EXAMINATION OF MEN FOR OFFICERS CAMPS WILL OPEN ON MONDAY

All Applications for Admission Must Apply to Committee in Person Not Later Than July 15. Headquarters Designated

Eugene bankers appointed as a committee of the Military Training Association of the United States have a busy time in sight, in view of elaborate detail for the performance of their duties which will consist of examining all Lane county applicants for admission to the second officers' training camp to be held August 27 to November 26, at Presidio, Cal. Applicants must make application in person.

The committee will be sort of a court of last resort. Its findings will be final. Eugene physicians, who volunteer to do the work, will make physical examinations. The members of the committee are: P. E. Snodgrass, L. L. Goodrich, E. D. Paine and B. B. Brundage. It was announced today that the committee will meet in the room of the Eugene chamber of commerce every afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock, beginning Monday and excepting Sundays and holidays.

July 15 Is Final Date.

The committee must complete its work not later than July 15 and no applications for admission to the camp will be considered after that date.

The district in which Eugene is included embraces the states of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, Nevada, California and Utah. The committee in this city, which will consider only applicants of men who are residents of Lane county, will make its reports direct to Major James Bugge, U. S. A., retired, at Vancouver, Wash. The plan for selecting recruits for the officers' training camp in this manner is to guard so far as possible, against the necessity for weeding out men after they have actually been transported to the camps.

An information bulletin issued by the western department of the Military Training Camps Association of the United States gives information for possible applicants, as follows:

To Officer Drafted Forces.

"To provide officers for the drafted forces of the national army the war department has adopted the policy of commissioning all new officers of the line (infantry, cavalry, field and coast artillery) purely on the basis of demonstrated ability after three months' observation and training in the officers' training camps."

"A second series of officers' training camps will be held beginning August 27, 1917, with the definite mission of producing a body of line officers (infantry, cavalry, field and coast artillery), capable of filling all places in the grades above lieutenant and many of the places in the grade of lieutenant in the second 500,000 troops."

"The second camp for the western department will be held at the Presidio reservation, San Francisco, Cal., and will open on August 27, 1917, and close November 26, 1917."

Classes Eligible to Apply. Age Limits.

"(a) Members of the officers, reserve corps (line sections) who, through no fault of their own, were unable to attend the first series of camps; also reserve officers of staff corps under 50 years of age with at least two months' service in war and who have had experience in infantry, cavalry or artillery."

"(b) Non-commissioned officers of the regular army recommended in March, 1917, for temporary appointment in case of war, and who, through no fault of their own, were unable to attend the training schools for regular army non-commissioned officers in April, 1917. Maximum age limit 50 years."

"(c) Resigned officers of the regular army. Maximum age limit 50 years."

"(d) Men of proper qualifications made eligible for the officers' reserve corps by the army appropriation of May 12, 1917. Maximum age limit 50 years."

"(e) Men who have qualified for commissions under general orders No. 42, war department, 1915. Maximum age limit 50 years."

"(f) Citizens of the United States who have had their war service in the present war as officers or non-commissioned officers of the line in the armies of allied powers. Maximum age limit 44 years."

"(g) Men of exceptional qualifications who tendered their services to the government prior to June 5, 1917, and who have been listed under G. O. 37, war department. Maximum age limit 50 years."

"(h) Citizens with valuable military experience and adaptability for commissioned grade, or citizens who have demonstrated marked ability and capacity for leadership, and are clearly adapted for military service in commissioned grade. Maximum age limit 44 years."

"Employees of the United States must inclose the signed recommendation and consent of their chiefs."

"Note—Men who applied for the first series of camps must re-apply whether or not certified as suitable for the first camps. They will have no preference in selection for these camps but will be on an equal basis with other applicants."

"The minimum age limit for all applicants is 20 years and 9 months. However, in order to obtain the experienced class of men desired, preference will be given to men over 31 years of age other things being equal. Because of the anticipated large number of applications, it will probably be difficult for men under that age to qualify except in instances where the applicant has pre-eminent qualifications or unusual military experience."

No Letters of Recommendation.

"Note particularly that letters of recommendation are not wanted, but only the names of three responsible citizens who know the applicant best. Each applicant must be examined physically at his own expense by a reputable physician who will fill out the physical report forming part of the official application blank. This preliminary examination is subject to review and the examining officer may require another examination. Men who submitted physical examination on the army blank for the first series of camps may submit these reports in lieu of a new examination."

"Applications will be received up to July 15, 1917. Under no circumstances will an application be considered if received after July 15."

"Accepted applicants, unless they are reserve officers or members of the regular army or national guard in federal service, will be required to enlist for a period of three months, under Section 54, national defense act, and will agree to accept such commission in the army of the United States as may be tendered by the secretary of war. The enlistment obligates one to service in the training camp only."

"The government will pay the men in training $100 per month during the three months' course and will provide transportation, uniforms and subsistence except that reserve officers in training will receive the pay of their grades and will provide uniforms and subsistence at their own expense."

Character of Men Desired.

"Since the special object of these camps is to train a body of men fitted to fill the more responsible positions of command in the new armies, every effort will be made to select men of exceptional character and proved ability in their va-

CATHERINE DE MEDICI CALLING ON HER SON CHARLES IX TO ORDER THE MASSACRE OF THE HUGUENOTS, BY D. W. GRIFFITH'S INTOLERANCE.

D. W. Griffith's latest colossal spectacle "Intolerance," said to be the most magnificent spectacle of all time, will be the attraction at the Eugene theatre July 3rd and 4th.

This new art creation, which comes here following its half year of popularity at the Liberty theatre, New York, supplemented by long runs in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Chicago, San Francisco and Los Angeles, is a tremendous representation of big historic events in the three distinct periods of the world's history, placed in apposition with a story of life among the people of America of today.

The purpose of this spectacle is to show love's struggle throughout the ages, which Mr. Griffith does by means of four parallel stories. Ancient Babylon, Judea at the time of Christ, Medieval Paris and a modern American city are the scenes of these stories.

Such wonderful settings, it is said, as were provided for the showing of scenes in and about the ancient city of Babylon are so massive and so complete in accurate detail as to stagger the imagination. Tremendous battles are fought—battles such as even today could not be equalled in fierceness of personal conflict.

When the Nazarene Himself is seen in the streets of Jerusalem there is the visualization, in reverent artistry, of an actual Savior of mankind—often surpassing in beauty or in effectiveness some of the world's most famed paintings of incidents at the time of Christ. Then again the horrors of the massacre of St. Bartholomew are set forth with the skill of a master to effects, and all in surroundings that suggest the actual period. The siege of the walls of Babylon, and of the city itself, with tremendous instruments of ancient warfare to attack the walls, and with struggling minions falling under the blow of swords, perishing by fire or going to death in the toppling and falling of lofty towers, is the achievement of one who has done big things in a big way.

Then there is the story of today, with a man brought to the gallows for a crime he did not commit and saved only through the timely intervention of a governor, sought by the confessed murderer in a racing automobile and caught, in the nick of time, as he sat in the observation car of an express train overtaken by the motorcar.

Over 125,000 people took part in "Intolerance," quite the largest cast ever assembled for any production. Some of this country's most prominent film stars have the leading roles, among them, Mae Marsh, Miriam Cooper, Lillian Gish, Constance Talmadge, Seena Owen, Margery Wilson, Bessie Love, Robert Harron, Elmer Clifton, Alfred Paget, Walter Long and Tully Marshall.

WARTIME SUBJECTS INTEREST STUDENTS

University of Oregon Library Shows History Is Supplanting Fiction to Some Extent.

While definite figures are not yet available, library assistants at the University report a decided drift toward wartime subjects in the books taken out at the loan desk within the last few weeks. Books on statesmanship, international politics, Red Cross and ambulance work, and aviation have bounded into popularity. History is supplanting fiction to some extent, according to Mrs. M. E. McClintock of the loan desk. This trend is explained by a desire on the part of the students to get a better understanding of the causes leading up to the world conflict.

Victor Stroud, of Pleasant Hill, was transacting business in the city Friday afternoon.
