

This action was brought by Mr. Marks to recover $4796.82, which he alleged was due as balance on deposits made by himself and assigned him for collection. It developed in the case that the money was placed in deposit in the First National bank, and that it was drawn out and loaned by T. R. Sheridan, previous to the consolidation with the Douglas National bank. The plaintiff who was represented by John T. Long and George Jones, alleged that Mr. Sheridan's action was without his knowledge and consent and that he had never ratified the action. It was claimed by the plaintiff that he had demanded payment of the balances and that the money had never been forthcoming.

The bank maintained that the loans were made by Mr. Sheridan with the consent of the plaintiff and that the bank could not be held liable for the amount charged. Attorney O. P. Coshow represented the defendant and the opinion of the judge in favor of the bank was sustained by the supreme court.

The cases against the First National bank have attracted a great deal of attention throughout the state, as many new legal points are involved in their settlement.
