Glen Tirrell, Sergeant Elmer Geiger and Sergeant Charlie Walker, all of the Third company, O. C. A., are here from Fort Stevens for short visits at their homes.

To Conduct Series of Religious Meetings

Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Burke and J. E. Carlson, of Eugene, leave Friday for Junction City where they will conduct religious meetings for the coming two weeks.

Go to Seashore—

A. F. Reddle, of the department of public speaking at the University, and Mrs. Reddle, left Friday noon for Bandon, Or., to be guests of John Kronenberg, over the holiday vacation.

Return to Ashland—

Leith Abbott, reporter on the morning paper, left for his home in Ashland Thursday night and Harley Holmes returned there Friday for the vacation. Both are freshmen at the University.

Go to Salem for Christmas—

Mrs. Ray Chapman and baby left Friday morning for her former home at Salem to spend Christmas with her folks. Mr. Chapman will go in a few days to spend Christmas there also.

Leaves to Attend Convention—

Clint Johns, a member of Sigma Nu fraternity and attending the University of Oregon, left Thursday for Cleveland, Ohio, where he will attend the national convention of his fraternity.

Here on Divorce Case—

The child will be given treatment according to the provision of the new state law providing for crippled and deformed children.

Will Help Train—

"Bill" Hayward, trainer of the University of Oregon athletic teams, leaves Friday for Pasadena, Calif., to help train the marine football team for the clash with the Camp Lewis eleven at that place Christmas day. Five of the marine team are University of Oregon men, including Johnny Beckett, the captain. Hugo Bedek, the Oregon coach, is there also, helping whip the team into shape.

All Home for Christmas—

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McMurphy are planning on having every member of their family home for Christmas. Robert McMurphy, junior, bugler in the Third company, O. C. A., and his wife, who was Miss Leora Tibbetts, are expected soon from Fort Stevens, while a daughter, Mrs. Allen Roberts, accompanied by her husband and three children, will probably arrive Saturday from The Dalles.

Christmas Mail Heaviest Ever—

On Thursday between 2:20 and 2:30 sacks of Christmas mail left the local postoffice, being the heaviest single day's shipment ever handled here, according to Postmaster E. L. Campbell. In spite of the fact that there is more mail than usual this year, the postoffice employes are keeping right up with the work, the removal of the carriers to the basement having a good deal to do with relieving the congestion. The improvements about the building are well under way, men being busy with the remodeling, painting and other features.

Private McDowell Writes—

A letter has been received at Fort Stevens from Private Wesley McDowell, of the Third company, who was recently appointed to attend a training school chauffeurs and truck drivers. The quartermaster department was held at camp Johnson, near Jacksonville, Fla. Private McDowell is a very enjoyable trip and is well pleased with their new quarters. He also states that he has a son, although a new training school, 450 cantonments already opened, 8000 negro workmen are employed there at present. McDowell is well known in Eugene, where he has lived for several years, and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McDowell, of Irving.
