FEED THE FIGHTERS! WIN THE WAR? HARVEST THE CROPS! SAVE THE YIELDS!

On the battlefields of France and Flanders the United States boys and the Canadian boys are fighting side by side to win for the world the freedom that Prussianism would destroy. While doing this they must be fed and every ounce of muscle that can be recruited must go into use to save this year's crops. A short harvest period requires the combined forces of the two countries in team work, such as the soldier boys in France and Flanders are demonstrating.

THE COMBINED FIGHTERS IN FRANCE AND FLANDERS AND THE COMBINED HARVESTERS IN AMERICA WILL BRING THE ALLIED VICTORY NEARER.
A reciprocal arrangement for the use of farm workers has been perfected between the Department of the Interior of Canada and the Departments of Labor and Agriculture of the United States, under which it is proposed to permit the harvesters that are now engaged in the wheat fields of Oklahoma, Kansas, Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Minnesota, and Wisconsin to move over into Canada, with the privilege of later returning to the United States, when the crops in the United States have been conserved, and help to save the enormous crops in Canada which by that time will be ready for harvesting.

HELP YOUR CANADIAN NEIGHBORS WHEN YOUR OWN CROP IS HARVESTED.

EACH WOMAN CAN DO SOME SERVICE

So Says Mrs. Castner Who Talks on Coming Registration; Cards Are Left.

There is no excuse for any woman to say, "There is nothing I can do," when called upon to fill out the service registration card, according to Mrs. Charles H. Castner, president of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, and chairman of the women's committee, Oregon division, Council of National Defense. Mrs. Castner talked to the heads of local women's organizations and about 150 Red Cross members at the Red Cross headquarters Wednesday afternoon.

The cards, of which enough were left so that each woman in this city and vicinity will get one, have printed upon them the names of 154 occupations in which women are engaged or might engage. Each woman is expected to underline the branch in which she would be willing to serve or train, as well as to designate those in which she is trained. The filling out of the card does not pledge the signer to service but if the call should come for women to enter the industrial world, these cards will be at the command of the state and government officials. All women above the age of 16 years are expected to register, this registration supersedes all others, and this card will be the only official one.

Signers of the cards are asked to state whether this would be given voluntarily, for expenses only, or for a salary. For those home women, to whom it seems there is little they can do, Mrs. Castner suggested that they signify their willingness to care for children during the working day, or to share their homes with a widow or children. By having their children cared for in this manner, younger or trained women, if called upon to do so, could take the place of the men who are called.

September 15 has been called as registration day, but this is not the only day available for registering. Mrs. Castner explained. Because of a little misunderstanding in appointing a chairman for this work in Eugene, it is probable that the local registration can not take place until a little later. Mrs. W. P. Boynton, who was appointed chairman, has been away from the city all summer, and it was not until recently that she received Mrs. Castner's letter telling of the appointment. Mrs. L. E. Bean was then appointed temporary chairman.

Permanent officers were elected Wednesday afternoon at follows: Chairman, Mrs. A. L. Ingalls; vice-chairman, Mrs. Mary G. Faubian and Secretary, Mrs. W. L. DeLano. It was planned to district the town under Mrs. Castner's supervision, and then a registration day will be named when the committee meets.

This community registration is a part of the state registration, which, in turn, is a part of the national campaign for registering the women and their services. Mrs. Castner urges so large a registration for this state as possible, as a matter of pride in keeping up Oregon's record, and as a matter of patriotic duty.

Lane County Association Invites Old Timers to Attend Fair Free Second Day.

Lane county pioneers will be guests of honor at the Lane county fair Thursday October 4. The fair board has extended an invitation to the members of the Pioneer's association to attend on that day and they will be admitted free. The annual meeting of the association will be held in the fair grounds that day. Those who came to Oregon, or were born in Oregon prior to 1805 are eligible to membership. There will be an exhibition of historic relics of pioneer days in connection with the meeting of the association. W. L. William Pitney, of Junction City, is the president of the association. The rolls bear the names of 348 pioneers, living and dead. There will be a checking up at the meeting at the fair ground, to determine the actual number of pioneers now living.

Revolt of Russians

Georgians and Caucasians, is the only unit of troops sent against Petrograd which remains solid for General Korniloff. That body is now at Tarskoe-Selo and up to yesterday it was feared force would have to be applied to it but it now seems the situation has cleared.

It appears to be undoubted that the "savage" division though devoted to General Korniloff, had no idea of their destination or his aim. The division consists of eight regiments of fierce Caucasus cavalry recruited almost exclusively from the tribes of Ingushes, Kabardians and Ossetinians and contains a few Tartars.

Almost all are Mohammedans and among them are many priests. Some are wholly uneducated. Their commander is General Bagration.

The submission of the "savage" division was brought about through the devotion of a group of their co-religionists to the government. The tribesmen do not speak Russian, suspect and dread Christians and when approached by the government's Russian emissaries refused to listen to them and threatened them with arrest.

A Mohammedan Tartar artillery officer, General Kugusheff, with other Moslem officers who are devoted to the government yesterday went on a mission to them and were well received. They have returned and are now at the Petrograd staff office. There The Associated Press interviewed General Kugusheff, a little swarthy picturesque Asiatic whose head was bandaged from a wound and who wore an ordinary Russian uniform. The general said: "The Caucasians declared they absolutely refused to surrender and come to Petrograd for fear the Bolsheviks would massacre them. But they were willing to abandon resistance on condition they were sent home to the Caucasus front where, however, they must not be employed against their co-religionists—the Turks."

"After prolonged negotiations we agreed to recommend this solution to Premier Kerensky and we returned to Petrograd. The premier has now promised us that the 'savage' division will be unpunished and will be sent home to the Caucasus and will be absolved from service against the Turks. I consider their submission assured."

SAYS REVOLT IS FAILURE.

Petrograd, Sept. 12.—Numerous delegations from General Korniloff's army are arriving at the staff office of the Petrograd military district in a penitent mood, the Associated Press has been informed by Premier Kerensky's secretary. The soldiers declare they have been deceived as to the aims of General Korniloff's rebellion.

General Palehinsky, second in command to General Savinkoff, commander of the Petrograd district, declares the revolt may now be considered to be a final and irrevocable failure. He says the question of General Korniloff's surrender is now a matter of secondary importance.

Premier Kerensky's appointment as commander-in-chief of all the armies has been confirmed officially by the cabinet. General Alexieff has been confirmed as his chief of staff. Vice-Premier Nekrasoff announces that General Alexieff has sent a telegram to General Korniloff demanding his immediate surrender.

RECENT RAINS CAUSE TOMATO DAMAGE

Very Little Change Manifested in Prices; Fall Vegetables Are in Evidence.

Growers report that the recent rains are damaging rather than helping the tomato crop. They state that the wet weather is causing them to rot and crack. Pumpkins and winter squashes are becoming more plenty, while the earlier vegetables are becoming more scarce in the market. Second crop strawberries are seen in small quantities.

About 700 Americans Remain in Germany

(By The Associated Press)
Berlin, via London, Sept. 12.—Since the breaking off of relations between the United States and Germany, 470 Americans have departed from Germany for home or neutral countries. The census recently compiled by the American Association of Commerce and Trade of Berlin indicated that there were approximately 1,200 Americans in Germany on March 1. The present number will, therefore, not greatly exceed 700, half of whom are living in Berlin.

Americans continue to be unmolested and are subjected to the same police rules and travel restrictions as neutrals. Requests for permits to cross the frontiers are granted in the order filed. The routine, however, frequently necessitates a wait of three or four weeks.

WHEAT CENSUS WILL BE TAKEN SPEEDILY

County Agricultural Agent N. S. Robb Receives Orders to Make Estimate.

N. S. Robb, county agricultural agent of Lane county, has received word from the food administration bureau of the United States ordering an immediate survey of the wheat crop of Lane county, and instructed to report in detail the amount harvested in each township.

Mr. Robb will at once enter upon the work and rush it to completion, listing aside all regularly planned work until this is completed.

DELEGATION DESIRES COUNTY BUILD ROAD

A delegation of citizens from the neighborhood of Mapleton and Cushman are in the city today to ask the county court to accept the offer of the Southern Pacific railway company to accept $17,000 and go ahead and build the road to replace one taken by the railroad. The Oregon public service commission recently ordered the railroad to construct the road within 60 days and the railroad appealed to the circuit court. The people want the road immediately and express the willingness to make donations of work if the county will take over the work. As the county officials estimate that the road will cost in the neighborhood of $50,000 it is considered doubtful if the county will take over the construction of the road until the matter is decided in the courts.

The members of the delegation in the city are J. C. Beck, Joe Morris, Jr., and T. J. Neeley.

HOW THE WOMEN CAN HELP WIN THE WAR

When men go to war women's service becomes more than ever paramount to the existence and welfare of the Nation. It is the women who must fill the vacant places, and who must save and conserve as well as produce. You can do your share of work by economizing food and saving every bit of surplus garden stuff and fruits by canning.
