LAST TIME TONIGHT

SUMMER SCHOOL.

Why waste the summer months? Make the summer pay you dividends on your time. The Eugene Business College is now and will be in session all summer. New classes begin Monday morning, June 23.

MOTOR TO GRANTS PASS.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Booth went to Grants Pass Sunday morning. They made the trip by motor and expect to be gone about three days. Austin Chaney drove the car.

RETURN TO LOS ANGELES.

Miss Vivian Applegate and Miss Esther Haynor, both graduate nurses of Los Angeles, who have been visiting at the J. M. Shelley home, returned to Los Angeles Saturday.

BORN

STETSON—To Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Stetson, at Eugene hospital, June 22, 1917, a daughter.

W. C. T. U. SENDS ROSES.
The Guard is under obligations to the ladies of the local W. C. T. U. for a fine bouquet of roses.

Try a Eugene Special for a good cigar.

Nation-wide Registration Furnishes Keynote for Greatest Celebration in History.

The program will be dedicated to the 60,000 young men who have enrolled in this state by selective draft

For the first time in its history the United States is engaged in a great world war, the greatest of all world wars. For the first time in its history, the United States has enrolled the flower of its young manhood as the first great distinctive step to participate in that great world war.

Is not this the logical Keynote for this year's national celebration of July Fourth.

Let us all assemble and honor OUR boys who have willingly offered their services to their country.
